2011-12 BASKETBALL MEDIA GUIDE

K-STATE BASKETBALL TRAINING FACILITY

COMING SUMMER 2012

Construction on a new 50,000 square foot K-State men's and women's basketball training facility. The facility, who design has been inspired by legendary Ahearn Field House, will be constructed to the east of Bramlage Coliseum.

PRACTICE GYMS

Each program will have access to its own regulation size NCAA practice court. The courts will include banners celebrating K-State rich basketball tradition.

LOBBY

A central two-story lobby and grand staircase ascends to the second level where the men's and women's basketball coaches' office are located. The lobby will showcase team banners, trophy cases and memorabilia from seasons past.

STATE-OF-THE-ART LOCKER ROOM

The men's basketball team will dress in one of the most spacious locker rooms in the country. The facility will contain a player lounge, weight room, sports medicine center and film room. All operations of the program will be contained in one building for the first time since the days of Ahearn Field House.

■ Martin Announces Staff Promotions

Looking to maintain the program's momentum and consistency, head coach Frank Martin announced coaching staff promotions in early June, including the elevation of Lamont Evans as a full-time assistant coach. In addition, he also promoted Brad Underwood to associate head coach and assistant coach Matt Figger to recruiting coordinator. The vacancy was created when associate head coach Dalonte Hill left for a coaching position at Maryland.

"Lamont has really earned this opportunity," said Martin. "After recommending him to other head coaches around the country early in the spring, I knew I had a great in-house candidate when Dalonte left the staff. He has really earned everyone's trust, including most importantly, the players. He has a great basketball mind and an engaging personality. I think all of these characteristics will make him an outstanding assistant coach."

Evans has played a pivotal role in the development of the program the past three years, beginning as an undergraduate manager in 2008-09 the continuing as a graduate manager from 2009-11. During this span, he helped K-State post a 74-31 (.705) overall record, which including three trips to the postseason highlighted by consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances in 2010 and 2011.

A native of Eleuthera, Bahamas, Evans came to the U.S. at the age of 5, eventually settling in Deerfield Beach, Fla. He developed into a standout point guard at Hallandale (Fla.) High School, where he earned second team Florida Class 5A All-State honors as a junior in 1994-95 before collecting first team accolades as a senior.

Evans played his first two years of college basketball at Seminole (Fla.) Junior College in Sanford, Fla., and St. Catharine College in St. Catharine, Ky., before enrolling as Drake in 1999. He played two seasons for the Bulldogs, appearing in 42 games from 1999 to 2001. For his career, he averaged 8.0 points on 41.5 percent shooting with 5.8 assists, 2.8 rebounds and 1.1 steals per game.

Evans spent seven years playing professionally around the world, including stops in the U.S. Basketball League and internationally in Slovenia, Germany, Finland, Belgium and Venezuela.

A former Wildcat letterman, Underwood is in his 24th season as a college coach, including his sixth at K-State. He received much acclaim last season, as Martin took his suggestion of adjusting the offensive scheme to the "pinch-post" in early January.

Figger is in his 19th season as a coach, including his fifth at K-State and assumes the recruiting coordinator position vacated by Hill. He has helped the Wildcats to 95 wins the last four seasons.

■ Hill, Underwood Invited to Villa 7

Assistant coaches Dalonte Hill and Brad Underwood took part in the prestigious Villa 7 Consortium at Virginia Commonwealth's Center for Sport Leadership this past May. Hill and Underwood were two of 55 men's assistant coaches invited to the conference and six at Big 12 institutions. Hill would later leave for an assistant spot at Maryland and Underwood was promoted to associate head coach.

The conference intends to introduce elite assistant men's and women's basketball coaches with athletics directors and conference commissioners to help better prepare them to become head coaches. Started in 2005, the Villa 7 has seen 38 alumni land head coaching positions at the Division I level, including most notably Xavier's Chris Mack, Memphis' Josh Pastner, Marquette's Buzz Williams and VCU's Shaka Smart.

The two-day conference included presentations from athletics directors and current head coaches with such topics as "The First 100 Days On The Job," "If I Knew Then What I Know Now" and "Inside The NCAA Selection Process." There will also be a "speed-dating" style event, where assistants will have mini-visits with a series of administrators.

■ Pullen Signs with Angelico Biella

Two-time All-American Jacob Pullen signed his first professional contract with Pallacanestro Biella, also known as Angelico Biella, of the Italian League in mid-July.

The school's all-time scoring leader with 2,132 points, Pullen will join a squad that posted an 11-19 overall record in the Series A of the Italian League, the highest level of professional basketball in the country. He is joined on the squad by four other American-born players - Aubrey Coleman (Houston), Edgar Sosa (Louisville), Marc Salyers (Samford) and A.J. Slaughter (Western Kentucky).

The team is based in the town of Biella in northwest Italy, which has a population of around 50,000 at the foothills of the Alps. It is around 50 miles from Turin and Milan. The squad typically plays 30 regular-season games before an eight-team playoff.

Pullen departed K-State as one of the school's all-time greatest players. He ranks in the Top 5 of 17 career school records, including marks for scoring, games played (135), double-digit scoring games (105), 3-point field goals made (299), 3-point field goals attempted (828) and steals (210). He also placed in the Top 10 in six career categories in the Big 12 history, including fourth in scoring. He was the 2011 winner of the Frances Pomeroy Naismith Award, which is given annually to the nation's top senior, six-foot and under.

■ K-State Again Leader in Attendance

Kansas State ranked among the Top 35 in attendance for the fourth time in five seasons in 2010-11. The Wildcats attracted 12,652 fans per game to 18 home games to rank 26th nationally and third in the Big 12. Kansas led all league schools with an average of 16,436 fans, which placed ninth in the country. All Big 12 schools ranked among the nation's Top 100, including eight in Top 50.

It was K-State's highest ranking since placing 25th in 2007-08 with an average of 12,529 fans per game. In 2009-10, the school placed 31st in attendance with 11,884 fans per game, while it was also 26th (12,301) in 2006-07. The 12,652 average ranks second in school history behind the 12,978 in 1988-89. Three of the top-5 attendance averages have come in the last five years.

Overall, K-State drew a total of 227,738 fans to its 18 home games in 2010-11, which marked the fourth time in the last five seasons that the school has drawn 200,000 or more fans. The attendance figure included the Dec. 21 game against UNLV, which drew 18,422 fans at the Sprint Center in Kansas City, Mo., since the department controlled all event operations. The 227,738 attendance total is the best in school history, surpassing the previous high of 212,987 in 2007-08. The team recorded sellouts in 15 of 17 games at Bramlage Coliseum, including all eight Big 12 contests. The 15 sellouts ranked second in the league behind Kansas (18).

■ McGruder, Spradling Compete in Europe

Junior Rodney McGruder and sophomore Will Spradling both competed for all-stars teams in Europe this past summer. Spradling played for Athletes in Action's tour of Macedonia and Kosovo in Eastern Europe from May 25-30, while McGruder played with the East Coast All-Stars during their trip to the Four Nations Cup in the northern European country of Estonia in early August.

Spradling, playing alongside Big 12 brethren Cory Jefferson and A.J. Walton of Baylor and Jordan Juenemann and Jeff Withey of Kansas helped the AIA squad to a 6-1 overall record, including the tournament championship against Poland. He was named the most valuable player and to the All-Tournament team. He scored 20 or more points twice in the tournament, including a team-high 23 in the team's only loss to Poland (May 24) and a team-best 25 vs. the Bulgarian U20 National Team (May 27). He posted 14 vs. Bulgaria Select (May 26), while he had eight points, four assists and three rebounds vs. the Kosovoan National Team (May 31).

McGruder was named to the Four Nations Cup All-Tournament, as the East Coast All-Stars finished third in the event behind Estonia (2-1) and Georgia (2-1) and ahead of fourth-place Sweden (1-2). He was the only All-Star named to the all-tournament team after averaging 13.7 points, 6.7 rebounds and 2.7 steals in the three-game tournament. He hit the game-winning shot in the victory over Sweden (August 5) before pouring in a team-high 22 points and 14 rebounds in the 98-81 loss to Georgia (August 6).

■ K-State Unveils Newly-Designed Floor

K-State unveiled a newly-designed and refurbished basketball court at Bramlage Coliseum in the off-season. The Robbins All-Star Plus floor, which was originally installed in 2004, received a new court design to incorporate the new branding effort, while it was completely overhauled to replace broken pine boards and locking clamps that are used to hold the 290 (6x8) panels together.

The floor was sanded down to bare wood and new graphics and court design were painted to include not only the new design, but also new NCAA rule changes. The men's and women's basketball teams will now use the same 3-point distance (20 feet, 9 inches), while the men have added a restricted-area arc under each rim.

The design centers on a purple octagon shape that surrounds the floor with a lone purple Powercat at center court. The shape echoes the unique octagonal design of the building. The "K-State" word mark is prominently found at the top of center court and again under both baskets with the athletics website and the new university mark alternating at both ends of the baseline. Bramlage Coliseum is written at the bottom of center court directly opposite the "K-State" word mark. The floor maintains its purple lanes, but there is now a darker stain to mark each 3-point line. The Big 12 logo is displayed within each 3-point arc.

New Era Begins

The post-Pullen era begins with the return of seven lettermen in 2011-12

It's a new era of Kansas State men's basketball in many respects in 2011-12. Not only will the Wildcats begin a new chapter with the loss of two-time All-American Jacob Pullen, but they will begin a new life in conference play with the introduction of an 18-game round-robin schedule in the Big 12 Conference. The league will be the only one of the six major conferences, where every team plays everyone home and away. That means every Big 12 team will make the trip to the Bramlage Coliseum this season, including as many as six preseason Top 25 squads in Baylor, Kansas, Missouri, Texas and Texas A&M.

That presents a daunting task for the Wildcats, who must replace a four-year starter and all-time leading scorer (2,132) in Pullen as well as a two-year starter in Curtis Kelly. Pullen departs K-State as one of its most decorated players, holding school records for not only scoring, but wins (95), games played (135), double-digit scoring games (105), 3-point field goals (299), 3-point field goals attempted (828) and steals (210). In all, his name is listed in the Top 5 in 17 categories in school history.

The Wildcats return seven lettermen, including five players with starting experience, from a squad that posted a 23-11 overall record, including a tie for third place in the league standings at 10-6, en route to its third NCAA Tournament appearance in four years in 2010-11. It marked the school's fifth consecutive postseason appearance as well as its fifth 20-win season - a first for both in the program's 108-year history. The squad finished in the Top 25 of both major polls, ranking 21st in The Associated Press and No. 24 in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches' polls, which marked the first time that the Wildcats have concluded the year ranked in the coaches' poll in consecutive seasons since 1971-72 and 1972-73.

Among the five returning with starting experience are senior Jamar Samuels, junior Rodney McGruder and sophomores Jordan Henriquez and Shane Southwell. Samuels, who started 21 games as a junior, was the winner of the 2010 Big 12 Sixth Man Award, while McGruder was the only player to start all 34 games a year ago and returns as the leader in both scoring (11.1 ppg.) and rebounding (5.9 rpg.). Southwell started the final 17 games, including both NCAA Tournament games, while Spradling was the team's top reserve and the returning leader in both assists (1.9 apg.) and steals (0.8 spg.). Henriquez started just one game, but was one of three players to see action in all 34 games.

"The thing I like about the guys we have coming back is they've played big time minutes in big time games," said head coach Frank Martin, whose 95 wins are the most by a head coach in school history in his first four years and the most in any four-year span in school history. "Spradling and McGruder are going to have to lead our new guys just like Pullen led them. When we got good minutes out of those two [Spradling and McGruder] last year, we beat anybody and everybody."

Backcourt

The job of replacing Pullen will come in the form of numbers, where the Wildcats return four players - Martavious Irving, Rodney McGruder, Shane Southwell and Will Spradling - with significant experience in the backcourt to go with a host of newcomers in transfers Jeremy Jones and Omari Lawrence as well as freshmen Angel Rodriguez, Shawn Meyer and Brian Rohleder.

McGruder was the only player to start all 34 games in 2010-11 and Spradling was the first freshman to see action in all games in a season since Pullen and Michael Beasley in 2007-08. Southwell, who could also see time at small forward, started the last 17 games a season ago, while Irving has yet to start but has played in 66 of 71 games the past two seasons. Jones was a third team NCAA All-American at Seward (Kan.) County Community College in 2010-11, averaging a team-best 18.6 points on 48.9 percent shooting from the field. Lawrence sat out last season after playing his freshman season at St. John's in 2009-10. Rodriguez was rated among the best players in the state of Florida, while walk-ons Meyer and Rohleder both played for quality high school programs.

Martin acknowledges his backcourt is unproven, but says the 2011-12 Wildcats are without question "the fastest, most athletic team we've had. Our team speed is unbelievable."

McGruder and Spradling are the undisputed leaders of the team, having experienced the highs and lows of the 2010-11 season. Both gained valuable experience this past summer, playing for all-star teams in Europe. Spradling helped an Athletes in Action team to a 6-1 record in May during its tour of Macedonia and Kosovo, earning tournament most valuable player honors after scoring 20 or more points twice. McGruder was named to the Four Nations Cup All-Tournament team in Estonia after averaging 13.7 points, 6.7 rebounds and 2.7 steals per game for the East Coast All-Stars in August.

Spradling is expected to be the team's primary point guard after backing up Pullen for most of his rookie campaign. He averaged 6.4 points on nearly 40 percent shooting a year ago, including 37 percent from 3-point range, with 1.8 assists and 1.6 rebounds in 21.9 minutes per game. He ranked among the Top 5 in nine categories, including second in assists, steals and free throw percentage (82.5), third in 3-point field goals (40) and attempts and fifth in scoring. He scored in double figures seven times a season ago, including a 17-point performance against Baylor before an ESPN's Big Monday audience.

"Will's one of those guys who doesn't wow you with an inside-out dribble or anything like that, but he so competitive and understands structure so well," said Martin.

With the versatility on K-State's roster, several players will be involved at point guard spot, including Irving, Jones and Rodriguez. Irving has averaged just under three points in 66 career games during his Wildcat career, while Jones averaged 4.5 assists and 1.7 steals during his time at Seward County to go with 18.6 points per game. He led the team in 11 categories, including scoring, 3-point field goals, assists, starts and minutes played. Jones scored in double figures in 32 of 34 games played, including 15 20-point outings. Rodriguez was rated as high as the No. 4 prospect in the state of Florida out of high school, where he twice named first team All-Class 6A. Although his senior year was cut short due to the use of an ineligible player, he still averaged 23 points and six assists.

The team's top offensive returner, McGruder averaged 11.1 points on 43.9 percent shooting, including 40.8 percent from 3-point range, with a team-best 5.9 rebounds and 1.5 assists in 30.6 minutes per game in 2010-11. He ranked second in most offensive categories to Pullen, including scoring, double-digit scoring games (23), field goals, field goals attempted, 3-point field goals and minutes played. He scored in double figures 23 times, including 14 in Big 12 play, while he collected two double-doubles. He was named third team All-Big 12 by several media outlets, including the league coaches.

Depth at the shooting guard spot will come from a variety of different players, including primarily Jones, but could include Lawrence, Spradling and Southwell.

Frontcourt

Much like the backcourt, the frontcourt has plenty of talent and experience, but must offset the loss of starter Curtis Kelly, who averaged 10.5 points, 5.5 rebounds and 1.3 blocks as a senior in 2010-11. The Wildcats return three players with starting experience, including 2010 Big 12 Sixth Man Award winner senior Jamar Samuels, sophomore Shane Southwell and junior Jordan Henriquez. The group also includes the return of senior Victor Ojeleye and redshirt freshman Nino Williams and promising newcomers in transfer James Watson and freshmen Adrian Diaz and Thomas Gipson.

Samuels looks to regain his sophomore form when he averaged 11 points on 53.9 percent shooting to go with 4.9 rebounds en route to earning the Sixth Man Award. He should return to his role as the team's top reserve after starting 21 games as a junior. He has averaged 9.3 points in his career on 48.8 percent shooting to go with 5.0 rebounds per game and has a chance to eclipse the 1,000-point barrier.

A late bloomer as a freshman, Southwell turned it on as the season progressed, starting the final 17 games, including both NCAA Tournament games. Although he averaged just 1.8 points and 2.1 rebounds in 12.6 minutes per game for the season, those numbers increased in the those final 17 contests, where he averaged 2.8 points, 2.9 rebounds and 2.1 assists in 18.8 minutes per game. His best game came in the win over No. 7 Texas in Austin, where he had eight points, five rebounds, four assists, three blocks and two steals in 24 minutes. He also had 10 points in the NCAA Tournament win over Utah State.

Henriquez should be an anchor down low in his junior season after gaining significant experience as a sophomore in 2010-11. He averaged 3.7 points on 45.6 percent shooting to go with 4.3 rebounds and 1.3 blocks in 13.6 minutes per game. He scored double figures three times, including a memorable performance in the victory over No. 1 Kansas with 10 points and five rebounds.

Promising newcomers Watson, Diaz and Gipson could all play significant roles in 2011-12. Watson brings tremendous experience after playing two years at Washington State (2008-10) and another at the junior college level. Both Diaz and Gipson were ranked among the Rivals' 150 out of high school. Diaz averaged 23 points, 10 rebounds and four blocks as a senior at Hialeah-Miami Lakes (Fla.) High School, while Gipson scored in double figures in 32 of 37 games as a senior at Cedar Hill (Texas) High School.

Schedule

K-State will again boast a difficult slate in 2011-12, as the Wildcats could play as many as 15 games against teams that advanced to the postseason in 2010-11, including seven that earned invitations to the NCAA Tournament. In addition to the new 18-game round-robin Big 12 slate, the squad will face non-conference tests at Virginia Tech (Dec. 4), West Virginia (Dec. 8) at INTRUST Bank Arena in Wichita, Alabama (Dec. 17) at the Sprint Center in Kansas City as well as the Diamond Head Classic in Honolulu.

The Wildcats have posted a strength of schedule in the Top 10 nationally the past two seasons, which has enabled the squad to earn single-digits seed to the NCAA Tournament, including a program-best No. 2 seed in the 2010 NCAA Tournament. The season begins with five consecutive home games, including the first meeting with Atlantic 10 foe George Washington since 1940. In addition to Virginia Tech, West Virginia and Alabama, the Wildcats could play postseason teams in all three games at the Diamond Head Classic, which includes Auburn, Clemson, Hawai'i, Long Beach State, Southern Illinois, UTEP and Xavier.

The Big 12 will again be one of the nation's top conferences with a league-record eight teams advancing to the postseason a year ago. The league schedule starts on Wednesday, Jan. 4 at Kansas and includes visits by the Jayhawks and fellow NCAA Tournament participants Missouri, Texas and Texas A&M. For the fifth consecutive season, the Phillips 66 Big 12 Championship will be played at the Sprint Center.

Championship Tradition

Kansas State has one of the most tradition-rich men's basketball programs in the nation.

From famed players such as Bob Boozer, Rolando Blackman, Mitch Richmond and Michael Beasley to legendary head coaches Jack Gardner, Fred 'Tex' Winter, Lowell 'Cotton' Fitzsimmons and Jack Hartman, Kansas State has one of the nation's proudest traditions in men's basketball. The program was rated among top 30 all-time by two groups, including 22nd by Street & Smith's in its publication titled the "100 Greatest College Basketball Programs of All-Time" and 27th by ESPN in its recently released college basketball encyclopedia, which chronicles the complete history of men's basketball. The Wildcats have been playing the game since 1902 and have racked up over 1,400 victories, 25 NCAA Tournament appearances and 19 conference championships. The program has advanced to the Sweet 16 on 16 occasions, while making 11 trips to the Elite Eight and four ventures to the game's ultimate destination, the Final Four. Along the way, K-State has captured the passion of its fans, as the Wildcats have played before hundreds of sellouts crowds at its legendary home venues - Nichols Gym, Ahearn Field House and now, Bramlage Coliseum.

Legendary Coaches

Kansas State has a rich coaching heritage that includes some of the game's greatest tacticians.

Through the years, Kansas State's coaching ledger has read like a who's who of great basketball minds. Naismith Hall of Fame inductee Jack Gardner was one of the first great coaches at K-State, guiding the school to 147 wins, two NCAA Final Four appearances, including the NCAA title game in 1951, and three conference championships. Fellow Naismith Hall of Fame inductee Tex Winter followed him in 1954 and would win 262 games in his 15-year tenure en route to six NCAA Tournament appearances and eight league titles. Cotton Fitzsimmons took over in 1968 and quickly guided the 'Cats to a conference title and the NCAA Tournament before embarking on a legendary 21-year NBA coaching career. Jack Hartman became coach in 1970 and guided the Wildcats to a school-record 295 wins, seven NCAA Tournaments and four league titles.

Kansas State's 19 overall conference titles (17 regular season and two conference titles) rank as the third-most among all current Big 12 schools. Only Kansas (53, Big 6/7/8) and Texas (24, SWC/Big 12) own more titles.

Kansas State has seen six players earn distinction as the Conference Player of the Year. Two of those players - Lon Kruger and Mike Evans - won the award twice in their careers. Michael Beasley became the latest to join the club in 2008.

11

Kansas State has produced 11 first team All-Americans in its history, including two consensus selections (Bob Boozer in 1959 and Michael Beasley in 2008). Three players - Bob Boozer, Rolando Blackman and Chuckie Williams - did it twice.

12

Kansas State is one of just 12 schools in the nation to have more than one NBA No. 1 Draft pick since the Draft was instituted in 1948. The other schools include Houston, Indiana, Michigan, North Carolina, Purdue and UCLA.

47

Kansas State became the 47th school in Division I history to tally 1,400 wins in 2007-08. The Wildcats became the fifth Big 12 school to do so, joining Kansas, Texas, Oklahoma and Missouri. The school owns a 1,487-1,058 all-time record.

'Cats at the Big Dance

K-State made its third trip to the NCAA Tournament in four seasons with its appearance in 2011.

Faced with high expectations, including a school-best No. 3 preseason rankings in both The Associated Press and ESPN/USA Today Coaches' polls, Kansas State overcame numerous off-the-court issues to post its unprecedented fifth consecutive trip to the postseason, including its third in the last four seasons in the NCAA Tournament, to cap a 23-win campaign in 2010-11. The Wildcats earned a No. 5 seed to the "Big Dance," just its second single-digit seed since 1989, and was sent to the Southeast Regional at the McKale Center in Tucson, Ariz. Once there, the squad defeated 12-seed and Western Athletic Conference (WAC) champion Utah State, 73-68, in the second round before falling to four-seed Wisconsin, 70-65, in the third round to conclude the season. It marked the fifth consecutive season that the team won at least one postseason contest (NCAA or NIT) after losing eight in a row from 1994 to 2007. The squad finished in the Top 25 of both polls, ranking No. 21 in the AP and No. 24 in the coaches polls, marking the first time in 38 years that the Wildcats have concluded the season ranked in the coaches' poll in back-to-back seasons.

Kansas State advanced to the postseason for the fifth straight season in 2010-11, including its third trip to the "Big Dance" in the last four seasons. It marked the first time in school history that the Wildcats have gone to five consecutive postseasons.

5

K-State earned its third highest seed to the NCAA Tournament in 2011, as the Wildcats were selected as the No. 5 seed in the Southeast Region. The No. 5 seed was just the second single-digit seed since 1989 and one of just seven in school history.

31

K-State made its 31st of 32 all-time postseason appearance when it received its at-large bid to the 2011 NCAA Tournament. It marked the 25th appearance in the "Big Dance" and the third since 2008. The other seven have come in the NIT.

32

Kansas State's win against Utah State in the NCAA Tournament second round marked its 32nd win in the tournament. It was the fifth NCAA Tournament win in the last four years and fifth straight year with at least one win in the postseason.

38

K-State finished in the Top 25 of both major polls, ranking No. 21 in the AP and No. 24 in the coaches' polls in 2011. It marked the first time in 38 years that the squad has concluded the year ranked in the coaches' poll in back-to-back seasons.

Coach Frank Martin

Frank Martin continues to displays why he was the right man at the right time for Kansas State.

An unknown to the casual college basketball fans just four years ago, Frank Martin has become one of the nation's hottest young coaches after guiding the tradition-rich Kansas State back into the forefront of college basketball. Under Martin, the Wildcats have won 95 games (95-43; .688) in the past four seasons, including 16 over teams ranked in the Top 25, and have advanced to the postseason each season, including three trips to the NCAA Tournament (2008, 2010 and 2011). The 95 wins are the most by a head coach in K-State history in his first four years and the most-ever by the school in a four-year span. Martin the first Wildcat head coach to post four consecutive 20-win seasons and joined Lon Kruger as the only coaches to guide the team to the postseason in each of his first four seasons. The three trips to the NCAA Tournament in the last four years are the most since the school went to four consecutive tournaments from 1986-90. In addition, Martin has helped make K-State one of only two Big 12 schools to finish in the top-4 in the league standings and receive a bye at the Phillips 66 Big 12 Championship each of the past four seasons.

Since being hired to staff in 2006, Martin has helped K-State post five consecutive 20-win seasons for the first time in school history, while the 118 wins are the most in a five-year span.

Frank Martin has helped make K-State one of only two Big 12 schools (joining archrival KU) to finish in the top-4 in the league standings and receive a bye at the Phillips 66 Big 12 Championship each of the past four years.

16

K-State has knocked off 16 ranked teams, including nine in Big 12 play, under Frank Martin. Among those wins are two over the No. 1 team, while the Wildcats earned their first road win over a Top 10 team since 1994 at Texas in 2011.

40

Frank Martin's 40 conference wins not only rank third in the Big 12 in the last four seasons behind Kansas (56) and Texas (55), they are the most in a four-year span in school history since Jack Hartman won 43 in Big Eight play from 1973-77.

95

Frank Martin's 95 wins are the most by a head coach in K-State history in his first four seasons and the most-ever by the school in a four-year span. He is the first Wildcat coach to post four 20-win seasons and four consecutive postseason trips.

2015

Ensuring stability in the program for years to come, the university signed Frank Martin to a new 5-year contract just before the 2010 NCAA Tournament that will keep him at the helm of the program through the 2014-15 season.

An Experienced Staff

Led by one of the nation's top young coaches, Kansas State has a talented and experienced staff.

Fourth-year head coach Frank Martin is fortunate to have a talented and experienced coaching staff, as they continued to build Kansas State into one of the top men's basketball programs in the country year-in and year-out. The group is led by three talented assistant coaches - Brad Underwood, Matt Figger and Lamont Evans - who have a combined 44 years of coaching experience at the college, junior college and AAU levels. Associate head coach Brad Underwood (Dodge City [Kan.] and Daytona Beach [Fla.] Community Colleges) won 132 games in two stints as a head coach at the junior college level. The staff has brought in consensus Top 25 recruiting classes two of the past five seasons, including the No. 1 class in 2006. In addition, there are a number of key support personnel, including director of operations Andy Assaley, strength and conditioning coach Scott Greenawalt, director of student-athlete development Doug Edwards, video coordinator Dylan Lockwood and athletic trainer Brandon Yoder.

Kansas State had changes to its coaching staff for the first time in five years, as Brad Underwood was promoted to associate head coach, Matt Figger to recruiting coordinator and Lamont Evans to assistant coach after a two-year stint as graduate manager.

18

Kansas State assistant coach and recruiting coordinator Matt Figger has 18 years of coaching experience, including 10 years as an assistant at the junior college level and another nine years as an assistant at South Alabama and K-State.

95

The Kansas State coaching staff has helped the Wildcats post a school-record 95 wins the past four seasons, including 40 in Big 12 play, and have helped the team advance to the postseason four seasons in a row, including three NCAA Tournaments.

132

Kansas State assistant coach Brad Underwood has 132 career victories as a head coach at the junior college level. He posted a 62-60 mark at Dodge City (Kan.) Community College and a 70-24 mark at Daytona Beach (Fla.) Community College.

Home of the Wildcats

Kansas State fans are known to be some of the most passionate in all of college sports.

Wildcat fans have helped make Bramlage Coliseum one of the most intimidating environments in all of college basketball. K-State has won nearly 73 percent of its home contests in its history, including nearly 75 percent since moving to Bramlage Coliseum in 1988-89. The school has ranked among the top 30 nationally in attendance in four of the past five seasons, including finishing 26th in 2010-11 and third in the Big 12 with an average of 12,652 fans. The team posted sellouts in 15 of 17 games at Bramlage Coliseum a season ago, including all eight Big 12 contests. The 15 sellouts ranked second in the Big 12. The 12,652 average ranks second in school history behind the 12,978 averaged in 1988-89, while three of the school's top 5 attendance averages have come in the last five years. Overall, K-State drew a total of 227,738 fans to its 18 home games in 2010-11, which marked the fourth time in the last five seasons that the school has drawn 200,000 or more fans. The figure included the Dec. 21 game against UNLV at the Sprint Center in Kansas City, which drew 18,422 fans. The Wildcats will play a regular season "home" game at the arena for the fifth year in a row in 2011.

15

Kansas State posted a school-record 15 sellouts in 2010-11, including eight in Big 12 play. The Wildcats totaled 209,316 for 17 games in Bramlage Coliseum for average of 12,313 fans, which represented over 97% of the capacity of the building.

21

Kansas State has posted 21 wins over ranked opponents in the 23-year history of Bramlage Coliseum. In 2010-11, the Wildcats knocked off the No. 1 team in the country (Kansas) for the second consecutive season and third time overall at home.

74

Kansas State tied the Bramlage Coliseum record for wins (16) for the second time in three seasons, while the .941 winning percentage (16-1) was the best all-time. The Wildcats have posted a 74-12 (.860) mark at home over the past five years.

65

Kansas State has enjoyed 65 straight years with a winning record on its home courts. The streak has spanned four arenas and 10 head coaches. Since the streak began in 1946 at Nichols Gym, the program has a 689-183 (.790) mark at home.

274

Kansas State has posted a 274-92 (.749) overall mark at Bramlage Coliseum since it opened in 1988-89. The team has won 10 or more home games 18 times in 23 seasons, including at least 11 each of the past 10 seasons.

Success in the classroom is just as important as the success on the court at K-State.

Kansas State, which has led the Big 12 in graduation rate in each of the past four years, scored record-high marks across the board and for the first time since the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate (APR) guidelines were established seven years ago, all teams bettered the standard. The school posted the league's top graduation rate in five sports -- baseball (83%), football (71%), men's golf (100%), women's golf (100%) and men's track and field (83%) in the latest report. The Academic Progress Rate measures the eligibility, retention and graduation of student-athletes competing on every Division I sports team and also serves as a predictor of graduation success. The Division I Board of Directors set cut scores of 925 (multi-year) and 900 (out of 1,000) as a threshold for teams to meet or face possible immediate and historical sanctions. The men's basketball team scored a 937 to soar past the 925 mark after raising its multi-year score by a total of 57 points over the last four seasons under head coach Frank Martin. Martin has seen 11 of 12 student-athletes earn their degrees from K-State, including Jacob Pullen and Curtis Kelly this past Spring.

Improvements Made Under Greenawalt

Jordan Henriquez

Henriquez has made significant strides in the weight room since coming to K-State in 2009. He has added more than 35 pounds to his frame, while decreasing his body fat by 5 percent. He also has increased his bench press by 80 pounds and his squat by 160 pounds.

Rodney McGruder

McGruder has also improved his game with his work in the weight room since 2009. He has increased his bench press by 75 pounds, while adding 85 pounds to his squat. He has also increased the number of chins-up to 15. His body weight has improved to 205 pounds.

Jamar Samuels

Samuels has made some of the biggest improvement since training began. Since January 2008, Samuels has added 32 pounds to his frame and increased his bench more than 120 pounds and his squat by more than 180 pounds. He has improved his chin-ups to 17.

Will Spradling

One of the biggest areas for Spradling's development has been his improvement in the weight room. Not only has he increased his weight by more than 16 pounds since coming to K-State, he has added more than 65 pounds to his bench press and more than 120 to his squat.

A Big Time Conference

Kansas State is apart of the nation's best athletic conference - the Big 12 Conference

The Big 12 Conference has established a consistent level of national success on the field and in the classroom as it enters its 16th season in 2011-12. Since it began play in 1996-97, the Conference can boast 42 team crowns and nearly 500 individual NCAA Championships. The success continued during the 2010-11 season, as Oklahoma State won the NCAA men's cross country title and Texas A&M won its first women's basketball title, while the Aggies maintained their place as the nation's top outdoor track and field program, securing the NCAA crowns for both the men and women for an unprecedented double three-peat. Big 12 teams are highly-regarded on a national level. All but one sport the Big 12 sponsored last year had at least one team ranked in the Top 5 of the national polls with eight sports boasting the No. 1 team.

Over the past seven seasons, a total of 21 NCAA trophies have been hoisted by Big 12 institutions, with at least one national crown won in all but one year for the Conference, including each of the past 14 seasons. In basketball, nine men's and seven women's teams have advanced to their respective Final Fours in the past nine years as the Big 12 continues its place among elite conferences. For the second straight year, a eight men's teams advanced to the postseason, including five to the NCAA Tournament.

The Big 12 captured its first NCAA Championship in men's basketball in 2007-08, as Kansas defeated Memphis in overtime at the Alamodome in San Antonio, Texas. It marked the 31st team championship in all sports in the league's history.

The Big 12 has sent six different teams to the Elite Eight the past three seasons, the most of any conference. Since the field expanded to 64 teams in 1985, the Big 12 is the only league to accomplish this (six different teams in a 3-year span).

18

The Big 12 will be the only one of the six major conferences where every school plays everyone home and away. The conference will employ an 18-game schedule in 2011-12, with every team playing every other squad twice.

222

The Big 12 was 222-6 (.974) at home in non-conference play over the last two years. League squads have won 177 of their last 182 home non-conference matchups since 2009-10. The Big 12 led in the nation non-conference winning percentage.

285

All-time, the 10 members of the new Big 12 have accounted for 285 of the 294 NCAA wins (96.9 percent) the league teams boasted after this past season. The Big 12 has 24 NCAA bids in the past four years and 42 since 2004 - all by current members.

Frank Martin

Head Coach [95-43, .688 winning percentage]

Fifth Year | Florida International '93

An unknown to the casual college basketball fan just four years ago when he was elevated from assistant to head coach, Frank Martin has become one of the nation's hottest young coaches in guiding the tradition-rich Kansas State program back into the forefront of college basketball.

Under Martin, the Wildcats have won 95 games (95-43; .688) in the past four seasons, including 16 over teams ranked in the Top 25, and have advanced to the postseason each season, including three trips to the NCAA Tournament (2008, 2010 and 2011). The 95 wins are the most by a head coach in K-State history in his first four years and the most-ever by the school in a four-year span. Martin is the first Wildcat head coach to post four consecutive 20-win seasons and joined Lon Kruger as the only coaches to guide the team to the postseason in each of his first four seasons. The three NCAA Tournament appearances in a four-year span are the most since the squad went to four consecutive tournaments from 1986-90.

K-State has finished among the nation's Top 25 in back-to-back seasons for the first time in nearly 40 years. A season after finishing seventh in both major polls – its highest final rankings since the 1961-62 season – the Wildcats finished 21st in The Associated Press and 24th in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches' polls in 2010-11. It marked the first time that the program has capped the year ranked in the Coaches' polls in consecutive seasons since the 1971-72 and 1972-73 seasons.

He has not only guided K-State to the NCAA Tournament, he has also found success there, advancing to the round of 32 in each trip, including the first Elite Eight in 22 seasons in 2009-10. His five NCAA Tournament wins rank third in school history to Jack Hartman (11, 1970-86) and 2010-11 Naismith and Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame inductee, Tex Winter (seven, 1954-68). Counting the trip to the NIT in 2008-09, Martin has won at least one postseason contest in each of his four seasons at the helm and has a 6-4 record in postseason play, including a 5-3 mark in the NCAA Tournament.

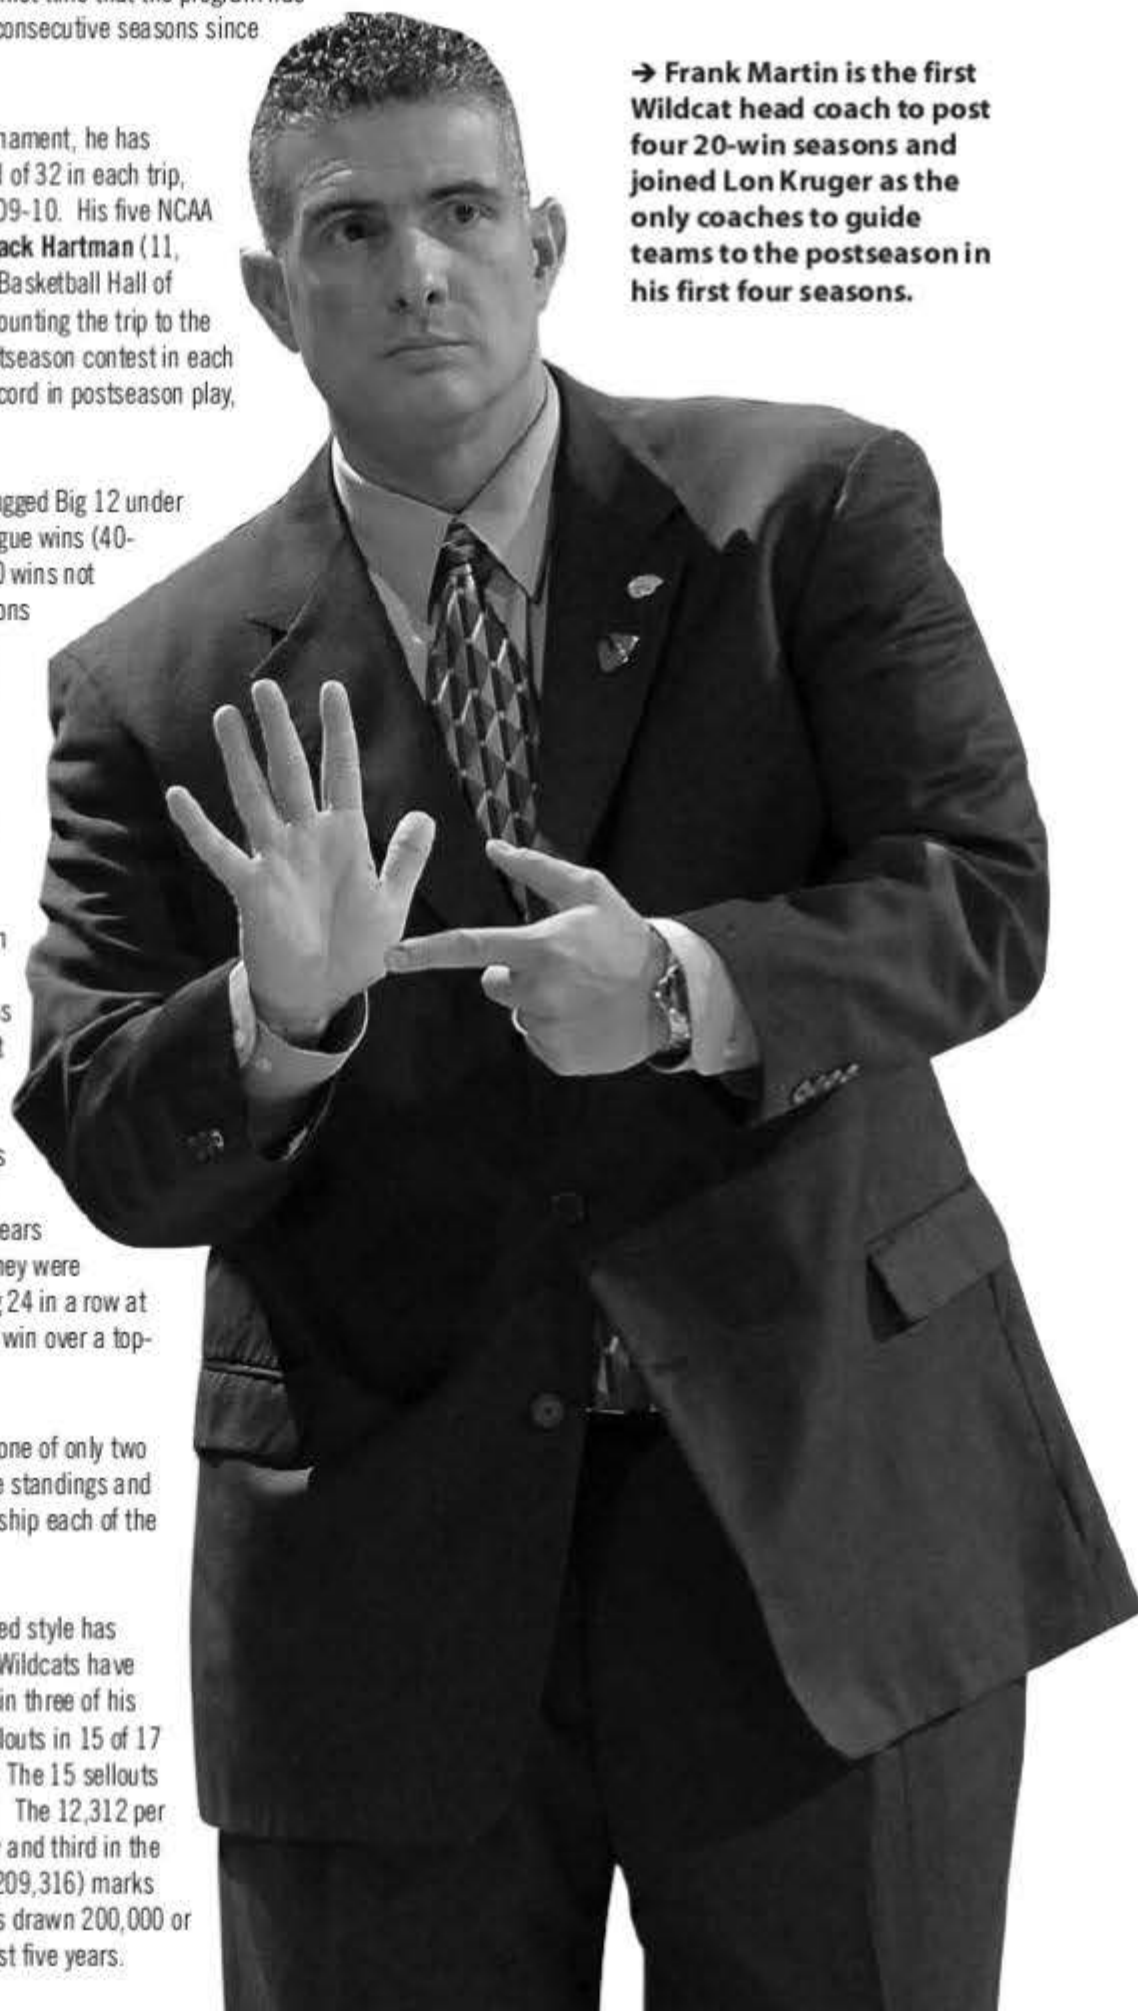

K-State has more than proved its medal in the rugged Big 12 under Martin, where he has guided the squad to 40 league wins (40-24) on a stellar .625 winning percentage. The 40 wins not only rank third in the Big 12 in the last four seasons behind Kansas (56) and Texas (44), they are the most in a four-year span since Hartman won 43 Big Eight contests from 1973-77. In particular, among those wins are 16 on the road in Big 12 play, which is nearly double what the program produced in the first 10 league seasons (10-70; 1996-2006).

Martin has knocked off nine ranked Big 12 foes in his tenure, including the nation's No. 1 team in back-to-back seasons (Texas in 2010 and Kansas in 2011). In 2011, the Wildcats earned their first road win over a Top 10 squad since 1994 with a 75-70 victory over No. 7/8 Texas at the Erwin Center on Feb. 28, the Longhorns' lone home loss in Big 12 play in 2010-11. The win over the Jayhawks in 2011 was the second in the past four years at Bramlage Coliseum (with both coming when they were ranked No. 1 and No. 2, respectively) after losing 24 in a row at home to their archrivals. It also marked the first win over a top-ranked Kansas squad since 1994.

In the process, Martin has helped make K-State one of only two Big 12 schools to finish in the top-4 in the league standings and receive a bye at the Phillips 66 Big 12 Championship each of the past four years.

The team's success as well as Martin's fast-paced style has drawn big crowds to Bramlage Coliseum, as the Wildcats have ranked among the nation's Top 35 in attendance in three of his four seasons. Last season, K-State recorded sellouts in 15 of 17 home contests, including all eight in Big 12 play. The 15 sellouts ranked second in the league behind Kansas (18). The 12,312 per game average in 2010-11 ranked 26th nationally and third in the Big 12, while the average and total attendance (209,316) marks both ranked third in school history. The team has drawn 200,000 or more fans to Bramlage Coliseum in four of the last five years.

→ Frank Martin is the first Wildcat head coach to post four 20-win seasons and joined Lon Kruger as the only coaches to guide teams to the postseason in his first four seasons.

Aside from all the on-court success, Martin has also been the architect of K-State's resurgence in the classroom. With his focus on player accountability and responsibility, he has helped improve the men's basketball team's multi-year rate in the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate (APR) by 57 points since becoming head coach. The squad scored a 937 in the most recent APR release in 2011 to soar past the NCAA-mandated standard mark of 925. Also, the team posted the Big 12's best graduation rate (75%) in numbers released in 2010.

The program's recent success has been the culmination of a plan set in motion five years ago by then head coach Bob Huggins and continued by Martin, his top lieutenant, to return K-State back to the forefront of college basketball. A school that had gone seven years without a 20-win season and a trip to the postseason when the staff arrived in 2006 has since reached unprecedented new levels. Since the start of 2006-07, the Wildcats have posted a school-record 118 wins, including 50 in Big 12 play, and have tallied five straight 20-win seasons for the first time in school history. The team has reached the postseason each of the past five seasons for the first time in history.

■ Contract Extension

Following the record-breaking 2009-10 campaign, Martin was rewarded for his accomplishments with a new multi-year contract, securing his services as head coach through the 2014-15 season.

"As I watched and evaluated our basketball team and staff since my arrival, it became evident that Coach Martin has transformed our program in many ways," said athletics director John Currie. "Not only has he put a championship-level product on the court, but he has put a strong emphasis on the improvement of the team's APR and sustainment of a high graduation rate of our student-athletes. He and (wife) Anya have created a family atmosphere for the program and have been terrific in promoting the overall goals of the department and university."

■ Another Successful Season Despite Bumpy Ride

Faced with expectations at an all-time high at K-State that included multiple preseason Top 10 rankings and a preseason All-American in Jacob Pullen, Martin guided the school to a fourth consecutive 20-win season in 2010-11, including a tie for third place in the always-difficult Big 12, and its third trip to the NCAA Tournament in four seasons. Although the Wildcats did not meet the critics' lofty preseason predictions, the squad's 23-11 overall record, including 10-6 mark in league play, was all the more impressive due to the multiple off-the-court distractions they faced, including the NCAA-mandated, multiple-game suspensions of his lone two seniors at mid-season and the defections of two other players.

The 2010-11 season began with high hopes, as Kansas State earned its highest-ever preseason rankings in both polls, placing No. 3 in both The Associated Press and ESPN/USA Today Coaches' polls. The Wildcats were picked to win the Big 12 by several outlets, including the league's coaches, and Pullen was named the league's preseason Player of the Year. The return of a nucleus of talent from a team that was within a few minutes of the Final Four gave Wildcat fans everywhere the confidence that big things were ahead.

K-State won its first four games of the season, including Top 25 victories over No. 22/24 Virginia Tech and No. 18/22 Gonzaga, before suffering its first loss to defending NCAA champion and No. 1 Duke in the O'Reilly Auto Parts CBE Classic Championship game at the Sprint Center in Kansas City, Mo. The Wildcats rebounded to win their next five games before having one of their worst offensive performances under Martin in a loss to Florida at the Metro PCS Orange Bowl Classic in Sunrise, Fla.

Following the defeat, adversity struck the team, as it was discovered that Pullen and fellow senior Curtis Kelly received extra benefits and were suspended for three and six games, respectively, by the NCAA. The short-handed Wildcats lost their next game, a hard-fought 63-59 setback to UNLV at the Sprint Center, before concluding non-conference play with three straight wins. Pullen was able to return for the final non-conference contest against Savannah State on Jan. 3, while Kelly was reinstated for the Texas Tech game on Jan. 15. However, the team suffered more misfortune, two players left the team during the early portion of Big 12 play.

With a roster influx, the Big 12 provided a new challenge to Martin and his coaching staff, as the Wildcats dropped five of their first seven league games, including four of their first five. With such a promising season seemingly unraveling, Martin, at the suggestion of assistant coach Brad Underwood, took the bold step of adjusting the offensive scheme to the "pinch-post" in early January. The offense, once made famous by legendary K-State head coach Tex Winter, proved a perfect match for the K-State personnel, helping the squad rattle off nine wins in their last 11 regular-season games to earn their fifth consecutive 20-win season (and fourth under Martin) and their third trip to the NCAA Tournament in four seasons.

Among those nine wins were its second straight over the nation's top-ranked team (No. 1 Kansas) and its first over a Top 10 squad (No. 7 Texas) on the road since 1994. At one point during this crucial stretch, the Wildcats posted three wins over Top 25 teams (No. 20 Missouri to go with Kansas and Texas) in a five-game period for the first time in school history. In all, the squad earned six wins over ranked teams, falling just one short of the school record set in 2009-10.

A late season surge coupled with an already strong non-conference schedule enabled K-State to earn its third-highest seed — a No. 5 seed — to the NCAA Tournament in school history. The team was sent to the NCAA Southeast Regional in Tucson, Ariz., to meet Western Athletic Conference (WAC) regular-season and tournament champion Utah State in the second round. The Wildcats were able to hold off a late rally from the Aggies in the second half to post a 73-68 victory, which marked the fifth consecutive season that the squad posted at least one postseason win.

For the second time in four seasons, K-State met a nationally-ranked Wisconsin team in the NCAA Tournament, and despite a Big 12 and school-record 38-point effort from Pullen, the Wildcats saw their season end in a narrow 70-65 defeat. Pullen, who became the first recruit to re-commit after Martin was elevated to head coach in 2007, rebounded from his early season issues to cement his name into K-State lore by eclipsing Mike Evans (1974-78) to become the school's all-time leading scorer with 2,132 points. A two-time All-American, Pullen left the school as one of its greatest players, tying or owning seven career records, including wins (95), games played (135), double-digit scoring games (105), 3-point field goals (299) and steals (210), and ranking in the Top 5 in 17 career categories.

The first player in school history to twice earn First Team All-Big 12 honors, Pullen gave Martin an All-American for the third time in four years, as he was selected to the prestigious 10-man John R. Wooden Award squad. He was also a third team selection by The Associated Press, State Farm/NABC, The Sporting News and Yahoo! Sports and a fourth team pick by FOXSports.com. In addition, he was awarded the Frances Pomeroy Naismith Trophy, which is given annually to the nation's best player 6-foot or under by the Naismith Basketball of Fame.

In all, Martin has helped coach four All-Americans since he became coach in 2007, including just the school's second consensus first team selection (Michael Beasley in 2008). Pullen became the first Wildcat to earn All-American honors twice in a career since Rolando Blackman in 1980 and 1981.

In addition to Pullen, who was one of just two players to earn unanimous First Team All-Big 12 honors in 2010-11 from the league coaches, Martin also saw Rodney McGruder collect Third Team All-Big 12 honors from several media outlets, including the league coaches, in 2010-11. Martin has coached a Big 12 Player, Newcomer and Freshman of the Year in his tenure, while a total of eight players have earned recognition to the first, second or third all-conference squad.

■ A Historic Season

Expectations were high prior to the 2009-10 season, but even those close to the team didn't know how great this collection of players would become. Armed with arguably the nation's top backcourt of All-Americans Denis Clemente and Jacob Pullen, Martin helped K-State shatter even those lofty expectations en route to the school's first Elite Eight appearance in 22 seasons.

Along the way, the team posted a school-record 29-8 overall record and a tie for second place in the Big 12, the nation's top RPI conference, with an 11-5 mark. The squad advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the second time in three years, where they earned their highest-ever (No. 2) seed in the "Big Dance." Once there, the Wildcats recorded three wins (North Texas, BYU and Xavier) at the tournament for just the fourth time in school history before a hard-fought 63-56 loss to eventual national runner-up Butler in the West Regional Final ended their remarkable season.

For its accomplishments, K-State finished in the Top 10 of both major polls, including seventh in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Top 25 poll, for the first time since ranking ninth in 1973. It was the highest final ranking for the Wildcats since concluding the 1961-62 season at No. 6 in The Associated Press poll. The team was ranked in the Top 10 for the last seven weeks of the season, including as high as No. 5 in both polls on March 1. The No. 5 ranking was the school's highest since being No. 3 in 1962.

The 29 wins shattered the previous school-record of 25 set by the 1950-51 national runner-up team and the 1987-88 Elite Eight squad, while the 11 conference victories and second-place finish were the highest of the Big 12 era and the highest since the 1987-88 season. In the process, the team recorded a school-record seven wins over nationally-ranked teams, including a 71-62 victory over No. 1 Texas before an ESPN "Big Monday" crowd on Jan. 18 — the school's first over a top-ranked team since 1994.

In all, K-State set 23 team and individual records in 2009-10, including shattering the marks for scoring (2,949), field goals made (981), field goals attempted (2,182), 3-point field goals (253), free throws made (734), free throws attempted (1,098) and blocked shots (187). Pullen set single-season records for games played (37) and started (37), double-digit scoring games (37), 3-point field goals (110) and steals (67), while Clemente and Curtis Kelly joined Pullen in breaking marks for games played and started to go with marks for blocked shots (74), respectively.

For his efforts, Martin was the runner-up to Syracuse's Jim Boeheim for The Associated Press' National Coach of the Year in 2010, while he was a finalist for the Naismith Men's College Basketball Coach of the Year and CollegeInsider.com's Jim Phelan National Coach of the Year awards. In addition, he was a near unanimous choice for a number of Big 12 Coach of the Year awards, collecting them from the league coaches, AP, The Sporting News and Kansas City Star, while also earning District Coach of the Year accolades from the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) and the U.S. Basketball Writers Association (USBWA).

Already credited with coaching two NBA Draft picks, including 2009 NBA All-Rookie First Team selection Michael Beasley, Martin again tutored a pair of All-Big 12 performers in 2009-10, including first team selection Jacob Pullen. Pullen joined Beasley as the only Wildcats to earn recognition to the Big 12's first team since 1997. Denis Clemente repeated his selection to the league's second team, while sophomore Jamar Samuels became the second Wildcat in the past four seasons to earn the Big 12 Sixth Man Award. In addition to his second team all-conference award in 2008-09, Clemente became the first Wildcat to earn Phillips 66 Big 12 Newcomer of the Year honors. He was ESPN.com's National Player of the Week on Feb. 2 after tying Beasley's Big 12 single-game scoring mark with 44 points in an overtime victory over No. 12 Texas on Jan. 31, 2009.

Pullen and Clemente also earned All-America distinction in 2009-10 with Pullen being named to the third team by The Sporting News and honorable mention by The Associated Press, while Clemente was selected to the fourth team by FOXSports.com. The duo became the second set of 'Cats to earn All-America honors in the same season under Martin following Beasley and Bill Walker in 2007-08. Beasley became just the second player in school history to earn consensus first team All-America honors as a true freshman, while Walker was named to several freshman All-America squads.

■ A Rough Start Ends Well

In 2008-09, Martin illustrated why K-State administrators were convinced he was the perfect fit to follow Huggins two years earlier. Despite losing four starters, including two underclassmen to the NBA Draft, he guided K-State to a 22-12 overall record, including a tie for fourth place in the Big 12 standings with a 9-7 mark, and an at-large spot in the National Invitational Tournament. It marked the program's third consecutive 20-win season — a feat not done in over 25 years — as well as its third postseason bid in a row. Once there, the Wildcats won a postseason game for the third year in a row — an 83-79 overtime thriller over Illinois State at home — before bowing out to top-seeded San Diego State in the second round.

Kansas State's trip to the postseason seemed improbable after the squad started Big 12 play with four consecutive losses. However, Martin helped right the Wildcats' ship with wins in eight of the next nine games, including six in a row from Jan. 24 to Feb. 11, as the squad became just the second in Big 12 history to rally from an 0-4 start and return to at least .500 in league play.

Along the way, K-State knocked off four teams that advanced to the postseason and recorded four consecutive road wins in league play for the first time since the 1979-80 season. The squad also swept NCAA Tournament teams Texas and Texas A&M on the road for the first time in the Big 12 era. In total, the Wildcats became just the fourth team since the start of the Big 12 (Iowa State in 2002-03 and 2004-05 and Nebraska in 2007-08) to start winless (0-4 or worse) in league play and advance to the postseason.

Junior Denis Clemente became the 12th player since 1970 to earn the conference's Newcomer of the Year trophy and the first to garner the Phillips 66 Newcomer of the Year award. He was one of two players listed on the all-conference team, joining honorable mention selection Jacob Pullen.

■ A Remarkable First Season

Martin's year two success came on the heels of one of the most successful inaugural campaigns in K-State history in 2007-08. In his first season as a college head coach, he guided the Wildcats to a 21-12 record, including a third-place finish in the Big 12 with a 10-6 mark. The third-place finish was the best since the inception of the league and the highest since the 1988-89 team also finished third in the Big Eight, while the 10 conference wins tied the 2006-07 squad for the most in the Big 12 era. For his efforts, he was named CollegeInsider.com Big 12 Coach of the Year.

Martin became just the second rookie head coach in school history to lead his team to the NCAA Tournament and the first since Lon Kruger did it in 1986-87, as the squad advanced to the Big Dance for the first time since the 1995-96 season. Once there, Martin helped the program capture its first NCAA Tournament win since 1988 with a thrilling 80-67 win over USC in the first round of the Midwest Regional in Omaha, Neb., on March 20.

Martin became just the third coach in school history to post 20 wins in his first season, joining Kruger (20; 1986-87) and his mentor, Bob Huggins, (23; 2006-07), while he joined Huggins as the only rookie coaches to achieve 10 conference wins. In addition, Martin was one of only eight first-year coaches nationally to take his team to the NCAA Tournament in 2007-08 and joined Butler's Brad Stevens and former Drake coach Keno Davis as the only ones to accomplish the feat in their first year as a college head coach in that season.

Under Martin's tutelage, Michael Beasley posted one of the greatest seasons ever by a college freshman in NCAA history in 2007-08, as he averaged 26.2 points and 12.4 rebounds per game in earning National Player of the Year honors from both CBS Sports.com and Rivals.com and National Freshman of the Year honors from CBS Sports.com, Rivals.com, CollegeHoops.net, The Sporting News and U.S. Basketball Writers Association (USBWA). Beasley became just the second player in school history to earn consensus first team All-America honors and the first since Bob Boozer in 1959. In addition, he was named both the Big 12 Player and Freshman of the Year by the league coaches and AP as well as a unanimous all-conference first team selection.

In addition, Martin helped mentor freshman Bill Walker, who was named a third team freshman All-American by both CBS Sports.com and CollegeHoops.net and freshman All-American by CollegeInsider.com in 2007-08. He was named to the All-Big 12 second team by the Kansas City Star and third team selection by both the league coaches and The Associated Press.

Beasley and Walker were selected in the 2008 NBA Draft with Beasley going to the Miami Heat with the No. 2 pick and Walker going to the Washington Wizards with the No. 47 pick in the second round. They became the first Wildcat teammates to be chosen in the same NBA Draft since 1982, while Beasley is the third highest draft pick in school history following Howard Shannon (1949) and Bob Boozer (1959), who both were selected with the No. 1 pick in the draft.

■ A New Beginning

Martin was hired as the 23rd men's basketball coach in school history on April 9, 2007 after spending one season as the top assistant to Bob Huggins.

As Huggins' lead assistant, he helped the Wildcats to a 23-12 record in 2006-07, including a fourth-place finish in the Big 12 with a 10-6 mark. The 23 wins were its most wins since tallying 25 during the 1987-88 season, while the program posted 10 league wins for the first time in the Big 12 era and for the first time since 1987-88. The squad also broke an eight-year postseason drought with its invitation to the NIT, as the Wildcats earned their first postseason win in nearly 13 years with a 59-57 first-round victory over Vermont.

Martin also helped coach two all-conference players in 2006-07, as senior forward Cartier Martin was named the league's inaugural winner of the Sixth Man Award, while Martin was joined on the All-Big 12 second team by teammate David Hoskins. It marked the first time in the Big 12 era that the school had two players on the first, second or third all-conference team and the first time since Mike Evans and Curtis Redding were named first team All-Big Eight in 1977.

As recruiting coordinator, Martin helped K-State attract the nation's best recruiting class in 2006 [No. 1 by Scout.com and Rivals.com], which included No. 1 recruit Michael Beasley and No. 6 Bill Walker. In 2008, he headed a staff that pulled down the school's second top-20 class, as the four-man class was rated 17th by Scout/ESPN.com and 18th by Rivals.com.

■ Martin Joins the College Ranks

Martin initially joined the staff on April 5, 2006, after spending two seasons as an assistant coach at Cincinnati, first for Bob Huggins in 2004-05 and then for Andy Kennedy in 2005-06. He helped guide the Bearcats to a 46-21 (.686) record and back-to-back postseason appearances from 2004-06, including a trip to the NCAA Tournament in 2005.

Before joining Huggins' staff at Cincinnati in 2004, Martin spent four seasons as an assistant coach at Northeastern (2000-04), first for Rudy Keeling and then for (current Duquesne head coach) Ron Everhart, where he earned much acclaim for his abilities as a recruiter. Martin helped the Huskies post their first winning season in eight years in 2002-03, while the following season, the team collected the school's best mark in 11 years with 19 wins and a third-place finish in the America East Conference.

Martin helped coach eight all-conference players at Northeastern, including first team All-America East Conference selection and NBA World Champion Dallas Maverick J.J. Barea in 2004. Barea became the first Husky player since 1989-90 to earn first team all-league honors, while, in 2005, he was named an AP honorable mention All-American, the Mid-Major Player of the Year by CollegeInsider.com and the Colonial Athletic Association Player of the Year.

■ A Successful High School Career

Prior to entering the college ranks in 2000, Martin spent 15 years in the high school coaching ranks in his native Miami, Fla., including the last seven as a head coach. He was a part of five state championships as an assistant at powerhouse Miami Senior High School from 1985-93 before collecting two titles as the Stingarees' head coach from 1995-99. In addition, he served two seasons as the head coach at North Miami Senior High School (1993-95) and one season at Booker T. Washington High School (1999-2000).

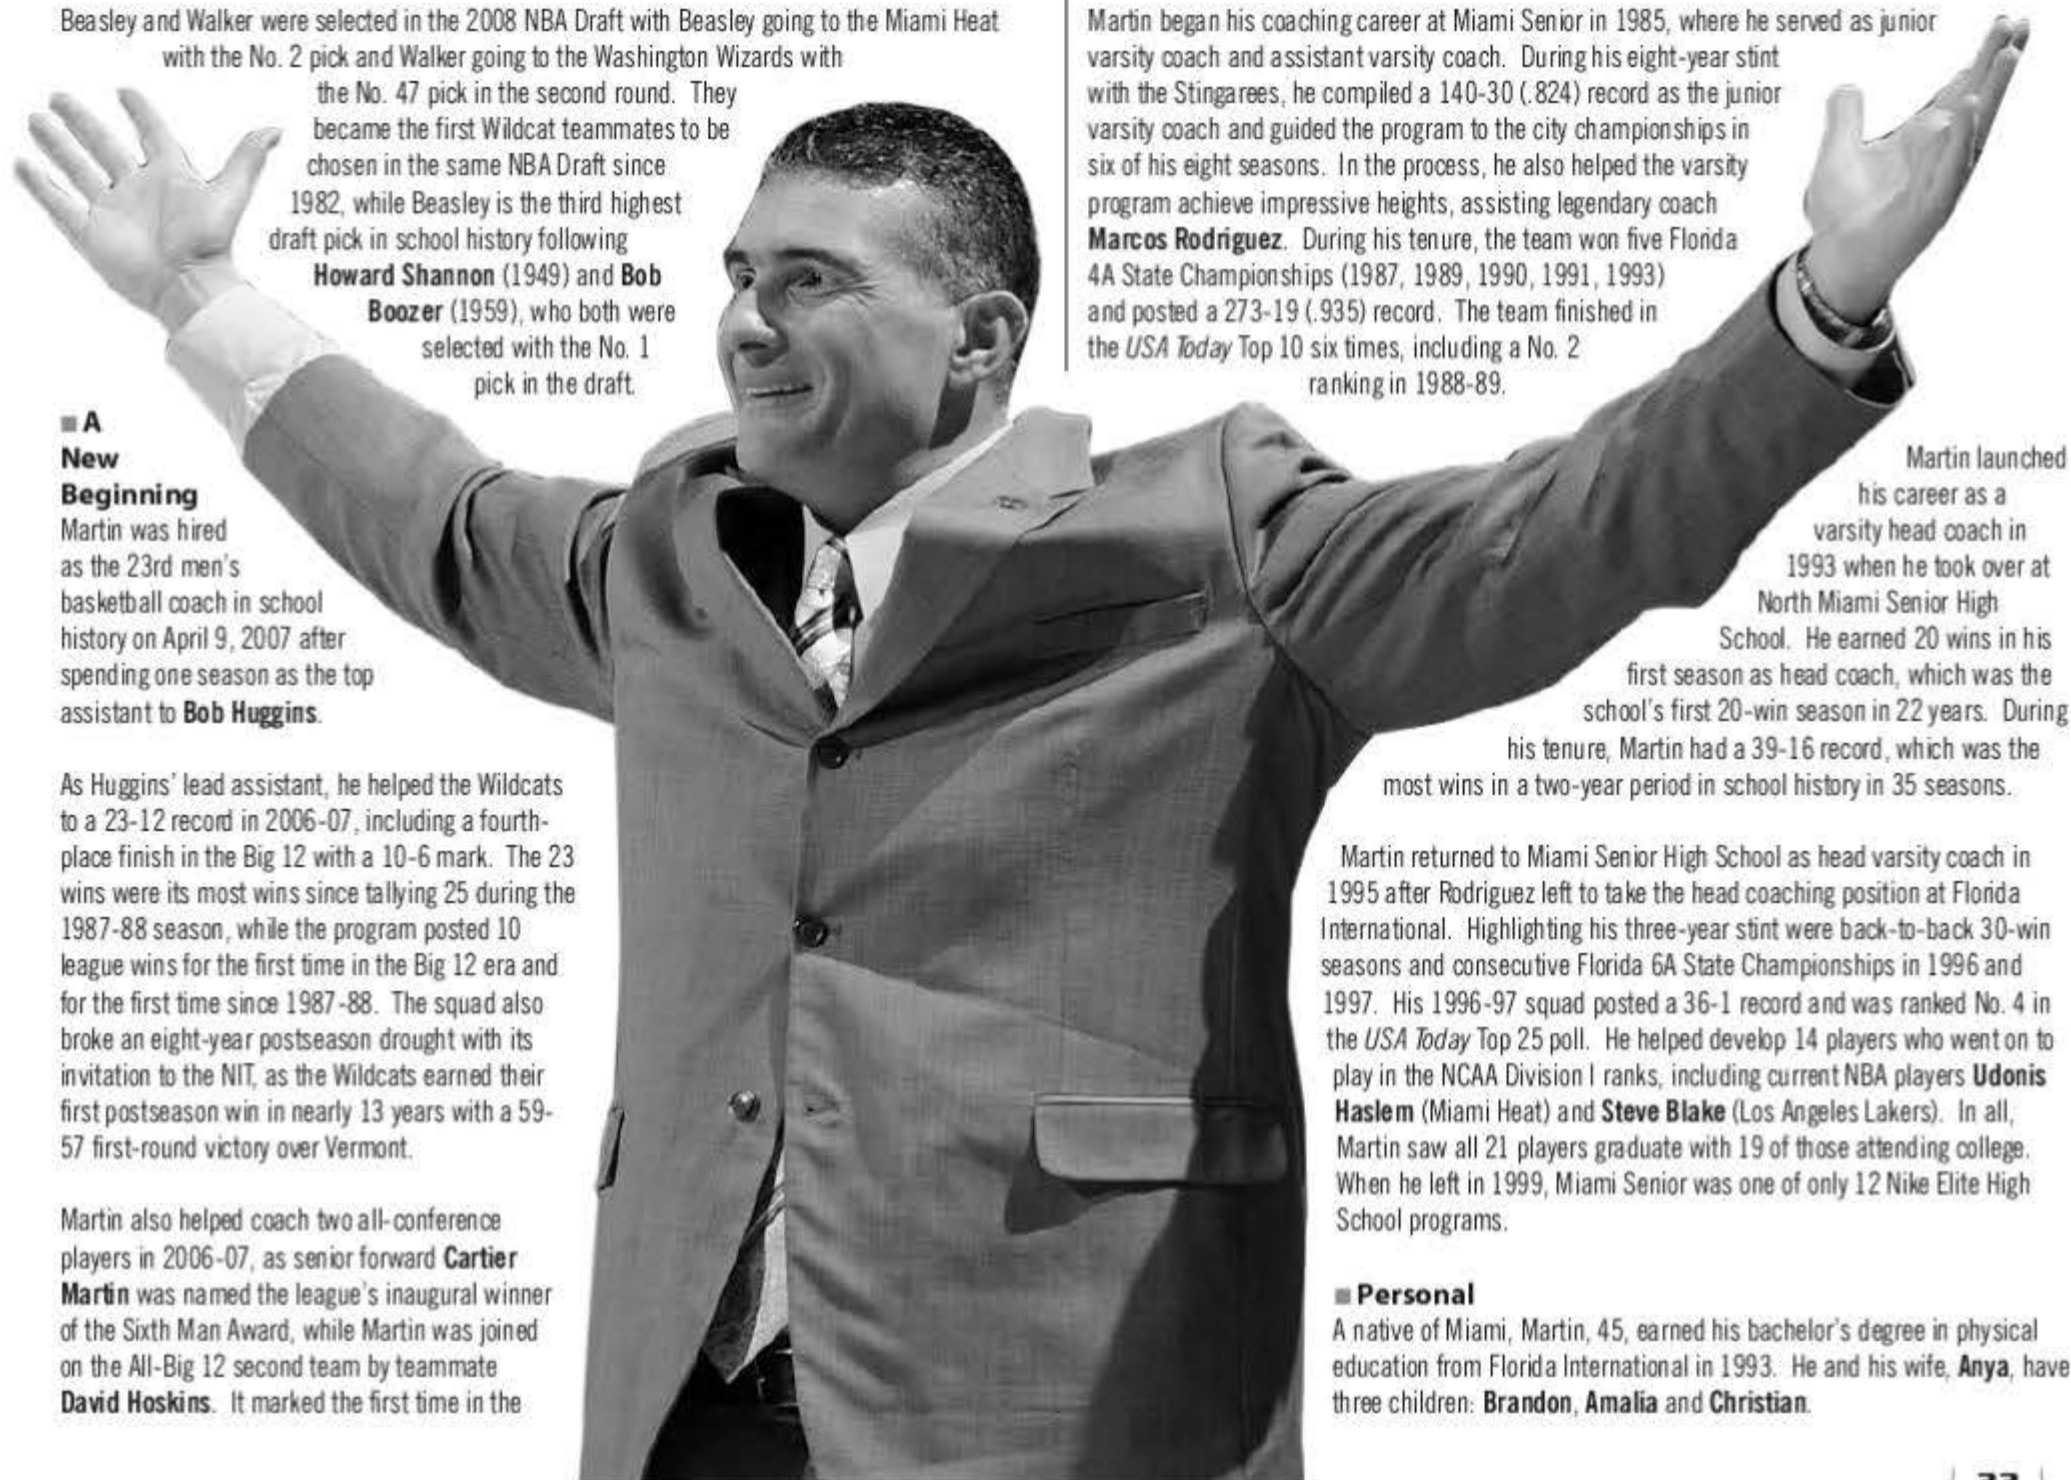

Martin began his coaching career at Miami Senior in 1985, where he served as junior varsity coach and assistant varsity coach. During his eight-year stint with the Stingarees, he compiled a 140-30 (.824) record as the junior varsity coach and guided the program to the city championships in six of his eight seasons. In the process, he also helped the varsity program achieve impressive heights, assisting legendary coach Marcos Rodriguez. During his tenure, the team won five Florida 4A State Championships (1987, 1989, 1990, 1991, 1993) and posted a 273-19 (.935) record. The team finished in the USA Today Top 10 six times, including a No. 2 ranking in 1988-89.

Martin launched his career as a varsity head coach in 1993 when he took over at North Miami Senior High School. He earned 20 wins in his first season as head coach, which was the school's first 20-win season in 22 years. During his tenure, Martin had a 39-16 record, which was the most wins in a two-year period in school history in 35 seasons.

Martin returned to Miami Senior High School as head varsity coach in 1995 after Rodriguez left to take the head coaching position at Florida International. Highlighting his three-year stint were back-to-back 30-win seasons and consecutive Florida 6A State Championships in 1996 and 1997. His 1996-97 squad posted a 36-1 record and was ranked No. 4 in the USA Today Top 25 poll. He helped develop 14 players who went on to play in the NCAA Division I ranks, including current NBA players Udonis Haslem (Miami Heat) and Steve Blake (Los Angeles Lakers). In all, Martin saw all 21 players graduate with 19 of those attending college. When he left in 1999, Miami Senior was one of only 12 Nike Elite High School programs.

■ Personal

A native of Miami, Martin, 45, earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Florida International in 1993. He and his wife, Anyia, have three children: Brandon, Amalia and Christian.

Q&amp;A With Head Coach Frank Martin

■ What is your coaching philosophy?

"Pressure. I think to pressure our opponents for 40 consecutive minutes, offensively and defensively. Pressure makes people break. The more pressure you apply on people every opportunity you get, the more difficult you make it for your opponent. Pressure is definitely one and then intensity. You have to be intense about what you're doing. In order to have intensity about what you're doing you have to have tremendous passion. Those three things are the things that I'm all about. I'm about pressuring people. I'm about intensity, and I'm about passion."

■ What kind of style does your team employ?

"Offensively, I like to play a little bit more like the North Carolina teams under Dean Smith. I've studied them extensively during my career. We will also blend that style with UConn's Jim Calhoun offensive approach, which is basically a pressure defense. We want to get out and run and really pressure people with our offense by running at all opportunities after made and missed baskets, turnovers, whatever the situation may be just always running."

■ Who are your coaching influences?

"My high school coach, Marcos Rodriguez, who's back coaching high school basketball in Miami. He was a father figure to me when I was a young kid. He's a guy that taught me how to get out of bed and approach coaching everyday. Then there's (current Commissioner of the Eastern College Athletic Conference) Rudy Keeling. He's the man who gave me my first break in college. He forced me to learn how to be patient."

Then there's the last three guys I've coached with, starting with (current Duquesne coach) Ron Everhart, who's a dear friend. He and I formed a brotherhood."

He's been a huge part of my success in my career. He was similar to the way I am on the basketball court because of his passion and his intensity. He's also somebody that really taught me how to work within the confines of a college campus. He's unbelievable in building relationships with people. That was a great time for me. Taking a [Boston University] program that had been a perennial loser and going from seven wins to 19 wins and defeating West Virginia and Boston College. Just the way he built that program back up again was a tremendous thing. He showed me resiliency and how persistent you have to be when building a program."

And then you go to (current Ole Miss head coach) Andy Kennedy who I spent two years with, first as fellow assistants and then another as his assistant, at Cincinnati. Andy has incredible ability to remain positive even during the tough times. I just sat there and marveled at how resilient he is. I don't care how gloomy things looked he always found a way to get players believing that everything was going to be okay. He was so impressive in the way he handled himself during such a turbulent time."

Bob Huggins. He's believed in me enough as a high school coach to help me get my first college job. He not only recommended me and helped me get in, but he also gave me an opportunity to coach at a high level by hiring me. He prepares his assistants to become head coaches because of how much responsibility he gives them. He is comfortable with relying on his assistants to be very involved in the day-to-day job. It's his ship and there's no doubt about it, but he makes you work which prepares you for your chance."

Brad Underwood

Associate Head Coach

Sixth Year | Kansas State '86

A former Wildcat letterman and native of McPherson, Kan., Brad Underwood begins his sixth season at his alma mater, including his first as associate head coach. Underwood, who returned to K-State in May 2006 as director of basketball operations under former head coach Bob Huggins, was elevated to assistant coach by current head coach Frank Martin for the 2007-08 season. He was promoted to associate head coach on June 9, 2011.

Underwood has played a major role in helping revitalize the Wildcat program under Huggins and Martin, which has tallied five straight 20-win seasons for the first time in school history highlighted by a historic 29-8 record in 2009-10. With his help, K-State has 118 wins the past five seasons, including 50 in Big 12 play, and has advanced to the postseason in five consecutive seasons for the first time, including NCAA Tournament trips in 2008, 2010 and 2011.

The 118 wins are the most in school history in a five-year span, shattering the previous mark of 107 wins set from 1957-62, while the 50 league victories are the most in that time frame since the squad posted 56 from 1971-76. K-State is one of only four Big 12 schools (along with Kansas, Texas and Texas A&M) to total five straight 20-win seasons and the Wildcats and Jayhawks are the only teams to finish in the top-4 in the Big 12 and receive a bye at the Phillips 66 Big 12 Championship in each of the past five seasons.

In addition, Underwood has helped coach a pair of All-Americans, including consensus first team selection and Player of the Year candidate Michael Beasley, as well as several all-conference players. Beasley was the school's first consensus first team All-American since 1981.

Underwood received much acclaim during the 2010-11 season, as Martin took his suggestion of adjusting the offensive scheme to the "pinch-post" in early January. As a result, the Wildcats were able to rattle off nine wins in their last 11 regular-season games to earn their fifth consecutive 20-win season and their third trip to the NCAA Tournament in four seasons. Among those nine victories were its second straight over the nation's top-ranked team (No. 1 Kansas) and its first over a Top 10 squad (No. 7 Texas) on the road since 1994. Overall, the Wildcats recorded a 23-11 record, including a tie for third place in the Big 12 standings with a 10-6 mark. The squad collected wins over six ranked teams, including a pair of Top 10 foes. The team finished in the Top 25 of both major polls in 2011, including No. 21 in The Associated Press and No. 24 in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches' poll.

In May 2011, Underwood was one of 55 assistant coaches nationally, including one of six in the Big 12, to attend the prestigious Villa 7 Consortium at Virginia Commonwealth's Center for Sport Leadership in Richmond, Va. The conference intends to help assistant coaches by having them interact with athletics directors and conference commissioners to better prepare them to become head coaches.

Underwood contributed to one of the school's greatest seasons in 2009-10, as K-State posted a school-record 29-8 overall record, including a Big 12 era high tie for second place in the league standings with an 11-5 mark. The Wildcats advanced to the postseason with their highest-ever seed (No. 2) in the NCAA Tournament and earned its first trip to the Elite Eight in more than 20 years. In the process, the team knocked off a school-record six ranked opponents, including the first win over a No. 1 team since 1994, and finished the season ranking in the Top 10 for the first time since 1973 at No. 7 in both the ESPN/USA Today Coaches and Associated Press Top 25 polls.

Underwood brings more than 20 years of coaching experience to his position at K-State, including stints as a head coach at the junior college level at both Dodge City (Kan.) Community College (1988-93) and Daytona Beach (Fla.) Community College (2003-06). In between those stints, he was the top assistant at Western Illinois from 1992-2003.

Underwood joined the staff on May 16, 2006, after spending three seasons as the head coach at Daytona Beach Community College in Daytona Beach, Fla. He helped guide the Falcons to a 70-24 (.745) overall record, including three consecutive 20-win seasons and two Mid-Florida Conference Championships from 2003-06. He was twice selected as the Mid-Florida Conference Coach of the Year following the 2003-04 and 2004-05 seasons. He saw 14 players go on to receive scholarships at four-year programs.

Underwood earned his first head coaching position in 1988 at Dodge City Community College in Dodge City, Kan. He spent four seasons as head coach, guiding the team to a 62-60 record from 1988-93. His 1990-91 squad compiled a 23-9 record and was ranked as high as No. 4 in the nation.

Underwood, 47, earned his bachelor's degree in radio and television communications from K-State in 1986. He was a two-year letterman and guard for the Wildcats from 1984-86 under head coach Jack Hartman. A native of McPherson, Kan., he and his wife, Susan, have one son, Tyler, and two daughters, Katie and Ashley.

Matt Figger

Assistant Coach | Recruiting Coordinator
Fifth Year | Eastern Kentucky '95

Matt Figger is beginning his fifth season at Kansas State as an assistant coach, including his first as recruiting coordinator, after being hired to the staff by head coach Frank Martin on June 11, 2007. He was promoted to recruiting coordinator on June 10, 2011.

Figger has played a key role in the development of the Kansas State program, helping the Wildcats to four consecutive 20-win seasons and a quartet of postseason appearances, including NCAA Tournament bids in 2008, 2010 and 2011. The back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances are the first since the squad went to four consecutive tournaments from 1987-90. Overall, the Wildcats have posted a 95-43 (.688) overall record, including a 40-24 (.625) mark in Big 12 play, during Figger's tenure. The 95 wins tie for the most in a four-year period in school history.

In addition, Figger has helped coach two All-Americans, including back-to-back selection Jacob Pullen (2010, 2011), and five All-Big 12 performers during his tenure. Pullen, who became the first player in school history to be named First Team All-Big 12 twice, was also selected the 2011 winner of the Frances Pomeroy Naismith Trophy that goes annually to nation's best player 6-foot and under by the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame. Pullen also became the school's all-time leading scorer (2,132) in 2010-11.

In 2010-11, Figger helped the squad to its unprecedented fifth straight 20-win season, including a tie for third place in the always-difficult Big 12, and its third trip to the NCAA Tournament in four seasons. Overall, the Wildcats posted a 23-11 record, including a 10-6 mark in league play, and lost to No. 16 Wisconsin in the third round of the Southeast Regional in Tucson, Ariz. Among the team's 23 wins were six over ranked teams, including the nation's top-ranked squad (No. 1 Kansas) and its first over a Top 10 team (No. 7 Texas) on the road since 1994. The team finished in the Top 25 of both polls in 2011, including No. 24 in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches' poll.

Figger contributed to one of the school's greatest seasons in 2009-10, as Kansas State posted a school-record 29-8 overall record, including a Big 12 era high tie for second place in the league standings with an 11-5 mark. The Wildcats advanced to the postseason with their highest-ever seed (No. 2) in the NCAA Tournament and earned its first trip to the Elite Eight in more than 20 years. In the process, the team knocked off a school-record six ranked opponents, including the first win over a No. 1 team since 1994, and finished the season ranking in the Top 10 for seven straight weeks capped by the school's first final Top 10 ranking since 1973 at No. 7 in both the ESPN/USA Today Coaches and Associated Press Top 25 polls.

The record-breaking season came on the heels of consecutive 20-win seasons, including the school's first at-large invitation to the NCAA Tournament in nearly 12 years in 2007-08. The Wildcats not only advanced to the Big Dance with their 21-12 overall record, but also defeated fifth-seeded USC, 80-67, to capture their first NCAA Tournament win since 1988 before bowing out in the second round to third-seeded Wisconsin. The squad followed that season with 22 wins in 2008-09 and a spot in the NIT, where they lost to the region's top-seed, San Diego State, in the second round.

Figger came to K-State after spending five years as an assistant coach at South Alabama under John Pelphrey from 2003-07. He helped the Jaguars to some of their greatest success his last two years, guiding the program to 44 wins, including 25 conference wins, consecutive Sun Belt Conference West Division titles, the 2006 league tournament and 2007 regular season crowns. The squad also reached the postseason in consecutive seasons, advancing to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in eight years in 2006 before earning a bid to the NIT in 2007. In addition, he helped coach five all-league selections in the last two years, including 2007 first team honoree Demetric Bennett.

Prior to his tenure at South Alabama, Figger spent 10 years as an assistant coach in the junior college ranks, including stints at Wabash Valley (Ill.) (1993-94), Vincennes (Ind.) (1995-99) and Odessa (Texas) College (2000-02). During this stay, his teams won 20 or more games eight times, captured six region and four district titles and advanced to the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) national tournament four times.

Among the players Figger coached during his junior college career were NBA All-Star Shawn Marion of the Dallas Mavericks and former NBA player Tyrone Nesby. He also has coached five NJCAA All-Americans, including Tarone Barker (Cincinnati), Mitchell Dunn (Miami), DeShay Jones (Tennessee), Shawn Marion (UNLV) and Janavor Weatherspoon (Oklahoma State). In his nine-year career at the junior college level, he coached more than 35 players who signed NCAA Division I scholarships.

A native of Jenkins, Ky., Figger, 41, earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Eastern Kentucky in 1995. He played baseball at Pikeville College in Pikeville, Ky., from 1990-91 before completing his education at EKU.

Lamont Evans

Assistant Coach

First Year | Kansas State '09

Lamont Evans is in his first season at Kansas State as an assistant coach after spending the past three seasons as an undergraduate and graduate manager in the program. A 2009 graduate of the university, he was elevated to a full-time assistant on June 9, 2011.

Evans has played a pivotal role in the development of the program the past three years, beginning as an undergraduate student manager in 2008-09 then continuing as a graduate manager from 2009-11. In this role, Evans' primary duties included the initial breakdown of game video, scout assistance and film exchange. He assisted the staff with recruiting and team travel, along with other administrative duties.

During this span, Evans has helped K-State post a 74-31 (.705) record, which has included three trips to the postseason highlighted by consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances in 2010 and 2011. The school has also received a bye in the Phillips 66 Big 12 Championship in each of his three seasons.

"Lamont has really earned this opportunity," said head coach Frank Martin. "After recommending him to other head coaches around the country in the spring, I knew I had a great candidate in-house when Dalonte (Hill) left the staff. He has really earned everyone's trust, including most importantly, the players. He has a great basketball mind and an engaging personality. I think all of these characteristics will make him an outstanding assistant coach."

Evans has assisted with the development of several players, including All-Americans Denis Clemente and Jacob Pullen, during his tenure at K-State. The backcourt mates were instrumental during the team's run to the 2010 NCAA Elite Eight and school-record 29 victories, becoming the first Wildcat backcourt tandem to earn All-America honors in the same season.

Pullen, the school's first two-time First Team All-Big 12 selection, was the 2011 winner of the Frances Pomeroy Naismith Trophy given to the nation's best player 6-foot and under by the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame. Pullen also became the school's all-time leading scorer (2,132) in 2010-11. Evans has also helped coach junior Rodney McGruder, who was selected Third Team All-Big 12 by the league coaches in 2010-11.

A native of Eleuthera, Bahamas, Evans came to the United States at the age of five, eventually settling in Deerfield Beach, Fla. He developed into a standout point guard at Hallandale High School in Hallandale, Fla., where he earned second team Florida Class 5A All-State honors as a junior in 1994-95 before collecting first team accolades as a senior in 1995-96. He was twice named first team All-Broward County Conference honors.

Evans played his first two years of college basketball at Seminole (Fla.) Junior College in Sanford, Fla., and St. Catharine College in St. Catharine, Ky., before enrolling at Drake in 1999. He averaged 19.0 points and 7.1 assists as a rookie at Seminole in 1996-97 before playing his sophomore season at St. Catharine's in 1997-98. It was during his time at St. Catharine's that earned him Division I scholarship offers, as he averaged 16.2 points, 10.1 assists and 5.3 rebounds in guiding the Patriots to an 18-11 record. His assist average ranked third nationally, earning him Super Sixty Sophomores Junior College All-American honors from Future Stars. He was also the most valuable player of Region VII. He scored a season-high 29 points against Volunteer (Tenn.) State Junior College, where he dished a career-high 19 assists vs. Cincinnati State Junior College.

Evans played two seasons for then head coach Kurt Kanaskie at Drake, appearing in 42 games for the Bulldogs from 1999 to 2001. Despite missing the last 10 games of the 1999-2000 season, he finished second in the Missouri Valley in assists (5.1 per game) en route to earning honorable mention All-MVC and All-Newcomer Team accolades. His 148 assists as a junior still rank fourth on the school's single-season list.

Evans nearly became the first player in league history to record a triple-double in 1999-2000 after tallying nine points, nine assists and eight rebounds in a win over Mississippi Valley State despite not playing last eight minutes. He led the Bulldogs in assists in 23 games, including career-best 10 against Illinois State. For his career, he averaged 8.0 points, 5.8 assists, 2.8 rebounds and 1.1 steals in 34.1 minutes per game.

Following college, Evans spent seven years playing professionally around the world. This included stops in the U.S. Basketball League (USBL), playing for the Lakeland (Fla.) Blue Ducks, and internationally with teams in Slovenia, Germany, Finland, Belgium and Venezuela. He led squads in Slovenia and Belgium to championships, while he was named one of the top international point guards during his stint in Germany.

Evans, 33, earned his bachelor's degree in social science from Kansas State in the spring of 2009. He has taken credits toward a master's degree in College Student Personnel and Intercollegiate Athletics at K-State.

Andy Assaley

Director of Men's Basketball Operations
Sixth Year | Cincinnati '96

Andy Assaley begins his sixth season at Kansas State and fifth as the director of basketball operations under head coach Frank Martin.

Assaley has played a key support role in helping rebuild the Wildcat program under head coaches Frank Martin and Bob Huggins, which has tallied five consecutive 20-win seasons for the first time in school history highlighted by a historic 29-8 campaign in 2009-10. With his help, K-State has 118 wins the past five seasons, including 50 in Big 12 play, and has advanced to the postseason in five straight seasons for the first time in the program's history, including trips to the NCAA Tournament in 2008, 2010 and 2011.

The 118 wins are the most in school history in a five-year span, shattering the previous mark of 107 wins set from 1957-62, while the 50 league victories are the most since the squad posted 56 from 1971-76. K-State is one of only four Big 12 schools (along with Kansas, Texas and Texas A&M) to total five consecutive 20-win seasons and the Wildcats and Jayhawks are the only teams to finish in the top-4 in the Big 12 and receive a bye at the Phillips 66 Big 12 Championship in each of the past five seasons.

In 2010-11, Assaley helped the squad to its unprecedented fifth consecutive 20-win season, including a tie for third place in the always-difficult Big 12, and its third trip to the NCAA Tournament in four seasons. Overall, the team posted a 23-11 overall record, including a 10-6 mark in league play, and lost to No. 16 Wisconsin in the third round of the Southeast Regional in Tucson, Ariz. The team finished in the Top 25 of both polls in 2011, including No. 21 in The Associated Press and No. 24 in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches' poll.

Assaley played a role in one of the school's greatest seasons in 2009-10, as K-State posted a school-record 29-8 overall record, including a Big 12 era high tie for second place in the league standings with an 11-5 mark. The Wildcats advanced to the postseason with their highest-ever seed (No. 2) in the NCAA Tournament en route to their first trip to the Elite Eight in more than 20 years. In the process, the team knocked off a school-record six ranked foes, including the first win over a No. 1 team since 1994, and finished the season ranking in the Top 10 for seven straight weeks capped by the school's first final Top 10 ranking since 1973 at No. 7 in both the ESPN/USA Today Coaches and Associated Press Top 25 polls.

The record-breaking season came on the heels of consecutive 20-win seasons, including the school's first at-large invitation to the NCAA Tournament in nearly 12 years in 2007-08. The Wildcats not only advanced to the Big Dance with their 21-12 record, but also defeated fifth-seeded USC, 80-67, to capture their first NCAA Tournament win since 1988. The squad followed that season with 22 wins in 2008-09 and a spot in the NIT.

Assaley joined the K-State staff as video coordinator on April 26, 2006, after spending the previous five years at Cincinnati in a number of capacities, first for Bob Huggins in 2001-05 and then for Andy Kennedy in 2005-06. He joined the program in 2001 as a volunteer then was promoted to video coordinator two years later before spending the 2005-06 season as assistant to the head coach. During his tenure, the Bearcats compiled a 119-44 (.730) record with four 20-win seasons and five consecutive postseason appearances, including four trips to the NCAA Tournament from 2002-05.

In his current position, Assaley assists in coordinating travel, scheduling and various other administrative responsibilities. He is also responsible for coordinating the team's philanthropic efforts. He was instrumental in helping create the partnership with the 1st Battalion, 7th Field Artillery unit at Fort Riley in 2007. The team has a close relationship with the regiment and makes several trips to the base each year, including its most recent visit to the Wounded Soldier Transition Battalion.

Assaley is also extensively involved in the development of Video Editing software, first for Pinnacle Systems and now with Sportsec, the video editing provider for the men's and women's basketball and baseball programs. Sportsec is quickly becoming a national leader in the NCAA and NBA in analyzing game footage. With this software, he and video coordinator Dylan Lockwood are able to provide necessary information to the coaching staff to aid opponent and self-scouting.

During his time at Cincinnati, Assaley played a major role in opponent scouting through extensive film breakdowns, game preparation and assisting in on-campus recruiting efforts. He also managed all video self-scout and film exchange and assisted with the community outreach program. He also took on additional responsibilities with on-court coaching and recruiting as assistant to interim head coach Andy Kennedy in 2005-06.

Assaley received both his bachelor's and master's degrees from Cincinnati, earning his undergraduate degree in economics in 1996 and his master's in labor and employee relations in 1998. Assaley and his wife, Sarah, are the parents of three daughters, Cali, Isabella and Payton, and a son, Will.

Scott Greenawalt

Strength and Conditioning Coach
Sixth Year | Muskingum College '98

One of the top strength coaches in the nation, Scott Greenawalt begins his sixth season as the strength and conditioning coach for the Kansas State men's basketball team.

Greenawalt has played a major role in helping revitalize the Wildcat program under head coaches Bob Huggins and Frank Martin, which has tallied five consecutive 20-win seasons for the first time in school history highlighted by a historic 29-8 record in 2009-10. With his help, Kansas State has 118 wins the past five seasons, including 50 in Big 12 play, and has advanced to the postseason in five straight seasons for the first time in school history, including trips to the NCAA Tournament in 2008, 2010 and 2011.

In the past five years, Greenawalt has helped coach 10 all-conference players, including unanimous first team selection as well as the 2008 Big 12 Player and Freshman of the Year Michael Beasley as well as two-time First Team All-Big 12 (2010, 2011) pick Jacob Pullen. The No. 2 pick in the 2008 NBA Draft, Beasley compiled one of the greatest seasons by college freshman in NCAA history in 2007-08 en route to becoming just the second consensus first team All-American in school history. Pullen, who became the first Wildcat in school history to earn First Team All-Big 12 honors twice, was the 2011 recipient of the Frances Pomeroy Naismith Trophy, which is annually awarded to the nation's best player 6-foot or under by the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame. In addition, he helped train second team selections Denis Clemente (twice), David Hoskins, Cartier Martin and Bill Walker, third team honoree Rodney McGruder and 2010 Big 12 Sixth Man of the Year Jamar Samuels.

In addition to his duties with the men's program, Greenawalt also trains the women's basketball team, which captured the Big 12 regular season championship in 2008 and has advanced to the NCAA Tournaments three times in the last four seasons (2008, 2009 and 2011).

Greenawalt joined the staff on April 26, 2006 after spending the previous eight years in the strength and conditioning department at Cincinnati, including the last seven as head assistant coach. He began his tenure as a strength training intern in May 1999 before being promoted to assistant in July 2000.

During his tenure at Cincinnati, he helped the men's basketball program post a 144-54 (.727) record with five 20-win seasons and six postseason appearances, including five NCAA Tournament appearances. He helped train seven professional basketball players, 13 NFL players and current Boston Red Sox first baseman Kevin Youkilis in his time with the Bearcats. In addition, he assisted the women's basketball team to five trips to the postseason, including two NCAA Tournaments, while the women's volleyball squad posted four NCAA Tournaments appearances and six consecutive 20-win seasons.

Greenawalt, 36, earned his bachelor's degree in physical education and health from Muskingum College in New Concord, Ohio, in 1998. He was starting linebacker for four years for the Muskies from 1993-96, earning All-Ohio Athletic Conference honors three times and serving as team captain as a senior. Upon graduation, Greenawalt spent a year as assistant football coach at his alma mater (1997-98), working with the squad's inside linebackers and assisting with all aspects of the strength program.

Greenawalt and his wife, Heather, reside in Manhattan with their daughter Cora.

Doug Edwards

Director of Student-Athlete Development
Fourth Year | Florida State '07

Former NBA player Doug Edwards is in his fourth season as the director of student-athlete development and student manager for his former high school coach Frank Martin.

Hired to the staff in September 2008, Edwards is responsible for a variety of areas including basketball-related matters, handling special projects for the coaching staff and assisting with personnel development and recruiting. In addition, Edwards is involved in monitoring student-athlete's academic progress and their degree completion process. He is also influential in the Life Skills program and counseling student-athletes in career planning and goal setting.

Edwards enjoyed a storied career at Florida State, where he led the Seminoles to a 68-31 (.686) overall record and three straight NCAA Tournament appearances from 1990-93. In just three seasons, he scored 1,604 points, averaging 17.2 per game, which ranks him fifth in school history. He is the only player in FSU history to score 500 or more points in three consecutive seasons. He also ranks among the school's top-10 in four career categories, including fifth in field goals (621), sixth in rebounding (788; 8.5 rpg.) and seventh in both double-doubles (18) and careers (93).

Edwards, along with future NBA draft picks Charlie Ward, Sam Cassell and Bob Sura, guided FSU to within a game of the 1993 Final Four as a senior, as the group helped the Seminoles to a 25-10 record and a second-place finish in the ACC. He averaged 18.3 points and 9.4 rebounds as a senior and was selected to the All-ACC second team. He was named to the FSU Sports Hall of Fame on Sept. 6, 2008.

Following his junior season, Edwards was selected with the 15th overall pick in the first round of the 1993 NBA Draft by the Atlanta Hawks. He averaged 2.4 points and 1.8 rebounds in three seasons with the Hawks (1993-95) and Vancouver Grizzlies (1995-96) before injuries shortened his career.

Considered one of the most heralded recruits in Florida State history, Edwards is reunited with Martin, who helped coach him at Miami Senior High School from 1986-89. During his three-year playing career, he helped lead the Stingarees to a 104-6 (.946) record and two Class 4A State Championships (1986-87; 1988-89). As a senior, he led the squad to a 35-1 record, the Class 4A state title and a No. 2 final ranking in USA Today Super 25. He was the runner-up to Kenny Anderson for USA Today's National High School Player of the Year as well as a McDonald's All-American and Florida Mr. Basketball.

Edwards, 40, earned a bachelor's degree in social science from Florida State in 2007. He has three children: Brittney, Ameer and Brielle.

Brandon Yoder

Athletic Trainer
Third Year | Graceland College '03

Brandon Yoder begins his seventh year as an assistant athletic trainer at Kansas State, including his third as the primary trainer for the men's basketball team. In addition to his duties as men's basketball trainer, he assists in the care of student-athletes for the women's equestrian team.

Yoder joined the men's basketball staff after spending three years with the Wildcat baseball and women's equestrian teams. The baseball team earned its first bid to the NCAA Tournament in his final season in 2009. Prior to this stint, he spent the 2006 spring season as the primary athletic trainer with the track and field program.

Before coming to Manhattan, Yoder worked at the University of Cincinnati covering Bearcat football and baseball for one year. Prior to Cincinnati, he received his master's degree in Liberal Arts from Southern Methodist University. While a graduate assistant at SMU, Yoder was the primary care provider for both the men's and women's tennis teams, while assisting with the Mustangs' football team for two years under NATA Hall of Fame member Cash Birdwell.

Yoder earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in athletic training and a second in physical education from Graceland University in Lamoni, Iowa, in 2003. While attending Graceland, he was a four-year letterwinner for the Yellowjacket baseball team.

He and his wife, Kelly, who is the Office Manager for the Kansas State Athletics Communications Office, reside in Manhattan with their two daughters, Peyton and Kamryn.

Dylan Lockwood

Video Coordinator
Sixth Year | Cazenovia College '05

Dylan Lockwood is entering his sixth season at Kansas State, including his fourth as video coordinator, for Frank Martin.

Lockwood was elevated to video coordinator in October 2008 after spending two years as a graduate student manager for head coaches Bob Huggins and Frank Martin. In his current position, Lockwood coordinates and implements the use of video technology for practices and games while preparing materials used to create game strategies.

Lockwood joined the staff in 2006 as a graduate student manager under then head coach Bob Huggins. His duties included assisting in the initial breakdown of game video, gathering scouting information as well as assisting with the day-to-day operations. He also helped coordinate film exchange and assisted with administrative duties in the office.

Prior to joining the K-State staff, Lockwood served as a student assistant under Huggins from 2004-05 and Andy Kennedy (current Ole Miss head coach) from 2005-06 at Cincinnati. He served as a student manager for the Bearcats from 1999 to 2001 and head manager from 2003-04.

Lockwood earned a bachelor's degree in business specializing in sport management from Cazenovia College in 2005. He played both soccer and basketball while attending Cazenovia.

Lockwood is currently pursuing a master's in College Student Personnel and Intercollegiate Athletics at Kansas State.

Liane Fowler

Program Director/Specialized Learning
11th Year | Emporia State '83

Liane Fowler is in her 11th year at Kansas State as the director for specialized learning services and academic counselor for the men's basketball team.

Fowler is responsible for assisting and continuing eligibility and academic progress towards degree completion. She also provides academic assistance to all student-athletes with a documented disability and/or deemed at-risk academically. In addition, she provides tutorial and advising assistance to the men's basketball team.

Fowler has been a key figure in helping transform the team's Academic Progress Rate (APR) from one of the worst in the Big 12 Conference to one of the best. In addition, she has helped K-State post the highest overall student-athlete graduation rate in the Big 12 each of the past four years, including the highest in men's basketball in 2009-10.

Fowler came to K-State from Butler County Community College in El Dorado, Kan., where she served as the director of special needs/ADA compliance and an athletic academic advisor for eight years. In this role, she provided academic assistance to any student with a documented disability, while also providing tutorial and advising assistance to all student-athletes.

Fowler received her bachelor's degree in elementary education from Emporia State in 1983 and her master's in counseling and school psychology from Wichita State in 1988.

Fowler and her husband of 24 years, D.A., have three children: Jeremy, Justin and Amber.

K-State Again Scores High Marks in Latest APR Report

Kansas State, which has led the Big 12 in graduation rate in each of the past four years, scored record-high marks across the board and for the first time since the APR guidelines were established seven years ago, all teams bettered the standard. Also, the women's golf and women's basketball programs were awarded APR Public Recognition distinction for posting multi-year APRs in the top 10 percent of all squads in each sport.

The Academic Progress Rate measures the eligibility, retention and graduation of student-athletes competing on every Division I sports team and also serves as a predictor of graduation success. The Division I Board of Directors set cut scores of 925 (multi-year) and 900 (out of 1,000) as a threshold for teams to meet or face possible immediate and historical sanctions.

The men's basketball scored a 937 to soar past the 925 mark after raising its multi-year score by a total of 57 points over the last four seasons under head coach Frank Martin. Martin has seen 11 of 12 student-athletes earn their degrees from K-State, including Jacob Pullen and Curtis Kelly this past Spring.

Tom Gilbert

Assistant Dir./Athletics Communications
13th Year | Furman '98

Tom Gilbert is in his 13th year as a member of the Kansas State Athletics Communications Office, including his ninth as the primary contact for the men's basketball program.

In addition to his duties with the men's basketball program, he assists with the publicity of the football squad and is the primary editor of the award-winning gameday yearbook.

Prior to moving to men's basketball in 2003, Gilbert spent four years working as the primary contact for the baseball and women's volleyball teams. In addition, he served as the secondary football contact for trips to the 2001 Insight.com Bowl and the 2002 Holiday Bowl.

Gilbert has been cited a number of times for excellence in publications, including earning four national top-five finishes. His 2010-11 men's basketball media guide as well as 2005 football gameday program was judged second in the nation, while his 2001 women's volleyball media guide and 2000 baseball media guide were rated as the fourth- and fifth-best in the country, respectively. The second-place finish this past year marked the second consecutive year that the men's basketball guide has finished in the Top 10. In addition, his 2006 football gameday program earned best cover honors. His publications have finished among the top-five in the district eight times.

Gilbert earned his bachelor's degree in sports and mass communications from Furman (S.C.) University in 1998, where he spent two years working as a student assistant in the sports information office.

A native of Bostwick, Ga., Gilbert, 35, is an active member of the College Sports Information Director of America, and the U.S. Basketball Writers Association.

Amanda Steffens

Administrative Assistant
Fourth Year | Kansas State '08

The most recent addition to the staff, Amanda Steffens is in her fourth year as an administrative assistant for the K-State men's basketball program in 2011-12.

Hired in June 2008, Steffens is responsible for a number of administrative duties, including coordinating coaches' travel, organizing the office, maintaining coaches' calendars and monitoring the budget. She also handles the personal schedule of head coach Frank Martin. In addition, Steffens is responsible for all aspects of the annual men's basketball banquet each April.

Steffens joined the staff after spending the 2007-08 season as a student assistant in the men's basketball office. She also spent time as an undergraduate working in the department of housing and dining at the university. A native of Junction City, Kan., she earned her bachelor's degree in business management from Kansas State in 2008.

Casey Scott

Associate Athletics Director
10th Year | Kansas State '77

Now in his 27th season in collegiate athletics administration, Casey Scott has been a member of the Kansas State staff since January 2002. A 1977 graduate of the university from Wichita, Kan., he directs the Athletics Operations unit overseeing the department's game management and special event operations and supervises the athletics communications, sports medicine and strength and conditioning staffs. He also serves as the primary sports administrator for men's basketball, baseball, men's and women's golf.

During his tenure, Scott has helped successfully direct two NCAA women's basketball tournaments, three NCAA volleyball tournaments, two National Invitation Tournaments, the pre- and post-season WNIT, three football games at Arrowhead Stadium, the Big 12 Conference outdoor track and field championships, cross country championships and men's golf championship. He has been instrumental in the negotiation and staging of what has become an annual men's basketball game in the Sprint Center in Kansas City and this season the game in INTRUST Bank Arena in Wichita.

Prior to K-State, Scott served as Associate Athletics Director for External Operations at Colorado State, where he oversaw the marketing, development, ticketing and special-event operations.

Scott began his athletics administration career in 1985 as Sports Information Director at Wichita State. During his more than 12 years on the WSU staff, he served in roles as Assistant Athletics Director for External Operations, Facilities and Events, and Associate Athletics Director until leaving for CSU in 1998.

Scott earned a B.S. in journalism and mass communication from Kansas State in 1977. He and his wife, Christy, have a son, Brett, and a daughter, Shannon.

Darren Kent*Graduate Student Manager
First Year | Kansas State '09

Former Wildcat letterman Darren Kent is entering his first year as a graduate student manager for head coach Frank Martin.

Kent's primary duties are to assist in the initial breakdown of game video, assist in gathering scouting information as well as help coordinate film exchange. He also helps the coaching staff with its recruiting database and team travel.

A native of Apple Valley, Minn., he lettered four years for K-State from 2005-09, playing for Jim Wooldridge, Bob Huggins and Martin. He saw action in 96 career games, averaging 4.3 points and 3.1 rebounds. Kent played on three postseason teams, including the school's first trip to the NCAA Tournament in 12 seasons in 2007-08. He also helped the school break an eight-year postseason drought with a NIT appearance in 2006-07.

Kent played one professional season in France following his graduation from K-State in 2009 with a bachelor's degree in social science. He is currently pursuing a master's degree in College Student Personnel and Intercollegiate Athletics.

Eric Rodriguez*Graduate Student Manager
First Year | NYIT '11

Eric Rodriguez enters his first year as a graduate student manager for head coach Frank Martin. His primary duties are to assist in the initial breakdown of game video, aid in gathering scouting information as well as help coordinate film exchange. He also assists the staff with its recruiting database and travel.

Rodriguez comes to K-State after a two-year playing career at New York Institute of Technology (NYIT) in Old Westbury, N.Y. He saw action in all 58 games in his career, pacing the Bears in assists as both a junior (73) and senior (69).

A native of Miami, Fla., Rodriguez graduated from NYIT in May 2011 with a bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies with a minor in business. He is currently pursuing a master's degree in College Student Personnel and Intercollegiate Athletics.

Dr. Kirk Schulz

University President
Third Year | Virginia Tech '86

→ The Schulz Family

Kirk H. Schulz was selected as the 13th president of Kansas State University in February 2009 by the Kansas Board of Regents.

A dynamic leader, he is spearheading a visionary effort to move K-State forward, with the goal of being recognized as a Top 50 Public Research University by 2025. During his first two years Schulz has generated considerable momentum toward the goal, including campus-wide involvement in developing a strategic plan.

Among recent university highlights:

- This past year, fundraising by the Kansas State University Foundation reached the $100 million mark for the first year. In addition, a record number of $5 million or larger gifts were received from individuals.
- Faculty researchers brought in a record high $147.7 million in funding.
- Athletics began construction on a privately-funded $18 million basketball practice facility.
- K-State continues to be ranked No. 1 in the Big 12 for the 15th consecutive year for percentage of graduates who are members of the Alumni Association.
- The Kansas Congressional Delegation, the Office of the Governor, and the Kansas Legislature worked with university administrators to secure funding for the construction of the $650 million National Bio and Agro-Defense Facility (NBAF).
- K-State continues as the top choice among Kansas high school graduating seniors for fall 2010.

Prior to his appointment as president, Schulz served as vice president for research and economic development at Mississippi State University. He has also served on the faculty at Michigan Technological University and the University of North Dakota.

Schulz is active in several professional societies including the American Institute for Chemical Engineers and the American Society for Engineering Education. In recognition of achievements in the field of Chemical Engineering, Schulz was selected as a Fellow in both the American Society of Engineering Education and the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

Schulz is also active in the Boy Scouts of America, and serves on the Executive Board of the Coronado Council. He also serves various roles on the boards of Cereal Food Processors, the Greater Manhattan Community Foundation, the Kansas Bioscience Authority, and the Accreditation Board for Engineering and Technology.

He is married to Dr. Noel Nunnally Schulz, who serves as the Paslay Professor of Electrical Engineering at Kansas State University. They have two sons - Timothy - a junior at Mississippi State University and Andrew - a junior at Manhattan High School.

There is no question John Currie has hit the ground running and made a lasting impact in his first two years as K-State's Director of Athletics. From implementing a new communications plan the day he was being introduced as the school's 15th Athletics Director on May 18, 2009, to consistently emphasizing the importance of transparency and accountability in all department matters as well as the student-athlete and fan experience, he has laid a solid foundation for achieving its vision of a model intercollegiate athletics program.

Currie arrived in Manhattan on June 8, 2009, to officially begin his duties. Just a month later he and his staff launched the "K-State Pledge," a series of financial accountability measures and core values to help restore the faith and trust of all Wildcat fans. Among those values are five goals: a world-class student-athlete experience; value to the University, city and state; integrity and transparency in matters of ethics, finance and NCAA compliance; championship-level athletic performances; and the best fan experience in the Big 12.

Kansas State is coming off an ultra-successful 2010-11 athletics season that would see a record-number of teams advance to the NCAA postseason, while the school was became just one of two athletic programs in the nation to have its football team in a bowl game, both basketball and its baseball teams in the NCAA Tournament and both track and field teams finish in the Top 20.

Providing student-athletes a world-class experience has also been priority as Currie's staff initiated several new events such as the Powercat Choice Awards to showcase student-athletes and a special graduation reception and ring ceremony to honor their dedication and hard work on the field and in the classroom. Kansas State's student-athletes currently lead the Big 12 in all-sports graduation rate, including the highest football, men's golf, women's golf, men's track and field and baseball rates. In fact, K-State has claimed the No. 1 graduation rate among all student-athletes in each of the last four seasons.

To help encourage support for the student-athlete experience and championship pursuits, Kansas State's fundraising efforts have been completely overhauled in Currie's tenure with a new emphasis on personal interaction and communication for Ahearn Fund donors of all levels. Supporters immediately responded by increasing total annual fund cash gifts over 50-percent versus the previous year to an all-time high of $14.5 million. Fiscal year 2011 was even better, as the annual Ahearn Fund goal was exceeded by more than $1 million and total athletics giving set another all-time record exceeding $17.5 million. Despite inheriting a $2 million projected budget deficit on arrival in June 2009, Currie's staff instead achieved a first year surplus of $5 million, thanks to new measures promoting efficiency and cost containment, coupled with tremendous fundraising success. In fact, in May of 2011 USA Today recognized K-State as one of just 22 athletic departments in the nation to operate in a surplus in 2009-10 and one of only five to do so while decreasing expenses from the previous year.

In August 2011, K-State made a national splash when it launched a high-definition online network known as K-StateHD.TV. The one-of-a-kind network provides a world-wide connection to Kansas State University and K-State Athletics and has established the university as an international leader in programming, accessibility and exposure. In fact, following its high-definition live broadcast of the 2011 season-opening football game against Eastern Kentucky, the school took over the No. 1 spot in the number of total subscriptions across the CBS College Sports network, K-State's online network provider.

Currie received a signal national honor this past spring as one of two athletics directors named to SportsBusiness Journal's 2011 prestigious "Forty Under 40" list of sports leaders. He is a member of the NCAA Division I Administrative Cabinet and also serves the Big 12 as a member of the Game Management/Officiating Sub-committee as well as the Championship and Awards committee.

Currie began his duties at K-State after 10 years at Tennessee, most recently serving as Executive Associate Athletics Director. A native of Chapel Hill, N.C., he earned his master's in sports management from Tennessee in 2003 and is a 1993 Wake Forest graduate. He and his wife, Mary Lawrence, have three children, Jack, Virginia and Mary-Dell.

Dr. BeStoney

Faculty Athletics
Representative
Second Year | UTEP '81

BeEtta "Be" Stoney, a Kansas State University professor who was a standout student-athlete in college and a coach at the collegiate level, was named the department's faculty athletics representative in September 2010.

Stoney, associate professor of curriculum and instruction, was appointed to the position by Dr. Kirk Schulz and will work closely with the K-State athletics department and Big 12 Conference on issues related to academic integrity, rules compliance and student-athlete welfare.

Stoney earned a bachelor's in secondary education and a master's in kinesiology from the University Texas at El Paso, and a doctorate in special education and multicultural education from the University of Texas at Austin.

Stoney was inducted into the UTEP Athletics Hall of Fame in October 2011 for her accomplishments as a member of the women's basketball team from 1977-81. She held the program's career points record for 30 years with 1,249 points; she now ranks third all-time.

As A Freshman (2010-11): Saw action in all 34 games with six starts as a freshman. One of just three players (along with Jordan Henriquez and Rodney McGruder) to play all 34 games. Became first Wildcat freshman to play in all games in a season since Michael Beasley and Jacob Pullen in 2007-08. Named to the Spring 2011 Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll. Registered double-digit minutes in 32 games, including a season-high 30 minutes twice. Averaged 6.4 points on 39.7 percent shooting (62-of-156), including 37 percent (40-of-108) from 3-point range, with 1.8 assists, 1.6 rebounds and 0.8 steals in 21.9 minutes per game. Ranked among the Top 5 in nine categories, including second in assists, steals and free throw percentage, third in 3-point field goals and attempts and fifth in scoring field goals and field goals attempted. Scored in 31 games, including seven double-digit efforts. Led the team in scoring with a season-best 17 points against Baylor (1/24/11). Connected on at least two 3-point field goals in 13 games, including a season-high four in a win over Iowa State (2/5/11). One of the team's best free throw shooters, going perfect from the line in 11 games. Went a perfect 9-of-9 in the Big Monday win over Baylor (1/24/11). Grabbed a season-high five rebounds vs. Emporia State (11/29/10) and Iowa State (3/5/11). Paced the squad in assists in five games. Dished out a season-best five assists against Texas Tech (1/15/11). Had at least one steal in 18 games, including three vs. Alcorn State (12/6/10). Led the team with 21 charges taken. Saw action in all 16 Big 12 games, averaging 6.6 points on 37.7 percent shooting (29-of-77) with 1.8 assists and 1.8 rebounds in 21.3 minutes per game. Ranked among the Top 5 on the team in seven categories in Big 12 play, including second in assists and steals, third in 3-point fields and attempts and fifth in scoring, field goals and field goals attempted. Scored in double figures in back-to-back games vs. Iowa State (3/5/11) and Colorado (3/10/11). Posted 14 points against the Buffaloes in the Phillips 66 Big 12 Championship. Solid all-around vs. the Cyclones with 13 points, five rebounds, four assists and two steals. Tallied nine points, along with two steals, in win over No. 1/1 Kansas (2/14/11). Instrumental in win at Iowa State (2/5/11) with 14 points on 5-of-9 field goals, including 4-of-8 from 3-point range. Scored in double figures in consecutive games vs. UMKC (12/23/10) and North Florida (12/31/10). Earned first career start vs. Alcorn State (12/6/10) with four points, four assists and three steals. Notched double figures for the first time in win over No. 18/22 Gonzaga (11/22/10) in the O'Reilly Auto Parts CBE Classic semifinals with 13 points. Saw his first career action in opener vs. James Madison (11/12/10) with nine points.

High School: A four-year starter at Shawnee Mission South High School in Overland Park, Kan. Finished as the school's second-leading scorer of all-time with 1,225 points. Averaged 20.1 points, 6.1 rebounds and 5.7 assists as a senior in 2009-10. Helped the Raiders to just their second Kansas 6A State Tournament appearance in the program's history and first since 2004. The team lost in overtime to Blue Valley North in the quarterfinals despite his 34 points. Led the team in most categories, including scoring, rebounding and assists. Finalist for the 2010 DiRenna Award, which goes to the top player in the Kansas City area. Selected first team Class 6A All-State as a senior by the Kansas Basketball Coaches Association (KBCA) and the Wichita Eagle. Named to the all-state second team by Topeka Capital-Journal. Also selected Sunflower League Player of the Year and first team all-conference as a senior. Posted eight 20-point games, four 30-point games and one 40-point game in 2009-10. In fact, he scored 40 of his team's 55 points in a loss at Olathe South as a senior. Scored a game-high 21 points in the Hy-Vee/Pepsi High School All-Star Challenge, helping the Kansas All-Stars defeat Missouri All-Stars, 115-104. Averaged 23.2 points per game as a junior for the Raiders before going down with a season-ending calf injury on Jan. 27, 2009. Scored 35 points in the season opener against rival Shawnee Mission East. Averaged 17.2 points and 4.9 assists per game as a sophomore. Scored a game-high 30 points against Blue Valley West in the Class 6A sub-state game. Named to the Kansas City Star's All-Johnson County Boys' team in both 2007-08 and 2008-09. Also selected as the conference Freshman and Sophomore of the Year. Coached by Brett McFall.

Personal: William Sadler Spradling was born June 7, 1991 in Columbia, Mo. Parents are Shannon and Misty Spradling. Faced with high expectations, including a school-best No. 3 preseason rankings in both The Associated Press and ESPN/USA Today Coaches' poll, Kansas State overcame numerous off-the-court issues to post its unprecedented fifth consecutive trip to the postseason, including its third in the last four seasons in the NCAA Tournament, to cap a 23-win campaign in 2010-11. The Wildcats, who earned a No. 5 seed at the 'Big Dance', defeated 12-seed and Western Athletic Conference (WAC) champion Utah State, 73-68, in the second round before falling to four-seed Wisconsin, 70-65, in the third round of the Southeast Regional at the McKale Center in Tucson, Ariz. It marked the fifth straight season that the team has won at least one postseason contest (NCAA or NIT) after losing eight in a row between 1994 and 2007. The squad finished in the Top 25 of both major polls, ranking No. 21 in The Associated Press and No. 24 in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches' poll. It marked the first time that the Wildcats have concluded the year ranked in the Coaches' poll in consecutive seasons since 1971-72 and 1972-73. The team also ranked No. 22 in the final NCAA RPI, which combines wins and losses with strength of schedule.

Overall, K-State finished the season with a 23-11 overall record, including a tie for third place with Texas A&M at 10-6 in the Big 12 standings. The 23 wins ties for the sixth-most in a single season in school history, while it marks the fourth time in the last five seasons that the squad has tallied 10 or more league victories in a single season. It also marks the school's fifth consecutive 20-win season. The Wildcats are one of just two Big 12 teams (along with Kansas) to finish in the top-4 in the conference standings and a receive a bye at the Phillips 66 Big 12 Championship each of the past five seasons.

Following is a list of accomplishments from the 2010-11 season:

- Advanced to the postseason for the unprecedented fifth consecutive season, including the NCAA Tournament for the third time in the last four seasons. The squad also won a postseason contest for the fifth straight season. The three trips to the NCAA Tournament are the second-most in a four-year span in school history behind the four consecutive trips between 1987-90.
- Tallied an unprecedented fifth consecutive 20-win season for the first time in school history.
- Finished in the Top 25 of both major polls, ranking No. 21 in the AP and No. 24 in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches' poll, marking the first time in 38 years that they have concluded the year ranked in the coaches' poll in back-to-back seasons.
- Defeated six ranked teams, including the nation's No. 1 team for the second consecutive season with its 84-68 win over top-ranked Kansas on Feb. 14. The six wins over ranked foes was just one short of the school record set a season ago in 2009-10. During the six-game winning streak from Feb. 14-March 5, the team knocked off three ranked foes - No. 1 Kansas, No. 20 Missouri and No. 7 Texas - in a five-game span for the first time in school history. The 75-70 win over the Longhorns was the first on the road over a Top 10 squad since 1994.
- Recorded sellouts in 15 of 17 games played at Bramlage Coliseum, including all eight in Big 12 play. The team drew 200,000 or more fans for the fourth time in the last five seasons, while they ranked third in school history for total home attendance and single-season average.
- Scored 2,000 or more points for the fifth consecutive season with an average of 72.9 points per game... The squad also produced 200 or more 3-point field goals for the fifth year in a row. The 2,477 points scored ranks fifth on the school's single-season chart, while the 237 3-pointers places third... The team also ranked in the Top 5 in four other categories, including blocked shots (2nd, 154), offensive rebounds (4th, 490), defensive rebounds (5th, 790) and rebounding margin (5th, +6.5).
- Senior Jacob Pullen earned the 2011 Frances Pomeroy Naismith Award, which is given to the nation's top senior 6-foot or under.
- Senior Jacob Pullen was selected an All-American by several outlets, including one of 10 players nationally to earn recognition to the John R. Wooden Award All-American team. He was named a third team selection by The Associated Press, State Farm/National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC), The Sporting News and Yahoo! Sports. He was a fourth team pick by FOXSports.com.
- Senior Jacob Pullen and sophomore Rodney McGruder both earned recognition to the Coaches' All-Big 12 team with Pullen earning first team honors for the second straight season and McGruder being selected to the third team. Pullen is the school's first two-time first team All-Big 12 pick and the first Wildcat to repeat first team honors since Norris Coleman in 1986 and 1987.
- Senior Jacob Pullen became the school's all-time leading scorer, eclipsing Mike Evans, with his school-record 38 points against Wisconsin in the NCAA Tournament. His 2,132 points are not only tops in school history, but rank fourth all-time in Big 12 Conference history. He is just the second Wildcat and the sixth Big 12 player to top 2,000 career points.
- Senior Jacob Pullen owns career school records for games played (135), double-digit scoring games (105), 3-point field goals (299), 3-point field goals attempted (828) and steals (210). He also ranks second in 20-point games (42), field goals attempted (1,600), free throws made (527), free throw attempted (684) and minutes played (3,978), while he is third in field goals made (653) and fourth in starts (82). In all, he ranks in the Top 5 in 17 categories in school history.
- Senior Jacob Pullen's 38 points against Wisconsin in the NCAA Southeast Regional Third Round game were the most by a Wildcat and a Big 12 player in an NCAA Tournament contest.
- Senior Curtis Kelly finished in the Top 10 in two career categories in school history, ranking third in blocked shots (107) and fifth in field goal percentage (55.1).

Wildcats Advance to NCAA Tournament... Again

Kansas State made its 32nd postseason appearance in 2010-11 and its 25th in the NCAA Tournament. It marked the first time in school history that the Wildcats have advanced to five consecutive postseason tournaments, while it marked the first time that the team has earned back-to-back trips to the NCAA Tournament since the 1988-89 and 1989-90 seasons. The squad is now 38-37 all-time in postseason play, including 32-29 in NCAA Tournament. K-State's 25 NCAA Tournament appearances are the fourth-most among Big 12 teams, one back of Oklahoma and one ahead of Missouri and Oklahoma State.

Another 20-win Season

Kansas State posted its 23rd 20-win season in school history in 2010-11 and the 16th posted during the regular season. The team has now won 20 or more games in five consecutive seasons for the first time in school history. The 23 wins tie for the sixth-most in a single-season in school history, but tie the 2006-07 squad for the third-most in the last 25 seasons.

Pullen Wins Frances Pomeroy Naismith Award

Senior Jacob Pullen was named the 2011 winner of the Frances Pomeroy Naismith Award, which is given to the nation's top senior, six-foot and under, by the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

Pullen is the first K-State player to earn the accolade and the second consecutive Big 12 student-athlete, following last year's recipient Kansas' Sherron Collins. Overall, he is the 43rd winner since 1969. Among the previous winners are UCLA's Tyus Edney (1995) and Darren Collison (2009), Stanford's Brevin Knight (1997), Ohio State's Scoonie Penn (2000), Arizona's Jason Gardner (2003), St. Joseph's Jameer Nelson (2004), Washington's Nate Robinson (2005) and Illinois' Dee Brown (2006).

Named in honor of basketball inventor James Naismith's daughter-in-law, the Frances Pomeroy Naismith Award is selected by a panel of representatives from the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC). To earn the award, the recipient must demonstrate leadership, character, loyalty, all-around basketball ability and excellence in the classroom.

Pullen Named a Wooden All-American

Senior Jacob Pullen capped his senior year by becoming one of 10 players named to the 2011 John R. Wooden Award All-American team by the Los Angeles Athletic Club. He becomes the third Wildcat to earn All-American honors from the John R. Wooden Award and the first since Michael Beasley in 2008. The school's first All-American honor came to Rolando Blackman in 1981. It marked the fifth All-America accolade for Pullen, who was also named to the third team by The Associated Press, The Sporting News and Yahoo! Sports and the fourth team by FOXSports.com.

Pullen was joined on the All-American team by Jimmer Fredette (BYU), Ben Hansbrough (Notre Dame), Jajuan Johnson (Purdue), Kawhi Leonard (San Diego State), Marcus Morris (Kansas), Nolan Smith (Duke), Jared Sullinger (Ohio State), Kemba Walker (Connecticut) and Derrick Williams (Arizona).

Pullen is the first Wildcat since Blackman in 1980 (first team) and 1981 (first team) to earn All-American honors in two different seasons. Overall, he is just the sixth player in school history to accomplish the feat, joining Dick Knostman (1952, 1953), Jack Parr (1957, 1958), Bob Boozer (1958, 1959) and Chuckie Williams (1975-76). He is the school's 18th All-American since 1917.

The school's all-time leading scorer with 2,132 points, Pullen led the team in 12 statistical categories in 2010-11, including scoring (20.2 ppg.), double-figure scoring games (29), field goals (191), 3-point field goals (74), free throws (170), assists (115), steals (49) and minutes (32.6 mpg.). He also left the school with 95 all-time wins, which ties two others for the most in school history.

Pullen, McGruder Named All-Big 12

Senior Jacob Pullen became the school's first two-time All-Big 12 first team selection, while sophomore Rodney McGruder was chosen to the third team when the league announced its postseason awards.

Pullen, along with Colorado's Alec Burks, were the Big 12's only unanimous selections to the all-conference team, while he was the lone repeat choice on the first team from 2009-10. He was the first Wildcat to repeat first team honors since Norris Coleman made it on the All-Big Eight team in 1986 and 1987. Pullen is the just the 17th player in school history to earn first team honors more than once in a career dating back to Missouri Valley Conference play in 1915. He also earned first team accolades from several other media outlets, including the Kansas City Star and Yahoo! Sports. He was selected to the six-man Coaches' All-Defensive Team for the second year in a row. He was chosen the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year by Yahoo! Sports.

McGruder, who led the team in rebounding, earned all-conference honors for the first time in his career. The only player to start in all 34 games, he was also named to third team by the Kansas City Star and Yahoo! Sports.

Pullen Twice Big 12 Player of the Week

Senior Jacob Pullen twice earned Phillips 66 Big 12 Player of the Week honors in 2010-11, first on Feb. 7 after wins over Nebraska and Iowa State and again, on Feb. 21 after victories over No. 1 Kansas and Oklahoma.

Pullen averaged 19.5 points on 45.2 percent shooting (14-of-31) in wins over the Cornhuskers and Cyclones to go with 7.0 assists, 2.0 rebounds and 2.0 steals in 37.5 minutes per game. He scored 17 of his game-high 21 points in the second half against ISU, including the game-winner with 2.6 seconds. He averaged 32.5 points on 48.6 percent shooting (17-of-35) in victories over the top-ranked Jayhawks and Sooners to go with 4.0 assists, 3.5 steals and 2.5 rebounds in 37 minutes per game. He had perhaps his greatest effort with a career-best 38 points in the KU win, which are the most by a winning squad over a top-ranked team since Houston's Elvin Hayes scored 39 points against UCLA in 1968. It was the 12th-most points scored by any player against the Jayhawks and tied for the second-most by a Wildcat player.

Offensive Adjustment

Head coach Frank Martin made an adjustment to his offensive scheme right after the 74-66 home loss to Colorado on Jan. 12 and it paid off, as the team won 11 of their last 17 games, including eight of their last 10, to earn a trip to the NCAA Tournament for the third time in the last four seasons. Called the "pinch-post" offense, and made famous by legendary K-State and Hall of Fame coach Tex Winter with the NBA's Los Angeles Lakers (as well as Johnny Orr of Michigan/Iowa State), the scheme is designed to spread the floor and create spacing along with simultaneous ball and player movement.

The Wildcats averaged 71.6 points on 44 percent shooting, including 38.4 percent shooting from 3-point range, since its installation against Texas Tech on Jan. 15, while they averaged 73 points on 45.3 percent shooting in the team's last 10 games (which included a six-game winning streak). Five players averaged seven or more points in the new system, while each of the team's top eight offensive players shot at a clip of 40 percent or better from the field. The squad's top two 3-point shooters (Pullen and McGruder) hit on better than 40 percent from long range. Pullen averaged 21.2 points on 40.9 percent shooting, including 41.2 percent from beyond the arc, while McGruder and senior Curtis Kelly averaged 10.8 and 10.3 points per game, respectively. The change also enabled the team to eclipse the 2,000-point barrier for the fifth straight season, which is the longest stretch of 2,000-point seasons since the program had nine from 1985-86 to 1993-94.

Knocking Off No. 1

Kansas State posted one of its most impressive wins under head coach Frank Martin - a 84-68 win over No. 1/1 Kansas on Feb. 14. The win was the fourth against a No. 1 team in school history, which includes Missouri (65-58) on Feb. 8, 1990, Kansas (68-64) on Jan. 17, 1994 and Texas (71-62) on Jan. 18, 2010. The squad has now beaten a Top 10 team in each of Martin's four years. It was also the second most-lopsided for any unranked team over a No. 1 team since the rankings started over 60 years ago, while the 16-point margin of victory was the largest against Kansas since a 70-53 win at Ahearn Field House on Jan. 23, 1982. After losing by 24 to KU on Jan. 29, there has only been one greater swing in a given year in the rivalry, as K-State won 66-56 at home before losing 91-53 at Allen Fieldhouse for a 48-point swing during the 1974-75 season. Martin became the first Wildcat coach since Dana Altman in 1993 and 1994 to record two wins over KU.

It was perhaps the team's best all-around effort, as the 'Cats connected on 56.3 percent (27-of-48) from the field, including 50 percent (6-of-12) from 3-point range, to go with an 82.8 percent (24-of-29) effort from the free throw line. The team was also stellar on the defensive end, holding the Big 12's best offense to 16 points below their average of 83.9 points per game on 44 percent shooting, including 20 percent from 3-point range. Senior Jacob Pullen cemented his place in K-State lore with a career-best night against Kansas. The 38 points were the most scored in a win over a top-ranked team in the 14-year history of the USA Today/ESPN Coaches Top 25 and the most any match-up with a No. 1 team since Elvin Hayes had 39 against UCLA in 1968.

February Frenzy

K-State capped its stellar play in February by posting an stellar 75-70 win over No. 7/8 Texas on Feb. 28 Erwin Center in Austin, Texas. It was the first win over a Top 10 foe on the road in 17 years since knocking off top-ranked Kansas, 68-64, at Allen Fieldhouse on Jan. 17, 1994, while it marked the first time since 1958 that the squad posted back-to-back wins over Top 25 teams. The team started its two-game streak with an 80-70 win over No. 20/21 Missouri at home on Feb. 26. Including the win over No. 1/1 Kansas, the team had three wins over Top 25 teams in a five-game span for the first time in school history. The Wildcats have now won 15 of their last 16 games in February, which included a 10-game streak between the 2009-10 and 2010-11 seasons. The team is 23-8 (.742) under Frank Martin in the month, including a 14-2 (.875) mark at home. The squad will enter the season with a nine-game winning streak at home in February.

(a) Includes a 82-84 overtime loss to Kansas on March 9, 1960 in an NCAA playoff game.

(b) Lost 80-81 at Colorado on Feb. 13, 1961, but Colorado later forfeited the contest.

(c) Jack Hartman coached the first 13 games before sitting out the remainder of the year recovering from heart bypass surgery. He returned to coach one last season in 1985-86.

Assistant Darryl Winston served as interim coach (5-10) for the final 15 games from January to March 1985.

(d) Jim Wooldridge coached the first 19 games before undergoing neck surgery; returned to coach the final seven games.

Assistant Jimmy Elgas served as interim coach (1-1) for two games in February 2006.

Big Eight Conference

Holiday Tournament (1946-78)

For 33 years, the Big Eight Conference sponsored one of the most successful basketball tournaments in the nation - the Big Eight Holiday Basketball Tournament. The four-day tournament included eight teams, each guaranteed three games with consolation and winner brackets.

The event began in 1946 when the Big Six Conference invited SMU and Arkansas to complete the field of eight. In 1947, the Big Seven invited Missouri Valley Conference member Oklahoma A&M (now Oklahoma State) to participate. Completing the field until it became the Big Eight in 1958 were: Harvard (1948); Michigan (1949); Minnesota (1950); Stanford (1951); Yale (1952); Washington (1953); California (1954); Cornell (1955); Michigan State (1956); Princeton (1957).

The 1946 and 1947 tournament were conducted prior to Christmas, being held on the second weekend of December. For the remainder of the event, it was held following Christmas, either December 26-29 or 27-30. Pairings were based on the previous year's conference standings until 1964, but beginning in 1965 the first-round match-ups were based on a set rotation.

The tournament was held at Municipal Auditorium in Kansas City, Mo., from 1946-73. Beginning with the 1974 tourney, Kemper Arena became the home to the event. The last Holiday Tournament was in 1978, and cancelled because the league also conducted a post season tournament for automatic NCAA Tournament qualification. The two tournaments were conducted in the same year three times: 1976-77; 1977-78; 1978-79.

A Championship Tradition

Kansas State's rich coaching heritage

K-State's coaching ledger reads like a who's who of basketball's greatest minds. The nine coaches listed coached the Wildcats to some of their most successful seasons, including over 1,100 wins, 4 trips to the Final Fours, 22 NCAA Tournaments and 15 league titles.

Jack Gardner

1939-42, 1946-53

147-81

Jack Gardner had great numbers, great teams and great results. That is why he is enshrined in the Naismith Hall of Fame, basketball's highest reward. It's also the reason that he is often credited with beginning the great basketball tradition that exists at K-State today.

Simply stated, he got it all started. Interestingly, he is the only head coach in school history to hold the top position on two different occasions. His second stint at the school resulted in some of the best basketball ever played in Manhattan.

Entering the 1946-47 season, the team hadn't finished above the .500 mark for 15 years, but Gardner, renowned for his tactical prowess, rallied the Wildcats to a 14-10 season in the initial season of his second go-around. The 1950-51 team would soar to a 25-4 record and a second place finish in the NCAA Tournament. Gardner's teams won a total of three conference crowns in seven years and captured two Big Eight Holiday Tournament titles, in addition to finishing the year ranked in the Top 20 on two occasions.

Aside from his on-the-court achievements, Gardner is remembered as the force behind the construction of Ahearn Field House. His successful teams of the late 1940s drove basketball fans in the state of Kansas into a frenzy, and tickets were as rare as the losses. After nearly a decade of trying to persuade state legislators for a new facility, the new arena became a reality in December 1950.

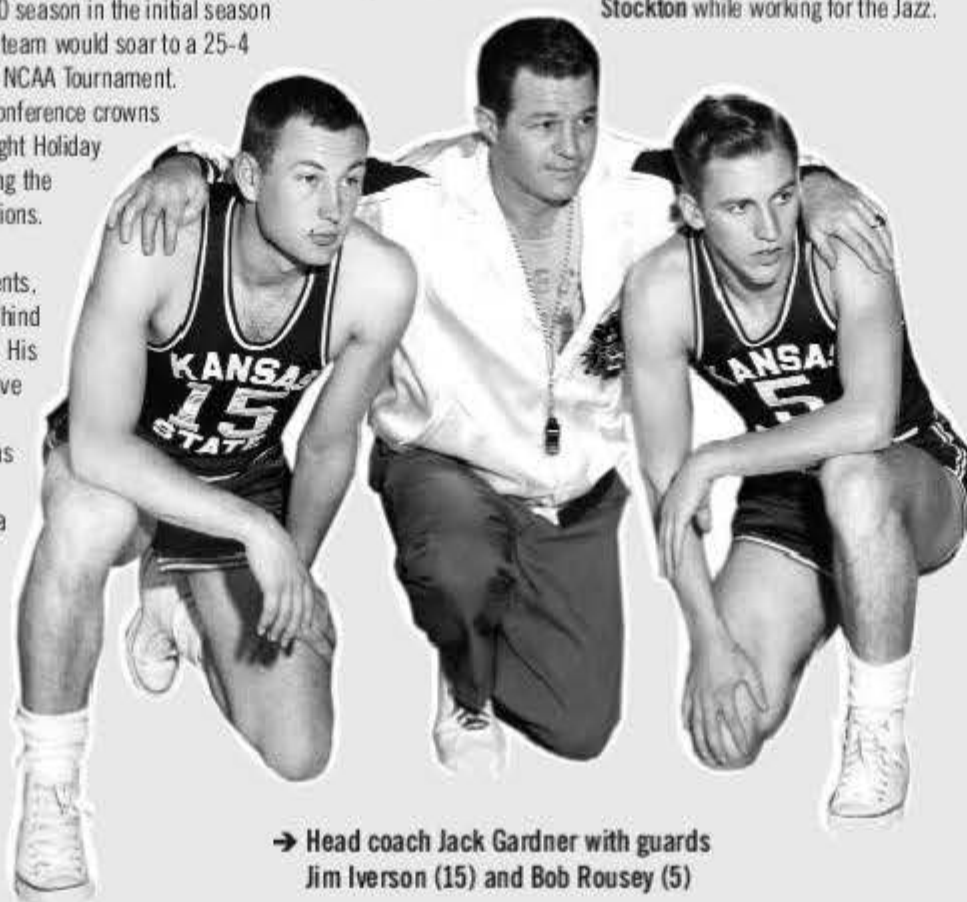

Gardner, a native of New Mexico and a graduate of the University of Southern California, responded with the 1950-51 team which was arguably the best in school history and one of two that would go to the Final Four during his tenure (the other was in 1947-48).

The 1950-51 squad led by All-American Ernie Barrett is still the only team in school history to advance to the NCAA title game.

Gardner left Manhattan in 1953 to take over the head coaching reins at the University of Utah, where he remained for 18 years. He led the Utes to six NCAA Tournament appearances and two trips to the Final Four. He finished his career in Salt Lake City with a 339-154 record while winning seven conference titles. Between 1959 and 1962, his teams accumulated a 72-14 record.

Gardner, who was inducted into the Kansas Sports Hall of Fame in 2000, has been inducted into 10 different Hall of Fames. He is also a member of the Southern Utah Hall of Fame, Utah All-Sports Hall of Fame, State of Utah Basketball Hall of Fame, Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame, Helms Foundation Hall of Fame, the Crimson Club (University of Utah), the Modesto (Calif.) Junior College Hall of Fame and the Redlands (Calif.) High School Hall of Fame. He was also the recipient of the National Association of Basketball Coaches' Golden Anniversary Award.

Gardner worked as a consultant for the Utah Jazz of the National Basketball Association from 1979 until 1991. Gardner, who passed away on April 9, 2000, is credited with discovering Gonzaga's John Stockton while working for the Jazz.

Fred "Tex" Winter

1953-68

261-118

Morice Fredrick "Tex" Winter was an assistant coach during Jack Gardner's glory years. He was a natural to succeed his mentor, although the early years were tough. So tough, in fact, that at one point signs sprouted saying, "Spring is here, Winter must go." Fortunately, Winter stayed, and it was a "long, hard Winter" for Kansas State opponents for 15 years. An innovator of the "triangle offense," he earned a reputation as one of the most creative offensive coaches in the land and in 1962, published a book on the offense entitled The Triple-Post Offense.

Winter owns the second-most wins (261) of any Kansas State coach, and laid claim to more league titles (eight) than any other Wildcat coach. He would lead the school to postseason play seven times, including six trips to the NCAA Tournament. K-State won the Big Eight Holiday Tournament four times under his leadership, and achieved top 20 finishes on four occasions. Eleven Wildcats achieved all-league honors under Winter, and two (Jack Parr and Bob Boozer) were All-Americans. He was also named the United Press International (UPI) National Coach of the Year in 1959.

There were several outstanding teams under Winter, two of which made trips to the Final Four. Spearheaded by the play of Bob Boozer, the 1958-59 team was ranked among the nation's top-5 for most of the season and spent numerous weeks as the nation's No. 1 ranked team before falling in the Midwest Regional Finals to No. 5 Cincinnati. Then, in 1964, the Wildcats charged back to the Final Four, finally being eliminated by eventual champion UCLA, 90-84.

A native of Huntington Park, Calif., Winter began his coaching career as the first full-time assistant at K-State for Jack Gardner from 1947-51. Like Gardner, he graduated from Southern California (in 1947), where he learned the triangle offense from Sam Barry. An All-American pole vaulter for the Trojans, he became the youngest coach in the nation at Marquette in 1951, guiding the Warriors to the National Catholic Championship in his first season. After his second season he replaced Gardner (who left for Utah) as coach in 1953.

Following his departure in 1968, Winter served shorter stints as head coach at Washington (1969-72), the NBA's Houston Rockets (1972-74), Northwestern (1975-78) and Long Beach State (1978-83). In total, he won 454 games at the collegiate level. Winter went 51-78 during his two-year stint with the Rockets.

In 1985, Winter started another chapter of his life, serving as an assistant coach with the NBA's Chicago Bulls under famed 11-time championship coach Phil Jackson, and teaching the triangle offense to Michael Jordan. He was hired to the position by Chicago general manager Jerry Krause, an old friend he had met while at K-State. As an assistant to Jackson, who took over as the Bulls' coach in 1989, Winter was an integral part of the Bulls' NBA championships in 1991, 1992, 1993, 1996, 1997, and 1998. Winter followed Jackson to the Los Angeles Lakers, where he collected four additional championship rings in 2000, 2001, 2002, and 2009.

A member of both the state of Kansas Sports Hall of Fame as well as the Kansas State Sports Hall of Fame, Winter earned perhaps his greatest accolades this past year when he was selected to both the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame (2010) and the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame (2011). He is the third person with K-State ties named to the Naismith Hall, following Jack Gardner, who was elected in 1984, and former player, Bob Boozer, who was a part of the 1960 U.S. Olympic Team elected in 2010. This was his second honor from the Naismith Hall of Fame, as he was named the 1998 winner of the John Bunn Award for lifetime achievement.

The only person to be affiliated with all four of K-State's Final Four teams, Winter, 89, is now retired and lives back in Manhattan.

Lowell "Cotton" Fitzsimmons

1968-70

Lowell "Cotton" Fitzsimmons and Tex Winter had at least three things in common. Neither used their given first name, both took over the head coaching job at Kansas State after serving as an assistant coach and both are remembered for a coaching style marked by personality and winning ways.

Fitzsimmons was a menace in the Big Eight Conference in his two years. He finished second in his initial campaign, then won the league crown in his second and final season. That second team eclipsed the 20-win mark, made a trip to the NCAA Tournament and earned Fitzsimmons Big Eight Coach of the Year honors.

Fitzsimmons was colorful, literally. He became the first coach to ever add a third color to the uniforms, when he attached a gold trim during his stay. Of a less literal, Fitzsimmons' style drew attention, too. His first team finished 14-12, but that 1968-69 squad averaged more fans (12,166 per game) than any team in the history of Ahearn Field House.

A native of Hannibal, Mo., he began his coaching career at Moberly (Mo.) Junior College, where he compiled a 224-58 record in 11 years and won national titles in 1966 and 1967. He was twice named the National Junior College Coach of the Year.

Fitzsimmons left Kansas State in 1970 to become head coach of Phoenix Suns, the first of three coaching stints with the franchise. He went on to coach 21 seasons in the NBA, compiling the 13th-most victories in the league's history with an 832-775 (.518) record with five teams - Phoenix (1970-72; 1988-92; 1996-97), Atlanta Hawks (1972-76), Buffalo Braves (1977-78), Kansas City Kings (1978-84) and San Antonio Spurs (1984-86).

The NBA Coach of the Year in 1979 (Kansas City Kings) and 1989 (Phoenix Suns), Fitzsimmons was Senior Executive Vice President for the Phoenix Suns before his passing at the age of 72 in July 2004 due to complications from lung cancer.

→ Cotton Fitzsimmons

Jack Hartman

1970-86

294-170

Shrewd, calculating and intense all describe the winningest coach in Kansas State history.

Jack Hartman endeared himself to K-Staters for a number of reasons, but none more memorable than his ability to take seemingly less talented teams and consistently come out on the winning side of the ledger.

Hartman led Kansas State to three Big Eight titles, two Big Eight Tournament championships and nine postseason appearances during his 16 seasons as coach. He saw the Wildcats register 20 or more wins seven times, including 24 wins in both 1976-77 and 1980-81. He also guided the Wildcats to the NCAA Tournament seven times, including four trips to the Elite Eight. His teams finished the season ranked among the top 20 on five occasions, including the No. 7 (UPI) and No. 9 (AP) rankings in 1972-73.

Hartman was honored as National Coach of the Year by the National Association of Basketball Coaches after a storied 1980-81 season. That year, the Wildcats led by All-American Rolando Blackman charged into the NCAA West Regional Finals on the strength of upset wins over San Francisco, No. 2 Oregon State and No. 19 Illinois. The squad was denied its first Final Four in 17 years by North Carolina.

In 23 years of coaching at the Division I level (the other seven at Southern Illinois), Hartman was 439-233. Throw in seven years of junior college coaching at Coffeyville (Kan.) Community College and you get a stellar record of 589-279.

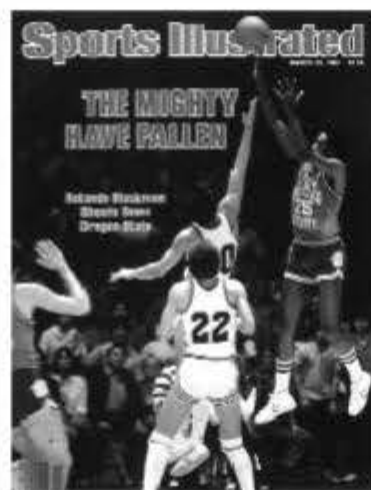

In fact, Hartman was one of the few to take a junior college team through a season undefeated, including the national title. His 1962 team accomplished that at 32-0.

Hartman coached a number of future pros. While at SIU, he tutored Walt Frazier, and at K-State, he produced players like Rolando Blackman, Mike Evans, Lon Kruger, Ed Nealy and Chuckie Williams. In all, he coached 10 All-Americans, five Big Eight Players of the year and 16 first team All-Big Eight selections. In addition, he was the head coach for the United States at the 1983 Pan American Games, and led the Americans to the gold medal.

A two-sport star while in college at Oklahoma State, Hartman actually played professionally on the gridiron. After garnering All-Missouri Valley Conference honors as OSU's quarterback, he played for Saskatchewan in the CFL. He was also an outstanding basketball player, and played for the incomparable Henry Iba.

Hartman retired from coaching after the 1985-86 season. He served as a color analyst for the Wildcat Television Network and the Big Eight television package following his retirement.

Hartman served as interim women's basketball coach during the 1995-96 season, guiding the squad to a 3-4 record. He remained active in K-State athletics until his death in November 1998.

Lon Kruger

1986-90

81-46

A two-time Big Eight Player of the Year for K-State in 1973 and 1974, Lon Kruger is remembered for many accomplishments.

At the top of that list, one will find four consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament.

Despite Kansas State's lofty reputation in NCAA Tournament play, no coach had been able to secure four straight trips to the prestigious event. Kruger changed all that by taking the Wildcats to the NCAA Tournament in each of his four years at the helm, and became the first coach in school history to win 20 games in his initial season as head coach.

His best team was the 1987-88 club, which featured All-American Mitch Richmond. That squad tied the school record for wins at 25-9 and advanced all the way to the Midwest Regional title game at Pontiac, Mich., where the Wildcats lost to eventual NCAA champion Kansas. Following that season, he was named National Association of Basketball Coaches District Coach of the Year.

With a coaching style marked by calculated precision and calm under pressure, Kruger led the Wildcats to several triumphs that will be recalled for many years to come. His upsets of some of the nation's highest-ranked teams became almost routine as his trips to the NCAA Tournament.

A native of Silver Lake, Kan., Kruger was a three-year letterman for head coach Jack Hartman from 1971-74, winning Big Eight Player of the Year accolades in both 1973 and 1974. He scored 1,063 points in his career, including a 17.6-point average his senior year.

Kruger served as an assistant to Hartman for four years from 1978 to 1981 before accepting the head coaching position at Texas-Pan American in 1982.

He spent five years at UTPA before following his mentor as head coach at Kansas State in 1986.

→ Lon Kruger with Steve Henson

Following his stint at K-State, Kruger moved onto Florida for six seasons (1990-96) where he led the Gators to the 1994 Final Four. He left Florida in 1996 to become head coach at Illinois for four years (1996-2000). After guiding the Illini to three NCAA Tournaments and a Big Ten crown, he left to take over as head coach of the NBA's Atlanta Hawks in May 2000. He compiled a 69-122 record with the Hawks from 2000-02 before being replaced on Dec. 26, 2002.

Kruger returned to the college game in March 2004 when he was named head coach at Nevada-Las Vegas (UNLV). In 2006-07, he became just the fifth coach in NCAA history to take four different schools to the NCAA Tournament when he guided the Runnin' Rebels to a 30-win season and the Sweet 16. He joins Jim Harrick as the only head coaches to lead four different schools to multiple NCAA Tournament appearances, while he is one of just three coaches to win an NCAA Tournament game with four different schools.

Kruger led UNLV to 161 wins and six postseason appearances in seven years before taking the Oklahoma job in 2010. He enters the 2011-12 season with a 479-304 (.612) overall record in 25 years to go with 13 NCAA Tournament appearances.

Dana Altman

68-54

Although his four-year tenure as head coach only produced one NCAA Tournament appearance, Dana Altman's tenure at Kansas State will be remembered most for his uncanny ability to win close ball games, and for pulling off some of the biggest upsets in school history, including top-ranked Kansas in 1994.

Altman's teams were a remarkable 28-13 in games decided by six points or less, which included a 6-1 mark in one-point games. His 1992-93 club perpetuated a K-State tradition. Picked to finish last in the Big Eight, Altman's Cardiac 'Cats won 11 games in the final minute, earned the school's first Top 25 ranking in five seasons, finished 19-11, reached the championship game of the Big Eight Tournament and returned K-State to the NCAA Tournament for the 21st time.

Altman's peers named him Big Eight Coach of the Year in 1993 and he capped the season by upsetting No. 6 Kansas 74-67 in the Big Eight Tournament semifinals.

The following season, Altman made it two in a row over Kansas when he upset the top-ranked Jayhawks 68-64 at Allen Fieldhouse. The 1993-94 squad finished the year with a 20-14 record and advanced to the NIT Final Four in New York City.

Altman left K-State in 1994 to become head coach at Creighton, where he spent 16 years building the Bluejays into one of the top mid-major programs in the country. He led the school to 327 wins, which ranks third all-time in Missouri Valley Conference history, to go with three conference regular season and six tournament titles. His teams made 13 consecutive postseason appearances (1999-2010), including seven trips to the NCAA Tournament. He left the school in April 2010 to take the head coaching job at Oregon.

Tom Asbury

1994-2000

85-88

Tom Asbury continued the rich tradition of K-State basketball, guiding the Wildcats to 85 wins from 1994 to 2000 to go with three postseason appearances, including a trip to the NCAA Tournament in 1996.

Asbury was hired after an impressive six-year stint at Pepperdine, where he guided the Waves to 125-

59 (.679) record from 1989-94 and three West Coast Conference regular-season and tournament titles. He also led the Waves to five trips to the postseason, including three NCAA Tournaments (1991, 1992 and 1994).

Known for developing tough defensive teams, Asbury guided the 'Cats to their first NCAA Tournament appearance in three seasons in just his second season at the helm, as his 1995-96 squad advanced to the East Region where they lost to No. 23 New Mexico.

He helped the team to back-to-back trips to the Postseason NIT in 1997-98 and 1998-99. His 1998-99 team led the nation in field goal percentage defense, as it held opponents to just 37.1 percent shooting from the field. That squad also posted the 19th 20-win season in school history and the first in five years.

Upon leaving K-State, Asbury entered private business before returning to bench in 2003 as an assistant coach to Mark Gottfried at Alabama. After a brief retirement, he returned to the sidelines in 2008 for his second stint at Pepperdine, guiding the Waves for two seasons before handing the reins to assistant Marty Wilson in 2010. He retires with a 226-194 (.538) record in 14 seasons.

Jim Wooldridge

2000-06

83-90

When Jim Wooldridge was hired as the 21st head coach in 2000, he brought with him the reputation as a master of building programs. After all, he spent 16 years mastering the art at places as varied as Central Missouri, Texas State and Louisiana Tech.

Hired after a two-year stint with Tim Floyd at the NBA's Chicago Bulls, Wooldridge rebuilt a program that had won just nine games the year before he arrived to double-digit wins each of his six seasons at the helm. His 83 wins ranks seventh on the school's all-time coaching wins list.

After leading the Wildcats to an 11-18 record in his inaugural season, he avoided the dreaded sophomore slump by guiding K-State to a 13-16 mark in 2001-02 that included a sparkling 6-2 ledger in Big 12 home games. Among the team's victims that season were No. 9 Oklahoma State - the Wildcats' first win over a Top 10 team since 1994 - and Sweet 16 participant Texas.

Armed with one of the youngest teams in the Big 12, Wooldridge guided the Wildcats to its first winning season in six years in 2004-05 with a 17-12 record. The team started the year with eight wins in a row, which represented the best start by a squad since the 1979-80 team also started 8-0 en route to the school's best non-league record (10-1) since 1993-94. The Wildcats went on to tally six wins over teams that advanced to the postseason. The squad had a number of near misses, as seven of their Big 12 losses came by 10 points or less, including two on last second shots and two in overtime. Despite 17 wins, including its first sweep of Missouri since 1983-84, the team did not advance to the postseason.

Wooldridge again had the Wildcats off to quick start in 2005-06, as the team won seven of its first eight games and ended non-league play with a 9-2 mark. However, his tough luck continued as the Wildcats set a school-record by losing nine games (including seven in Big 12 play) by five points or less. Two of these defeats came in overtime and two came in back-to-back one-point losses to No. 7 Texas and No. 20 Oklahoma.

Prior to his stint at K-State, Wooldridge spent 13 years at a head coach at Central Missouri, Texas State and his alma mater, Louisiana Tech. He guided Central Missouri to three consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances from 1988-91 before helping Texas State to its first trip to the "Big Dance" in 1994.

Upon leaving K-State, Wooldridge worked as the Director of Major Gifts at Texas State before returning to the coaching ranks as head coach at UC Riverside in 2007. After winning nine games in his first year, he helped the Highlanders to a 17-13 overall record in 2008-09, including an 8-8 mark in Big West play. He enters the 2011-12 season with a 362-307 (.541) in 23 seasons as a head coach.

Bob Huggins

2006-07

Although his tenure as K-State's head coach lasted just one season, coaching legend Bob Huggins left an indelible mark upon the program.

Hired as the university's 22nd head coach on March 23, 2006, Huggins came to K-State as one of the most successful coaches in the country with over 500 career wins and 15 NCAA Tournament appearances to his credit, including the 1992 Final Four.

Huggins helped guide Kansas State to its first 20-win season and first postseason appearance in eight seasons, as his Wildcats posted a 23-12 record and advanced to the second round of the Mastercard NIT. The 23 wins were the most-ever by a first-year coach in school history and the most since the 1987-88 squad tied the school record with 25 victories.

In addition, Huggins also helped the program to its greatest ever season in the Big 12 era, as the Wildcats earned their first bye in the league tournament with a fourth place finish and a 10-6 record. In the process, K-State snapped nationally-ranked Texas' 22-game home court winning streak (its only home loss of the season), swept the series from rivals Missouri (just second time since 1982), Iowa State and Colorado, and defeated Oklahoma.

Huggins earned much of his coaching reputation during his 16-year stint at Cincinnati (1989-2005), where he built the Bearcat program to among the nation's elite. The school's all-time leader in wins (399), he directed the school to 14 NCAA Tournament appearances, 10 conference regular season titles and eight league tournament titles. The team advanced to the Final Four in 1992.

One of only four active Division I coaches with 600 wins, Huggins left K-State in 2007 when he was named the head coach at his alma mater, West Virginia. He has led the Mountaineers to four consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances, including a trip to the Final Four in 2010. Just 10 short of 700 wins, he enters the 2011-12 season with a 690-252 (.732) in 29 seasons as a head coach.

As a part of its basketball celebration in 2002-03, the university named a 13-member All-Century team. The group was honored at halftime of the game with Missouri on March 1, 2003. Those attending included (front row, left to right) Ernie Barrett, Pat Hartman (wife of Jack Hartman), Tex Winter, Lon Kruger, Jim Gardner (son of Jack Gardner), (back row, left to right) Bob Boozer, Jack Parr, Chuckie Williams, Mike Evans, Rolando Blackman, Ed Nealy and Mike Henson (father of Steve Henson).

Ernie Barrett

wellington, kan.

Ernie Barrett enjoyed a storybook All-American season in 1951. The team finished second in the nation and had the honor of opening one of the most spectacular basketball arenas in America, fabled Ahearn Field House.

Barrett captained the 1950-51 club that posted a 25-4 mark and eventually lost to Kentucky in the NCAA title game. He was suffering from a shoulder injury in that NCAA game, and the Wildcats might have escaped with the championship had the long-range bomber been healthy. That's right, at a school where long-range shooters hold special significance, Barrett may have been the best. His career scoring average was 8.8, although he averaged in double digits in each of his final two seasons.

After playing professionally with the Boston Celtics, and after coaching stints at the university, Barrett served as athletics director at Kansas State from 1969-75 before returning as the Director of Development for the athletic department in 1991. He retired from that position in the spring of 2007 after nearly 60 years in service to the university as a student-athlete, coach and administrator. Blessed with a glowing personality, he will always be "Mr. K-State."

Bob Boozer

6-8 ■ 220 ■ forward
omaha, neb.

His stats have withstood the test of time. Bob Boozer simply changed the game, proving that beyond all doubt a big, strong man could play with the finesse associated with the more graceful 6-foot-2 types. As long as the game is played at Kansas State, the historian will have to keep Boozer's name on the checklist.

It was common knowledge that when K-State was in trouble, the Wildcats would clear one side and provide a double pick for a 20-foot Boozer jump shot. Even the cheerleaders were aware of the strategy, but nobody stopped it. As one rival head coach said, "I knew he would shoot, my players knew he would shoot, the good Father above knew he was going to shoot, but we couldn't do anything about it."

Boozer, who still holds many school records, helped K-State to a pair of league crowns and NCAA appearances. He was all-conference three times and was named first-team all-American in both his junior and senior seasons. He was a member of the 1960 Olympic basketball team and played 11 seasons in the NBA with Chicago, Seattle, Milwaukee, Cincinnati, New York and Los Angeles. Boozer became the second K-State basketball player/coach to enter the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 2010 when he was enshrined with the record-setting 1960 U.S. Olympic squad. He was a charter member of the K-State Sports Hall of Fame in 1990.

Rolando Blackman

brooklyn, n.y.

One of just two players to earn first team All-America honors in consecutive seasons, Rolando Blackman lettered four years for coach Jack Hartman from 1977-81. He guided the squad to an 80-41 (.661) record, including a pair of postseason appearances and the 1980 Big Eight tournament title.

A native of Brooklyn, N.Y., Blackman is one of just three players (joining fellow jersey retirees Mike Evans and Lon Kruger) in K-State history to be named Big Eight Conference Player of the Year (1980). He is also just one of three players to earn first team all-conference honors three times (joining Bob Boozer and Mike Evans) in the program's history. In addition, Blackman was named the Big Eight Conference Defensive Player of the Year on three occasions (1978, 1979, 1980).

The school's second all-time leading scorer with 1,844 points, Blackman was selected as a first team All-American as a senior in 1981 when he was named to the Helms Foundation, The Sporting News, Converse Yearbook and John R. Wooden Award All-American squads. He was also chosen as a first team All-American by the Helms Foundation and The Sporting News as a junior.

Blackman still ranks among the top 10 in 13 season and/or career statistical categories in school history, including tops in career double-digit scoring (100) and second in career field goals made (755). He also ranks in the career top 5 in games started (116, 3rd), games played (121; 4th), assists (314; 4th) and free throws attempted (466; 5th). For his career, he averaged 15.2 points on 51.7 percent shooting with 5.0 rebounds and 2.6 assists in 121 career games.

One of six Wildcats to be selected in the first round of the NBA draft, Blackman was originally drafted by the Dallas Mavericks with the ninth overall selection in 1981. He went on to play 13 seasons in the NBA — 11 with the Mavericks and two with the New York Knicks. The four-time NBA All-Star played with Dallas from 1981-92 and ranks second on the team's all-time scoring list with 16,643 points. Blackman still appears in the top 10 in 18 different statistical categories in franchise history. Among Maverick leaders, he is second behind Dirk Nowitzki in field goals (6,487), field goal attempts (13,061) and starts (781). He owns many franchise regular season, playoff and rookie records, including consecutive games without fouling out (865). Blackman had his number 22 retired on March 11, 2000.

Blackman spent 11 seasons with the Mavericks' organization, including five as the team's director of basketball development, before resigning to become an assistant coach with Turkey's National Team. He spent the 2005-06 season as an assistant coach to NBA Coach of the Year Avery Johnson and helped the Mavericks to their first NBA Finals, where they lost in six games to the Miami Heat, and a franchise-best 60 wins. As an assistant with the Turkish National Team, Blackman helped them earn a silver medal at the 2010 FIBA World Championships. The squad won eight contests, including a victory over two-time FIBA World Champion Serbia, before falling to Team USA, 81-64, in the championship game.

Mike Evans

goldsboro, n.c.

The school's all-time leading scorer with 2,115 points, Mike Evans was a four-year letterman for coach Jack Hartman from 1974-78. He guided the Wildcats to an 82-35 (.700) record, including three postseason appearances and the 1977 Big Eight regular season and tournament titles.

A native of Goldsboro, N.C., Evans is one of just two players (joining fellow jersey retiree Lon Kruger) in Kansas State history to be named Big Eight Conference Player of the Year (1977, 1978) twice and one of just three players in school history to receive the honor. He is also just one of three players to earn first team all-conference honors three times (joining Rolando Blackman and Bob Boozer) in the program's history. In addition, Evans was named the Big Eight Newcomer of the Year as a freshman in 1975.

The Big Eight's eighth all-time leading scorer, Evans was named to several All-America teams as a senior, including The Associated Press' third team and the Helms Foundation.

Evans still ranks among the top 10 in 17 single-game, season and/or career statistical categories in school history, including tops in career scoring, career field goals made (890) and career field goals attempted (1,810) and second in career double-digit scoring games (93) and career 20-point games (40). For his career, he averaged 18.1 points on 49.2 percent shooting with 3.4 rebounds in 117 games.

One of six Wildcats to be selected in the first round of the NBA draft, Evans was selected 21st by the Denver Nuggets in 1978. He went on to play nine seasons in the NBA, including stints with San Antonio (1978-80), Milwaukee (1980-82), Cleveland (1981-82) and Denver (1982-89). A key player on two Midwest Division Championship teams with the Nuggets, Evans remains among the top five on both the club's career 3-point field goals made and attempted lists and played on eight playoff teams. In his career, he averaged 7.7 points on 45.2 percent shooting and 2.6 assists.

After playing six seasons, Evans joined the Denver coaching staff in 1990-91 and remained on the sidelines until midway through the 1994-95 season when he was promoted to Director of Player Personnel. In addition to his scouting duties, he served as an analyst for the team's television broadcasts through 1996-97. Evans took over as interim head coach of the Nuggets on Dec. 26, 2001 and coached the team for the final 56 games of the 2001-02 season, compiling a 18-38 record.

Steve Henson

6-1 ■ 180 ■ guard
mcperson, kan.

Steve Henson was one of a handful of players who embodied the very spirit of K-State basketball. A tenacious competitor, he was once called "K-State's stick of dynamite." Yet, in the midst of all that, he was a brilliant student of the game.

The only K-State player to lead the team to four consecutive NCAA Tournaments, he broke 21 school records and etched his name among the top 10 in 41 statistical categories. He still owns school career marks for assists (582), assists per game (4.58), free throw percentage (.900), minutes (4,474), minutes played (35.2), starts (118), consecutive games played (127) and consecutive starts (118). He also ranks in the Top 5 in seven other categories, including second in 3-point field goals made (240), 3-point field goals attempted (537), free throws made (361) and assist-turnover ratio (1.98).

One of only 12 players with 80 or more wins in a career, Henson is remembered for shooting free throws like a machine (once making a school-record 48 in a row). He not only holds the career mark for free throw percentage at 90 percent (361-of-401), he owns three of the four single-season records, including connecting on a school-record (nation-leading) 92.5 percent (111-of-120) in 1987-88. Henson also holds the single-game mark by making all 17 attempts against Iowa State on Feb. 24, 1988.

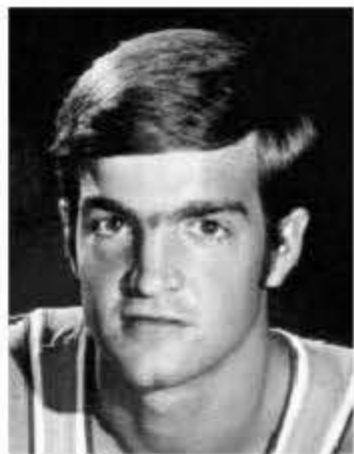

Just the second player in school history to capture the coveted Porky Morgan Most Inspirational Player Award three times, Henson was twice named to the All-Big Eight team, including earning first team honors as a junior in 1988-89. Following his graduation, he was taken in the second round of the NBA draft by the Milwaukee Bucks. He spent six years in the NBA, playing for the Bucks (1990-92), Atlanta Hawks (1992-93), Portland Trailblazers (1994-95) and Detroit Pistons (1997-99).

Following his stint in the NBA, Henson began his coaching career as an assistant to his mentor, Lon Kruger, at Illinois in 1999. He followed Kruger to the NBA's Atlanta Hawks, as first an assistant coach then as an advance scout, from 2000-03. After a one-year stint at South Florida, he was reunited with Kruger at UNLV in 2004. He served seven years as an assistant with the Runnin' Rebels before again following Kruger to Oklahoma as an assistant coach in 2011.

Lon Kruger5-11 ■ 165 ■ guard
silver lake, kan.

One of only two K-State cagers ever to be named the Big Eight Player of the Year twice, Lon Kruger lettered three years for Jack Hartman from 1971-74. He guided the Wildcats to a 61-22 (.735) record, including a pair of NCAA Elite Eight appearances and two Big Eight regular season titles.

A native of Silver Lake, Kan., Kruger became the first Wildcat ever to be named conference player of the year when he earned the honor in 1973 and the first to earn the award twice when he repeated the distinction in 1974. He remains one of just three players in school history to ever receive the honor and one of just two (joining fellow retiree Mike Evans) to earn the accolade twice. He was also named first team All-Big Eight in 1973 and 1974 and also the conference's Newcomer of the Year in 1972.

Kruger earned Academic All-America and first team Academic All-Big Eight honors in both 1973 and 1974. He is one of only three Wildcat players to earn Academic All-America accolades twice in a career. One of just 20 players in school history to score 1,000 career points, he averaged 13.3 points on 46.8 percent shooting with 2.6 rebounds in 80 career games.

Following graduation, Kruger was drafted by both the NBA's Atlanta Hawks and Major League Baseball's St. Louis Cardinals. He played pro basketball in Israel from 1974 to 1975.

Kruger moved into the coaching ranks at Pittsburg (Kan.) State in 1976 before becoming an assistant coach at his alma mater under Hartman in 1977. He helped the Wildcats to a 103-49 (.678) record from 1977-82, including three NCAA Tournament appearances and the 1980 Big Eight Tournament Championship. He left to become head coach and athletics director at Texas-Pan American in 1982, guiding the Broncs to a 52-59 record from 1982-86.

Following the retirement of Hartman, Kruger was named head coach at K-State in the spring of 1986. In leading the Wildcats to an 81-46 (.638) record, he became the first head coach in school history to guide four consecutive teams to the NCAA Tournament. His regular season conference winning percentage (34-22; .607) ranks fifth all-time among Big Eight Conference coaches, while his victory total ranks sixth among coaches in Kansas State history.

Kruger became the first coach in K-State history to win 20 games in his initial season, guiding the Wildcats to a 20-11 record and the second round of the NCAA Tournament. His best team was the 1987-88 club, which featured first team All-American Mitch Richmond. The squad tied the school record for wins with its 25-9 mark and advanced all the way to the NCAA Midwest Regional title game in Pontiac, Mich. Following that season, he was named the NABC District Coach of the Year.

During his tenure, Kruger coached one All-American, four first team All-Big Eight selections, two Big Eight Newcomers of the Year and three first team Academic All-Big Eight honorees.

Following his head coaching stint in Manhattan, Kruger moved on to Florida for six seasons (1990-96) where he led the Gators to four postseason appearances, including the 1994 Final Four. He followed with a four-year stint at Illinois (1996-2000), guiding the Fighting Illini to three NCAA Tournament appearances and the 1997-98 Big Ten co-championship.

Kruger left Illinois in May 2000 to take over as head coach of the NBA's Atlanta Hawks, where he compiled a 69-122 record in two and half years. After a stint as an assistant with the New York Knicks, he returned to the college game in March 2004 when he was named head coach at Nevada-Las Vegas.

During his seven-year stint with the Runnin' Rebels, Kruger posted 161 wins and six postseason trips. In 2006-07, he became just the fifth coach in NCAA history to take four schools to the NCAA Tournament when he guided the squad to the Sweet 16. He joins Jim Harrick as the only head coaches to lead four different schools to multiple NCAA Tournament appearances, while he is one of just three coaches to win a tournament game with four schools. He became coach at Oklahoma in the off-season and enters the 2011-12 season with a 479-304 (.612) record in 25 years to go with 13 trips to the NCAA Tournament.

Ed Nealy6-7 ■ 230 ■ forward bonner springs, kan.

Ed Nealy was the workhorse frontliner who every basketball coach dreams about, but with an added degree of basketball savvy. While he was at K-State, the Wildcats rarely lost the rebounding wars. In fact, they rarely lost - period. In his four-year career for coach Jack Hartman, K-State totaled 85 wins, which ties him with teammate Tyrone Adams as the third-most by a player in school history.

In addition, Nealy led the Wildcats to three NCAA Tournament appearances, including a trip to the West Region Finals in 1981, and the 1980 Big Eight Conference Tournament championship.

Much of that success was due directly to the efforts of Nealy, who finished his K-State career with 1,069 rebounds - tops in school history. He stands as the third all-time career rebounder in Big Eight history and the second all-time career rebounder in Big Eight Tournament history (93). Nealy is 10th on the Wildcats' career scoring list with 1,304 points. In fact, he is the only player in school history to total 1,000 points and 1,000 rebounds in a career. He ranks first in career double-digit rebounding games (45) and second in career double-doubles (36), while he is the only player to lead the team in rebounding four consecutive seasons.

Those numbers also paid off in postseason laurels. Following a stellar senior campaign, Nealy capped off two previous all-conference selections by earning a spot on The Associated Press All-America honorable mention squad in 1982. He was named the conference's Newcomer of the Year in 1979.

Nealy's successes were hardly limited to the basketball court, though. He was twice named an Academic All-American in 1981 and 1982, along with teammate Tim Jankovich, while he was selected to the Big Eight's All-Academic team three times, all while majoring in engineering technology.

Nealy played 10 seasons in the NBA, including stints with the Kansas City (1982-85), San Antonio (1986-88), Chicago (1988-89; 1989-90; 1992-93), Phoenix (1988-89; 1990-92) and Golden State (1992-93). He was a member of the Chicago Bulls' NBA Championship teams in 1991 and 1993. He scored 1,451 points in his NBA career on 49.8 percent shooting with 1,799 rebounds.

Jack Parr6-9 ■ 212 ■ center
richmond, va.

Jack Parr was not what you would call a picture player early in his career, but he was endowed with an intensity and inner drive that spearheaded him to All-America stature. Rugged and strong, he would literally sweep the boards. Parr's assortment of shots included a hook and a soft "face the basket" jumper.

A three-year letterman for head coach Tex Winter, Parr helped the Wildcats to a 54-21 overall record from 1955-58 to go with two Big Seven Conference championships and a pair of trips to the NCAA Tournament. In his final year, the squad posted a 22-5 record and advanced to the school's second Final Four in Louisville, Ky. The Wildcats finished in the top 5 in both polls.

His most thrilling game came against Kansas in 1958 when Parr made perhaps his greatest defensive play. With the final seconds ticking away, the Jayhawks went to Wilt Chamberlain under the basket for an assumed easy lay-in. Parr went straight up and batted the ball away, enabling K-State to take a thrilling 79-75 win.

Parr was twice named an All-American in his distinguished career, earning second team honors from the Helms Foundation and Converse Yearbook as a junior in 1957 and third team accolades as a senior in 1958 by the National Association of Basketball Coaches. He was also an All-Big Seven Conference selection three straight seasons from 1956 to 1958.

Parr still ranks among the top-10 in several Kansas State school records, including first in both career (12.7 rpg.) and single-season rebounds per game (14.5 rpg.). He ranks second in career (889) and single-season rebounds (340), while his 26 rebounds against Drake on Dec. 8, 1956 still place second all-time on the single-game chart. In addition, Parr ranks 10th among the all-time scoring leaders with 1,184 points.

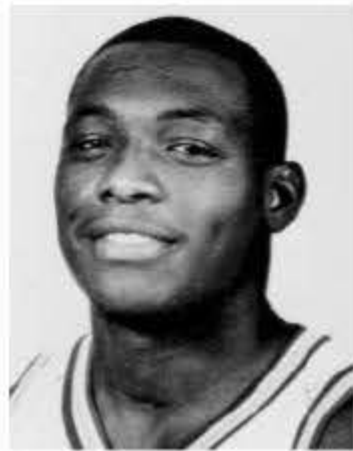

Parr played one season professionally with the Cincinnati Royals before turning to private business and becoming a Big Eight basketball official. He was elected to the Kansas State Sports Hall of Fame on September 3, 2004, while he was in the first class (along with Ernie Barrett and teammate Bob Boozer) to have his jersey retired by K-State on Feb. 5, 2005.

Mitch Richmond

fort lauderdale, fla.

One of the most recognizable players in school history, Mitch Richmond was a two-year letterman for head coach Lon Kruger from 1986-88. He helped guide the Wildcats to a 45-20 (.692) record, including two NCAA Tournament appearances and a trip to the 1988 NCAA Midwest Regional Final. He also transferred to K-State after a distinguished junior college career at Mobley (Mo.) Community College from 1984-86.

The 6-foot-5 native of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Richmond posted perhaps the greatest two-year playing career in school history.

He is one of just 20 players in school history to top 1,000 points, while he ranks ninth on the all-time scoring list with 1,327 points and fourth in career scoring average (20.7 ppg.). His 1,327 points are the most by a player in a two-year career. He still ranks among the top 10 in 21 single-game, season and/or career statistical categories in school history.

He was a member of Kansas State's All-Century Basketball Team announced on March 1, 2003 and was a 1998 inductee into the K-State Sports Hall of Fame. His jersey was retired in 2009.

As a senior, Richmond led the Wildcats to a school-record tying 25 wins, a second-place finish in the Big Eight and a rousing trip through the NCAA Tournament that led K-State to an appearance in the Elite Eight. He broke the then single-season scoring mark by pouring in 786 points. Fellow All-American Michael Beasley broke the record in 2007-08 with 866 points. He averaged 22.6 points on 51.4 percent shooting in 1987-88 with 6.3 rebounds and 3.7 assists en route to earning second team All-America honors from UPI, Basketball Weekly, The Sporting News and U.S. Basketball Writers of America (USBWA). He was also named first team All-Big Eight and first team All-District by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC).

A highly-regarded junior college player, Richmond was the second-leading scorer for Kansas State in 1986-87, guiding the Wildcats to their first 20-win season and NCAA Tournament appearance in five years. He averaged 18.6 points on 44.7 percent shooting with 5.7 rebounds and 2.7 assists en route to earning recognition to both UPI's All-Junior College team and the All-Big Eight second team.

In all, Richmond still ranks in the top 10 in seven career categories, including third in 20-point games (34), fifth in 30-point games (seven), sixth in minutes played (33.8 mpg.) and field goals made (465) and ninth in double-digit scoring (63). He scored a career-high 41 points against Oklahoma on Feb. 13, 1988, which stands as the seventh-most points, including the fourth-highest in a league game.

Following graduation, Richmond won a spot on the 1988 U.S. Olympic Basketball Team and was a first-round draft pick (fifth overall selection) by the Golden State Warriors. He became one of the premier shooting guards in the NBA, appearing in six NBA All-Star games, and being named the most valuable player of the 1995 NBA All-Star game. He also earned second team All-NBA honors in 1994, 1995 and 1997 and third team honors in 1996 and 1998 with the Sacramento Kings.

Richmond is one of just six players in NBA history to average 21.0 or more points in each of his first 10 professional seasons (others — Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, Allen Iverson, Michael Jordan, Shaquille O'Neal and Oscar Robertson). He was named the NBA's Rookie of the Year in 1989 after averaging 22.0 points per game. After three seasons with Golden State, he spent six years with Sacramento (1991-98) before being traded to Washington (1998-2001) following the 1998 season. He retired following his 14th season in the NBA after helping the Lakers win their third straight NBA title in 2002.

One of the school's most potent long-range shooters, Chuckie Williams was a four-year letterman for coach Jack Hartman from 1972-76. He helped lead the Wildcats to an 82-30 (.732) overall record, including two NCAA Elite Eight appearances and the 1973 Big Eight regular season titles.

After averaging just 5.3 points as a sophomore, Williams made one of the biggest scoring jumps in school history the following season as he paced the Wildcats in scoring at 22.1 points per game en route to guiding K-State to the 1975 Elite Eight. He was named first team All-Big Eight and a Helms Foundation All-American. The following year, he guided the squad to its second straight 20-win season en route to earning second team All-America honors from The Sporting News, Converse Yearbook and Basketball Weekly. He also repeated his first team All-Big Eight honors as well as Helms All-America accolade.

A native of Columbus, Ohio, Williams still ranks among the top 10 in 24 single-game, season and/or career statistical categories in school history, including tops in field goals made in a game (22), field goals attempted in a game (42), season field goals made (290) and season field goal attempts (594). He is the school's eighth all-time leading scorer with 1,364 points.

Williams held the school single-game scoring mark for 19 years with 47 points against Holy Cross in 1975 before Askia Jones broke the mark with 62 against Fresno State on March 24, 1994. He also shares the mark for most points in an NCAA Tournament game with 35 against Syracuse in 1975. For his career, Williams averaged 16.2 points on 47.0 percent shooting with 2.7 rebounds in 84 games.

Williams became just the second player in school history to be selected in the first round of the NBA Draft when he was picked 15th by the Cleveland Cavaliers in 1976.

Kansas State began the process of retiring player jerseys in 2005 with its inaugural class of Ernie Barrett, Bob Boozer and Jack Parr. Although the jersey is retired, the player's number is still available for use by future players. Below are the biographies of the 10 jersey retirees.

Ernie Barrett

6-3 ■ 175 ■ guard
wellington, kan.

Retired 2005

Affectionately known as "Mr. K-State," Ernie Barrett enjoyed a storybook senior season in 1950-51, as he led the Wildcats to the NCAA Championship game, earned first team All-America honors from Helm's, The Sporting News and International News Service and played on the team that opened historic Ahearn Field House.

A 6-foot-3 shooting guard from Wellington, Kan., Barrett was the driving force behind K-State's only team to reach the NCAA title game. He led the Wildcats to the 1951 Big Seven title with an 11-1 conference mark and a 25-4 overall mark. On their way to the NCAA Championship game, Barrett and his teammates defeated No. 12 Arizona, No. 11 BYU and No. 24 Oklahoma A&M (State). He averaged 10.0 and 10.3 points per game as a junior and senior, respectively.

After a two-year playing career for Red Auerbach and the Boston Celtics, Barrett returned to K-State as an assistant basketball coach, beginning a long association with the athletics department, which included a term as athletics director from 1969-75. He retired from his position of the Director of Development in the spring of 2007 after nearly 60 years in service to the university as a student-athlete, coach and administrator.

Dick Knostman

6-6 ■ 205 ■ center
wellington, kan.

Retired 2007

Twice selected an All-American, Dick Knostman was a three-year letterman for head coach Jack Gardner from 1950-53. He helped guide the Wildcats to a 61-13 (.824) record, including three consecutive final top-10 finishes and runner-up finish at the 1951 NCAA Final Four.

The 6-foot-6 native of Wamego, Kan., Knostman is one of just 12 players in Kansas State history to be named a first team All-American. He earned his recognition from the Helm's Foundation, Look magazine and the Newspaper Enterprises Association as a senior in 1953 after averaging 22.7 points in helping the 'Cats to a 17-4 overall record and a final ranking of No. 9 in the UPI and No. 12 in the AP polls. He first earned All-America accolades as a junior when he averaged 16.3 points in guiding K-State to a final ranking of No. 3 in the AP and No. 6 in UPI polls. He still ranks among the top 5 in 17 school single-game, season and/or career statistical categories.

Knostman became the second Kansas State player ever drafted in 1953 when he was selected by the Syracuse Nationals with their second pick.

Jack Parr

6-9 ■ 212 ■ center
richmond, va.

Retired 2005

Known for his hook shot and a soft "face the basket" jumper, Jack Parr was a three-year letterman for the Wildcats from 1955-58 for head coach Tex Winter. He helped guide the squad to a pair of conference titles and two NCAA Tournament appearances, including the 1958 Final Four.

A member of the 10-player All-Century Team, Parr still holds the top-2 single-season rebounding averages in school history, while his 12.7 career average is the highest all-time by a Wildcat. The 6-foot-9 center burst onto the scene in 1955-56 by averaging 17.4 points and 13.6 rebounds per game to help K-State win the Big Seven title and reach the "Sweet 16" of the NCAA Tournament. As a junior, he dominated the Big Eight with 20.6 points and his school-record 14.5 rebounds to earn All-America honors for the second time and help the Wildcats to the Final Four. He was named all-conference all three years and finished his career with averages of 16.9 points and 12.7 rebounds.

Parr played one season professionally with the Cincinnati Royals before turning to private business and becoming a Big Eight official.

Bob Boozer

6-8 ■ 220 ■ forward
omaha, neb.

Retired 2005

Considered to be Kansas State's most decorated player, Bob Boozer was the landslide leading vote-getter for the school's All-Century Basketball Team in 2003. A first team All-American in both 1957-58 and 1958-59, he averaged 21.9 points per game for his career. He also averaged a double-double for his career with 10.7 rebounds.

A 6-foot-8 forward from Omaha, Neb., Boozer averaged a then school-record 25.6 points per game as a senior in 1958-59 en route to becoming Kansas State's first consensus first team All-American. The mark stood for nearly 50 years until Michael Beasley, who also wore No. 30 on his jersey, averaged 26.2 points in 2007-08. Boozer remains the only player in school history to be a two-time consensus first team All-American, as he earned the honor as a junior in 1958. He guided the Wildcats to the Big Eight regular season title with a perfect 14-0 record en route to a No. 1 ranking in the final regular season poll of 1959.

Boozer still ranks among numerous top-10 lists for single-game, single-season and career records, including first in career 20-point games (45), second in career scoring average (21.9 ppg.), career 30-point games (10) and fourth in career points scored (1,685) and rebounds (824). He still own the all-time marks for free throws made (529) and attempts (702), while his 23 makes (on 26 attempts) against Purdue on Dec. 1, 1958 remains No. 1 on the chart for most free throws made in a game.

Boozer teamed with Oscar Robertson, Jerry West and Jerry Lucas to lead the 1960 U.S. Olympic team to the gold medal, a team that was enshrined into the Olympic Hall of Fame. He played 11 seasons in the NBA and helped the Milwaukee Bucks to the 1971 NBA title.

Willie Murrell

6-6 ■ 190 ■ guard
taft, okla.

Retired 2009

One of just 11 players to earn first team All-America honors, Willie Murrell was a two-year letterman for head coach Tex Winter from 1962-64. He guided the Wildcats to a 38-16 record, including a pair of Big Eight titles and a Final Four appearance in 1964. He transferred to K-State after a two-year career at Eastern Oklahoma A&M (1960-62).

Murrell is one of just six players in school history to average a double-double for his career, averaging 20.6 points and 10.7 rebounds in 54 career games. He was twice named an All-American during his record-setting senior season in 1964 and was also a two-time first team All-Big Eight selection. His career averages in both scoring and rebounding still rank among the top-5 in school history, including third in rebounding (10.7 rpg.) and fifth in scoring (20.6 ppg.).

Murrell averaged 25.3 points during the Wildcats' run through the 1964 NCAA Tournament, including a 29-point, 13-rebound effort in the national semifinals against UCLA on March 20, en route to earning recognition to the All-Midwest Regional Tournament team and the All-Final Four squad. He is the only player to ever record a double-double in a Final Four game and the only one ever named to an All-Final Four team. His 29 points against the Bruins are the most in a Final Four game in school history.

Murrell still ranks among the top 10 in 20 single-game, season and/or career statistical categories in school history. He is one of just five players to average 20 points in a career while he is one of just eight players to score 1,000 points and collect 500 rebounds in a career. He ranks 13th on the all-time scoring list with 1,112 points and fifth in career scoring average (20.6 ppg.).

Murrell was selected in the fourth round of the 1964 NBA Draft by the St. Louis Bombers. He went on to play three seasons of professional basketball, including stints with the ABA's Denver Nuggets (1967-68) and Miami Floridians (1968-70).

Lon Kruger

5-11 • 165 • guard
silver lake, kan.

Retired 2006

One of only two K-State players ever to be named the Big Eight Player of the Year twice, Lon Kruger was a three-year letterman for coach Jack Hartman from 1971-74, where he helped the Wildcats to a pair of NCAA Elite Eight appearances and two Big Eight regular season titles.

A native of Silver Lake, Kan., Kruger became the first Wildcat ever to be named conference player of the year when he earned the honor in 1973 and the first to earn the award twice when he repeated the distinction in 1974. He was named first team All-Big Eight in both 1973 and 1974 and also the league's Newcomer of the Year in 1972.

Kruger earned Academic All-America and first team Academic All-Big Eight honors as a junior and senior and remains as one of only three players to have earned Academic All-America accolades twice.

One of just 18 players in school history to score 1,000 career points, Kruger averaged 13.3 points on 46.8 percent shooting with 2.6 rebounds. He was drafted by both the NBA's Atlanta Hawks and MLB's St. Louis Cardinals before playing professional basketball in Israel. He has gone on to a distinguished coaching career, which has included over 450 wins in 24 years as a head coach. He led K-State to 81 wins and four consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances from 1986-90.

Chuckie Williams

6-3 • 185 • guard
columbus, ohio

Retired 2006

One of the school's most potent long-range shooters, Chuckie Williams was a four-year letterman for coach Jack Hartman from 1972-76, where he helped the 'Cats to two NCAA Elite Eight appearances and the 1973 Big Eight regular season championship.

Williams burst onto the scene as a junior as he paced the Wildcats with 22.1 points per game en route to the 1975 Elite Eight. He was named first team All-Big Eight and a Helms Foundation All-American. As a senior, he earned second team All-America honors from The Sporting News, Converse Yearbook and Basketball Weekly, while repeating first team All-Big Eight as well as Helms All-America honors.

A native of Columbus, Ohio, Williams still ranks among the top 10 in 24 single-game, season and/or career statistical categories in school history. The school's eighth all-time leading scorer with 1,364 points, he averaged 16.2 points on 47.0 percent shooting for his career. He held the school single-game scoring mark of 47 points for 19 years and shares the mark (with Steve Henson) for most in an NCAA Tournament with 35 points.

Mike Evans

6-1 • 165 • guard
goldsboro, n.c.

Retired 2006

The school's all-time leading scorer with 2,115 points, Mike Evans was a four-year letterman for head coach Jack Hartman from 1974-78. He guided the Wildcats to an 82-35 overall record, including three postseason appearances and the 1977 Big Eight regular season and tournament titles.

A native of Goldsboro, N.C., Evans is one of just two players in Kansas State history to be named Big Eight Player of the Year (1977, 1978) twice and one of just three players to receive the honor. He is also one of three players to earn first team all-league honors three times. He was named to several All-America teams as a senior, including The Associated Press third team and the Helms Foundation in 1978.

Evans still ranks among the top 10 in 17 single-game, season and/or career statistical categories in school history, including tops in career scoring, career field goals made (890) and career field goals attempted (1,810) and second in career double-digit scoring games (93) and career 20-point games

(40). For his career, he averaged 18.1 points on 49.2 percent shooting with 3.4 rebounds.

One of six Wildcats to be selected in the first round of the NBA draft, Evans was selected 21st by the Denver Nuggets in 1978. He went on to play nine seasons in the NBA before retiring in 1989. A key player on two Midwest Division Championship teams with the Nuggets, Evans remains among the top five on both the club's career 3-point field goals made and attempted lists and played on eight playoff teams. In his career, he averaged 7.7 points on 45.2 percent shooting and 2.6 assists.

Rolando Blackman

brooklyn, n.y.

One of just two players to earn first team All-America honors in consecutive seasons, Rolando Blackman was a four-year letterman for coach Jack Hartman from 1977-81. He guided the Wildcats to an 80-41 record, including two postseason appearances and the 1980 Big Eight Tournament title.

A native of Brooklyn, N.Y., Blackman is one of just three players in Kansas State history to be named Big Eight Conference Player of the Year (1980). He is also just one of three players to earn first team all-conference honors three times in the program's history. In addition, he was named the Big Eight Defensive Player of the Year on three occasions (1978, 1979, 1980).

The school's second all-time leading scorer with 1,844 points, Blackman was the last Wildcat to be selected as a first team All-American when he was named to the Helms Foundation, The Sporting News, Converse Yearbook and John R. Wooden Award All-American squads as a senior in 1981.

One of five players selected in the first round of the NBA Draft, Blackman played 13 seasons in the league. His number 22 jersey was retired by Dallas in 2000.

Mitch Richmond

6-5 • 220 • forward
fort lauderdale, fla.

One of the most recognizable players in school history, Mitch Richmond was a two-year letterman for head coach Lon Kruger from 1986-88. He helped guide the Wildcats to a 45-20 overall record, including two NCAA Tournament appearances and a trip to the 1988 NCAA Midwest Regional Final.

The 6-foot-5 native of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Richmond assembled perhaps the greatest two-year playing career in school history. He is one of just 20 players in school history to top 1,000 points, while he ranks eighth on the all-time scoring list with 1,327 points and fourth in career scoring average (20.7 ppg.). His 1,327 points are the most by a player in a two-year career. He still ranks among the top 10 in 21 single-game, season and/or career statistical categories in school history.

He was a member of K-State's All-Century Basketball Team announced on March 1, 2003 and was a 1998 inductee into the K-State Sports Hall of Fame.

As a senior, Richmond led the Wildcats to a school-record tying 25 wins, a second-place finish in the Big Eight and a rousing trip through the NCAA Tournament that led K-State to an appearance in the Elite Eight. He broke the then single-season scoring mark by pouring in 786 points. He averaged 22.6 points on 51.4 percent shooting in 1987-88 with 6.3 rebounds and 3.7 assists en route to earning second team All-America honors from UPI, Basketball Weekly, The Sporting News and U.S. Basketball Writers of America (USBWA).

In all, Richmond still ranks in the top 10 in seven career categories, including third in 20-point games (34), fifth in 30-point games (seven), sixth in minutes played (33.8 mpg.) and field goals made (465) and ninth in double-digit scoring (63). He scored a career-high 41 points against Oklahoma on Feb. 13, 1988, which stands as the seventh-most points, including the fourth-highest in a league game.

Following graduation, Richmond won a spot on the 1988 U.S. Olympic Basketball Team and was a first-round draft pick (fifth overall selection) by the Golden State Warriors. He became one of the premier shooting guards in the NBA, appearing in six NBA All-Star games, and being named the most valuable player of the 1995 NBA All-Star game. He also earned second team All-NBA honors in 1994, 1995 and 1997 and third team honors in 1996 and 1998 with the Sacramento Kings.

Bramlage Coliseum

Record vs. Opponents (275-92; .749)

Now in its 24th season of hosting Wildcat basketball, the Fred Bramlage Coliseum has carved its own niche in Kansas State's colorful history of basketball residence.

In keeping with the tradition established by Nichols Gymnasium (1910-50) and Ahearn Field House (1950-88), Bramlage Coliseum has given the team a deafening, winning environment.

Kansas State has posted a 275-92 (.749) all-time mark in its current home, including an emotional 81-77 win over Purdue (and alumnus Gene Keady) in the facility's debut on Nov. 26, 1988. The 275 victories are the second-most at a home venue for the Wildcats, trailing just the 379 wins during the 38-year reign of Ahearn Field House.

K-State tallied its highest winning percentage (16-1; .941) in Bramlage Coliseum history in 2010-11, while the Wildcats tied the 2008-09 squad for the most wins in a single season (16). The team has collected a 74-12 (.860) record at home over the past five seasons, including a 30-10 (.750) mark in Big 12 play. The 74 wins rank fifth among all Big 12 schools in that span, while the 30 conference victories are only surpassed by Kansas and Texas. In all, the program has earned double-digit victories in 18 of its 23 seasons in the arena, including a current streak of 10 consecutive seasons. The squad has an 134-35 record at home, including a 82-7 mark in non-conference action, since the 2001-02 season for an average of just over 13 home wins (13.4) per season.

Victories over ranked teams have also been a staple at Bramlage Coliseum since its opening with 21 ranked foes falling to Kansas State, including 10 top-10 opponents. Among the top-10 teams to fall on the Bramlage hardwood include No. 7 Missouri in 1988-89, No. 1 Missouri and No. 3 Oklahoma before on ESPN audiences in 1989-90, No. 6 Missouri in 1991-92, No. 9 Oklahoma State in 2001-02, No. 10 Texas also on on ESPN in 2003-04, No. 2 Kansas and No. 10 Texas A&M in 2007-08, No. 1 Texas in 2009-10 and No. 1 Kansas in 2010-11. Just four years ago in 2007-08, the Wildcats became just the second team in school history to record two top-10 home wins, including the first in the building over archrival and eventual NCAA champion Kansas.

In just 23 seasons, Bramlage Coliseum has played host to some of the biggest crowds in the history of K-State basketball, a program that is accustomed to playing in front of big crowds.

In 2010-11, the Wildcats ranked among the Top 35 in attendance for the fourth time in five seasons, attracting 12,652 fans per game to 18 home games to rank 26th nationally and third in the Big 12. It was K-State's highest ranking since placing 25th (12,529) in 2007-08, while the Wildcats were 26th (12,301) in 2006-07 and 31st (11,884) in 2009-10. The 12,652 average in 2010-11 ranks second in school history behind the 12,978 average in 1988-89. Three of the school's top-5 attendance averages have come in the last five years. Overall, K-State drew a total of 227,738 fans to Bramlage Coliseum in 2010-11, which marked the fourth time in five seasons that the school has drawn 200,000 or more fans at home.

The 227,738 attendance total (which included the 18,422 who Dec. 21 game with UNLV at the Sprint Center in Kansas City) is the best in school history, surpassing the previous high of 212,987 in 2007-08. The team recorded sellouts in 15 of 17 games held at Bramlage Coliseum, including all eight Big 12 contests. The 15 sellouts ranked second in the Big 12 behind Kansas (18).

While carrying on the tradition of Ahearn Field House, Bramlage Coliseum has also pointed K-State in a new direction, as the Wildcats now play in one of the most modern facilities in the nation. A multi-million dollar renovation greeted fans in 2007-08, as the department offered premium luxury seating for the first time ever with the addition of loge boxes to the arena. The 4, 6 and 8-seat luxury suite configurations are appointed with granite countertops, cherry wood cabinetry for food and drink storage, refrigerator, carpet, comfortable seating and one television monitor for every two seats in the box. In 2006-07, the department added 25 courtside seats to the east side of the court and that number increased to 29 in 2007-08. The renovations reduced capacity to 12,528.

Bramlage Coliseum is at the cornerstone of an impending facility campaign that will include a new practice facility, new lockerrooms and coaching offices for the men's and women's basketball teams and weight training and sports medicine areas.

The first major renovation of the arena occurred prior to the 2000-01 season, as $2.5 million (in cooperation with Action Sports Media of Portland, Ore.) in improvements were made to both the seating area and concourse to make the building more fan-friendly. Inside the arena, fans now enjoy a four-sided scoreboard above the floor, complete with video panels on all four sides, as well as a new sound system and three-sided shot clocks and matrix boards. Fans are welcomed by four trophy cases on the concourse, which highlight historical moments in K-State athletics, as well as 98 plaques depicting outstanding Wildcat teams, players and moments.

The coliseum is named for the late 1935 K-State graduate and Junction City (Kan.) businessman Fred Bramlage, who made the principle contribution. The building was constructed at a cost of $17.2 million and was built in a 22-month period beginning in October of 1986. Financial backing, which began taking shape in 1979, came from a number of areas, including $7 million from the student body and a matching figure from alumni. Unlike Ahearn Field House, state monies were not used for Bramlage Coliseum.

Bramlage was on hand Oct. 18, 1986, to break ground on the new facility. Other dignitaries included then-Governor John Carlin and former university president Jon Wefald.

"What we begin here will add to the glory and reputation of Kansas State," said Bramlage. "My hope is that this building will inspire people to come together around teams in the spirit of cooperation."

On the same day, Art Loub, Director of the KSU Foundation, said "If it were not for Fred Bramlage, this day would not be a reality. This is a tribute to the dedication and resourcefulness of one individual."

Mild winters helped construction crews finish the project nearly two months ahead of schedule. Most of the athletics offices were moved from Ahearn Field House to Bramlage Coliseum in September 1988.

Those offices now housed in the arena include those of the athletic director and most of the administrative staff, including the offices for the Ahearn Fund, business, communications, compliance, Fan Experience and Sales, video and K-State Sports Properties, along with the men's basketball office. Locker rooms for the men's and women's teams are located at ground level. They include a spacious dressing area, a player lounge and additional space to view film.

The men's basketball office, as well as those of the women's team, will move to the new Basketball Training Facility, located on the east side of Bramlage Coliseum in the Spring of 2012.

Ahearn Field House

Ahearn Field House meant different things to different people. To K-Staters, it meant great atmosphere, roaring crowds and Wildcat victories. To opponents, it meant intimidation, deafening noise and likely defeat.

Then Indiana head coach Bob Knight paid the facility one of its biggest compliments by saluting the fans. The Hoosier mentor said, "This has to be the greatest basketball crowd in America."

Over four and half million fans witnessed Ahearn's long and fruitful tenure and saw the Wildcats amass an incredible record of 379-87 (.813) in 38 seasons. Included in those totals are six undefeated seasons - 1951-52 (11-0); 1958-59 (11-0); 1961-62 (10-0); 1969-70 (11-0); 1972-73 (12-0); 1974-75 (12-0) - and an arena-best 16 wins in 1981-82 under head coach Jack Hartman.

Kansas State averaged almost 10,000 fans for its 466 games in Ahearn Field House and drew an arena record 12,166 fans during the 1968-69 season. In fact, the Wildcats drew 11,000 or more fans 16 times in the history of Ahearn Field House, including nine straight seasons from 1961-62 to 1969-70.

Ahearn's beginning officially started April 16, 1940, with a student rally although athletic director Mike Ahearn had mentioned the need for a new gymnasium several years earlier. The rally took place a full 10 years before the first game was played at the new field house.

The student rally kicked off an extended period of student demonstrations, petitions and pleading with state legislators for a new facility which would be home to numerous events. However, at the heart of the matter, was basketball seating, or the lack of it.

As head coach Jack Gardner's Wildcat teams began to take off, so did the demand for tickets in the 2,800-seat Nichols Gymnasium, which had been home to the team for 30 years. The college's enrollment alone was almost twice the seating capacity of Nichols. Students began their field house campaign, which soon grew to be a statewide effort, with the slogan "Let's have a Crackerjack Field House instead of a Crackerbox Coliseum."

After countless petitions and rallies, the students took things a step further in January 1941. With over 100 legislators attending the K-State/Kansas basketball game as guests of the university, a body fell from the rafters of Nichols where many of the students were forced to sit. Although the body was made of straw and covered with ketchup rather than blood, the point was well taken.

"The way those student sat up on those rafters, it's really a wonder that somebody wasn't injured or killed," said Dev Nelson, the "Voice of the Wildcats" from 1954-79. "When the dummy fell from the rafters, it startled a lot of people."

In time, the long endeavors of the K-State students and supporters paid off with a new $2 million facility, which was the fifth largest in the country at its construction and the largest in the state of Kansas with a seating capacity of 13,000.

The structure opened on Dec. 9, 1950, when K-State defeated Utah State, 66-56 before a sellout crowd. Later that same season, on Jan. 31, 1951, an Ahearn Field House record crowd of 14,028 crammed in to see the Wildcats crush No.4 Long Island, 85-65.

The last game in the building took place on March 5, 1988, when K-State defeated Missouri, 92-82, in front of 11,850. The last official seating capacity listed for the facility was 11,220 (over the years, seating was reduced to conform to fire codes).

Today, Ahearn Field House is one of America's showplace indoor facilities. It houses a Rekortan track for use by Kansas State's acclaimed men's and women's indoor track and field teams, three tennis courts for the women's tennis team and the home court of the nationally-competitive Wildcat women's volleyball squad. The volleyball squad has ranked among the top 30 programs in the nation for home attendance in six of the last nine seasons.

Nichols Gym

K-State's basketball tradition was born in Nichols Gymnasium. The building achieved its fame, however, more for spawning the movement to build Ahearn Field House and for an arsonist's fire which gutted the structure on Dec. 13, 1968.

Nichols was named after Ernest Nichols, the university's fifth president from 1899-1909. Work on the facility began in February 1910, and was completed in June of that same year at a cost of $84,190 (the money was appropriated from state funds).

The crowds were packed into the 2,800-seat Nichols Gym, where the students often sat in the rafters to watch the game.

The Wildcats defeated Bethany in the opener by a 40-20 count, then lost to Missouri, 58-55, in the final game on March 3, 1950.

Over the years, K-State won over 228 games in the building (with a .626 winning percentage), including four seasons - 1916-17 (10-0); 1918-19 (10-0), 1919-20 (10-2) and 1947-48 (10-1) - of 10 victories. The last four teams compiled an impressive 36-5 (.878) record at Nichols Gym, including a 10-1 mark in 1947-48.

Fans at Nichols Gym saw some of the early milestones of the Kansas State program, including its first three All-Americans E. I. Reynolds (1917), Frank Groves (1937) and Rick Harman as well as early head coaches Mike Ahearn, Zora G. Clevenger (who would later be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame) and Jack Gardner (inducted into the Naismith Hall of Fame).

The school's first two conference championship teams - the Missouri Valley Conference champions in 1917 (15-2) and 1919 (17-2) - both called Nichols Gym home with each of the squads going 10-0 in the building. The school's first Final Four team - 1947-48 - also competed in the arena and posted a 10-1 mark, while its last team won the Big Seven crown in 1949-50.

The seating capacity of Nichols was just 2,800 and by the time it closed, the crowds were easily overflowing. The student body was divided into two groups, and the groups alternated in attendance at every other game. People actually sat on the rafters and practice goals to see the games. That overcrowding problem eventually led to the construction of Ahearn Field House.

Prior to the advent of Nichols, Kansas State basketball was played in several locales. Among the homecourts were Commercial Hall, the Kansas State YMCA at 1100 Fremont in Manhattan and various other abandoned buildings around the town, including a closed-down skating rink.

The first game ever played on campus, a bout between the student team and the faculty, was staged in the Ag Barn at the north end of campus in January 1906. Twenty-five spectators attended, and the goals were provided by the blacksmith shop.

What will K-State look like in 2025? K-Staters have an idea. President Kirk Schulz, Provost April Mason, students, staff and alumni are working toward the goal of becoming recognized nationally as a Top 50 public research university in the next 14 years. To do that the university is working to boost total research and development expenditures, the total endowment and the number of undergraduate students involved in research, among other goals. In many ways, K-State is already well on its way to this goal. Check out the progress at www.k-state.edu/2025.

History and Location

Founded on Feb. 16, 1863, Kansas State University is the oldest public institution of higher education in Kansas and one of the first land-grant universities. It was located on the grounds of the old Bluemont Central College, which was chartered in 1858. The university moved to its present site in 1875.

Throughout its history, K-State's mission has been rooted in the principles set forth in the Morrill Act -- to provide teaching, research and service to the citizens of Kansas and beyond.

The 644-acre wooded campus with historic limestone buildings is located in northern Manhattan, Kan. (population of 50,000) and is convenient to both business and residential districts. It is located 125 miles west of Kansas City in the rolling Flint Hill of northeast Kansas. The university also has a campus in Salina, Kan., and another coming soon in Olathe, Kan., along with numerous extension fields, offices and other facilities in Kansas and Nebraska. The K-State Salina campus offers bachelor's and associate degrees in aviation and engineering technologies.

The university hosts the prestigious Landon Lectures on Public Issues, honoring the late Kansas statesman Alfred M. Landon. Since 1966 the series has featured several nationally prominent speakers, including Martin Luther King, Jr., Presidents Richard Nixon, Jimmy Carter, Gerald Ford, Richard Nixon, Ronald Reagan, George H.W. Bush, Bill Clinton and George W. Bush.

One of the six universities governed by the Kansas Board of Regents, Kansas State University continues to fulfill its historical educational mission in teaching, research and public service.

Academic Excellence

K-State is the only research university in the U.S. to have three national CASE/Carnegie professors of the year. All three are active teachers: Michael Wesch, 2008 national winner; Chris Sorensen, 2007 national winner; and Dean Zollman, 1996 national winner.

More than 250 majors and programs are offered in nine colleges. The Graduate School offers 67 master's degrees, 39 doctoral degrees, five educational doctorate programs and 33 graduate certificates in multiple disciplines across campus. More than $185 million is available in financial assistance, including $11 million in scholarships. Every year, seven out of 10 K-State students receive financial assistance.

Even with more than 23,000 students, the university is committed to individualized education whenever possible. For example, freshman English classes have no more than 22 students, introductory chemistry labs average 15 students, and speech classes are limited to 23 students. Seventy percent of classes have 30 students or less and the average class size for all undergraduate classes is 23 students. Ninety percent of classes have less than 49 students.

Student Achievement

Academic achievement of the institution is drawing national acclaim as well. K-State students have won more Truman scholarships, more Goldwater scholarships and more Phi Kappa Phi Fellowships than any other public university in the nation. Over the past twenty-five years, K-State has ranked No. 1 in the nation among public universities in Rhodes, Truman, Marshall, Goldwater and Udall Scholars. The university has earned its reputation as the "Student Scholar Capital of America."

K-State students have an outstanding record of acceptance into professional schools. Over the past four years, 70% of qualified pre-med applicants were accepted into medical schools; 100% of pre-optometry and 82% of pre-dentistry students were accepted into respective professional schools. Over the past five years, 98% of students who participated in our pre-law program were accepted into law schools.

Academic Recognition

- The College of Architecture, Planning, and Design programs rank tops in the nation. In 2010, the undergraduate and graduate architecture programs were ranked sixth and 16th nationally, respectively, while the undergraduate and graduate interior architecture/design programs were both ranked in the Top 10. The undergraduate and graduate landscape architecture programs were in the Top 5.
- The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business ranked College of Business Administration among the top 10% of business in the U.S. that are accredited in both the business and accounting programs.
- The College of Agriculture is ranked as a top 10 program when considering increasing enrollment, competition team success, faculty recognition and graduate acceptance. The agronomy program is ranked No. 1 in the total number of combined faculty and student awards over the last 10 years. The Plant Pathology program is ranked among the top 10 in The Chronicle of Higher Education, while the horticulture and park management and conservation programs were ranked in the top 10 in the Gourman Report.
- The College of Human Ecology is ranked as one of the top 10 in the nation by the USDA Food and Agricultural Education Information System. The College's bachelor of science degree in interior design was ranked first in the nation in the most recent DesignIntelligence rankings, while its marriage and family therapy program ranks among 11th.

Wildcat Nickname

Through its first 19 seasons of athletic competition, K-State had used "Aggies" as its nickname. But prior to the 1915 season, new coach John "Chief" Bender gave his squad the nickname "Wildcats." The moniker lasted the one season Bender coached at K-State. Under Head coach Z.G. Clevenger in 1917, the school team became known as the "Farmers." In 1920 new coach, Charles Bachman, took over the program, renaming the team "Wildcats." This time, the nickname stuck.

Willie Wildcat

Willie, a student bedecked in a oversized Wildcat head, is Kansas State's No. 1 fan. Willie Wildcats are selected yearly by a panel appointed by the cheerleading coach. The mascot is a central part of athletic contests, but also attends functions around the state as an ambassador. Traditionally, the identity of the student portraying Willie is kept secret.

Touchdown I-XI

In 1922, Hall of Famer Charles Bachman asked alumni to consider donating an actual Wildcat to the school to serve as a mascot. KSAC alumni Herbert R. Groome and John E. McCoy, both veterinarians in Twin Falls, Idaho, donated "Touchdown I" to the school shortly after the animal was nursed back to health under their care. (The bobcat had an encounter with a porcupine, and his face and throat were punctured by numerous quills. Unfortunately, Touchdown I never fully recovered from its fight, dying of pneumonia shortly after arriving in Manhattan.)

Although the bobcats have served as K-State's wildcat mascot since 1922, the animals no longer attend K-State games. Touchdown XI, the 11th in the line, was kept at Manhattan's Sunset Zoo.

K-State Colors

The school color Royal Purple was adopted in the fall of 1896 by a committee of "Miss Minnie L. Copeland, Jr. and Miss Winnifred Houghton and Miss Ina E. Holyrod, of the senior class, and perhaps one or more others." Although K-State's only official color is purple, white has been used as a complimentary color for many years. Silver is also a common second or third color. Former basketball coach Cotton Fitzsimmons incorporated gold during his two-year stint (1968-70), but gold or yellow has not been used since that time. The term "Purple Pride," which is often used in association with K-State athletics, was given rise during the tenure of head football coach Vince Gibson (1967-74).

Powercat Logo

One of the most recognizable athletic logos in the nation is the K-State Powercat. The logo was introduced by Bill Snyder shortly after his arrival in Manhattan as the attitude of the entire athletics department and university was changing. Manhattan native Tom Bookwalter, in cooperation with head coach Bill Snyder, created the powerful logo that is a prominent feature on the football helmet, at Wagner Field, on the back of the Dev Nelson Pressbox, clothing, flags, bottled water, vanity plates for cars and just about anywhere in Manhattan.

Previous logos used by the athletics department included a line drawing of a wildcat head and the cartoonish "Willie the Wildcat" that is used only by the Alumni Association.

School Songs

The Alma Mater was selected as a result of a 1903 campus contest. H.W. Jones ('88) was responsible for K-State's prized result. Jones' original work was four stanzas including the chorus. His version has been slightly altered over the years to include just two stanzas and the changing of the words from Kansas State Agricultural College to Kansas State University.

alma mater

"I know a spot that I love full well, 'Tis not in forest nor yet in dell, ever it holds me with magic spell, I think of thee Alma Mater.
"KSU, we'll carry the banner high, KSU long, long may thy colors fly.
Loyal to thee thy children shall swell the cry.
"Hail, Hail, Hail Alma Mater."

wildcat victory

"Fight you K-State Wildcats. For Alma Mater fight-fight-fight.
"Glory into combat for the purple and white. Faithful to our colors, we shall ever be, fighting ever fighting for a Wildcat Victory!"

wabash cannonball

Everyone knows that familiar tune Wabash Cannonball. In fact, Wabash and K-State are almost synonymous. What many people do not know is how the song became an integral part of Wildcat athletics. In the fall of 1969 the department of music burnt down. Every piece of music in the building was destroyed. The only thing that was salvaged was what was in the band director's brief case. That included a piece of music titled the Wabash Cannonball. With an upcoming football game and no music, that left only one thing to do. The band members played the song loud and often. A song that originally had no connection to K-State became a second fight song.

Slogans

Several chants and slogans are used in association with the team. "Purple Pride" and "Eat 'Em Up, Eat 'Em Up K-S-U" are just a few. One slogan that has virtually died out is "Every Man A Wildcat." The term was popular in the '50s, '60s and early '70s, and once adorned the front of the Ahearn Field House press box. Since the term referred to only one gender, however, it has faded. Kansas State, itself, is referred to in many different shortened versions. The most popular is "K-State", which is used by alums, friends and journalists from coast to coast.

"Voice of the Wildcats"

To go along with the outstanding basketball tradition at K-State is a long line of memorable "Voices of the Wildcats." Wildcat fans around the region have enjoyed broadcasts by K-State Hall-of-Famers

Bob Hilgendorf, Dev Nelson, Gary Bender, Fred White, Steve Physioc, Ron Paradis, Mitch Holthus, Greg Sharpe and currently in his 10th season, Wyatt Thompson.

A pioneer in broadcasting in Kansas, Bob Hilgendorf was the Wildcats' play-by-play announcer for both football and basketball for seven years (1947-54). In 1951, he organized the K-State Sports Network, one of the country's first college-operated sports networks. He also broadcast seven Final Fours.

Dev Nelson was the K-State Sports Information Director from 1966-72 and handled the Wildcats' play-by-play duties for both football and basketball as "Voice of the Wildcats" for 25 years (1954-79). He earned Kansas Sportscaster of the Year honors five times and appeared on that award's final ballot of three for 18-consecutive years. In addition to his work on the Wildcat Network, Nelson also was the first man on the Big Eight Television Basketball Network and originated the state high school basketball tournament all-site coverage. His first K-State athletics broadcast was a 65-51 win over Kansas in 1951 at Ahearn Field House on the 550-station Liberty Network. The Press Box at Bill Snyder Family Stadium is named in his honor. Nelson graduated from K-State in 1949.

Gary Bender worked for WIBW calling the action at Wildcat games sandwiched between Dev Nelson and Fred White during the 1966 and 1967 seasons. He went on to work for many years at CBS Sports, ABC Sports, ESPN, TNT and Fox Sports, including calling the 1981 NBA Finals and 1982 and 1983 NCAA Championship games. He is currently in his 19th year as the TV play-by-play voice of the Phoenix Suns, while he also serves as a play-by-play announcer on Versus for Mountain West football. Bender was inducted into the Kansas Sports Hall of Fame in 2008.

Fred White called the action for football and basketball games from 1967-79 for WIBW. He was the radio voice of the Kansas City Royals for 25 years. The award-winning announcer was heard year-round after working college basketball and football games for CBS Sports, NBC Sports, ABC Sports, TBS, Raycom, Jefferson Pilot, Creative Sports and ESPN. White, who earned numerous Kansas Sportscaster of the year awards, retired as the Royals' Director of Broadcast Services in 2008.

Steve Physioc served as "Voice of the Wildcats" from 1979-83. After leaving WIBW in 1983, he has served as play-by-play announcer for the Cincinnati Reds and Bengals (1983-87), San Francisco Giants (1987-88), San Diego Padres (1989-90), Golden State Warriors (1989-91), Vancouver Grizzlies (1995-96) and the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim (1996-2009). Physioc was a member of the ESPN staff from 1988-95 where he announced Major League Baseball, college basketball and baseball as well as Big Ten football before joining FOX Sports Net and KCAL in Los Angeles. He currently broadcasts college basketball games on FOX Sports Net and ESPN. He is a 1977 graduate of K-State.

Ron Paradis was a three-year letterman at K-State from 1964-66 before embarking on a broadcasting career. During his tenure at WIBW-TV, Paradis served as "Voice of the Wildcats" in 1984. He led the Wildcats in scoring (12.3 ppg) and free-throw shooting (78.4) in 1965. Paradis still ranks among the top five career free throw shooters in K-State history.

Mitch Holthus was "Voice of the Wildcats" from 1984-96 while earning Kansas Sportscaster of the Year honors in 1987, 1989, 1991, 1992, 1993 and 1994 by the National Association of Sportswriters and Sportscasters. He is the youngest broadcaster to receive every major sportscasting award in the state of Kansas. He is currently in his 18th season as play-by-play analyst for the Kansas City Chiefs.

Greg Sharpe was K-State's man behind the mike from 1997 to 2001 and moved into the play-by-play role after serving as the Wildcats' color analyst from 1989 to 1996. Sharpe, who called the 2001 NCAA Tournament for the Westwood One radio network, was named the Kansas Sportscaster of the Year in 1997. He is currently in his fourth year as the play-by-play voice of the Nebraska Cornhuskers.

Covering the Big 12

The Internet (Big12Sports.com)

The Big 12 maintains its website at www.big12sports.com. Complete information on the league and the member schools is available.

The site boasts original content from throughout the Conference along with several video broadcasts, including a weekly magazine show - The Big 12 Report. In men's basketball, full rebroadcasts of numerous games will be available via Big 12 Network Online, within 72 hours of a game's completion. Comprehensive coverage of media day in October and the 2012 Phillips 66 Big 12 Men's Basketball Championship in March is also available.

In men's basketball, scores throughout the league and the standings are updated as games are final. Big 12 Conference and team statistics are updated the following morning, with weekly award winners posted each Monday. An archive of conference and team-by-team statistics for every season in league history is included as well. Media can access Acrobat PDF files of the daily release, statistics and the conference media guide on the website.

Big 12 on Facebook and Twitter

The Big 12 also maintains a presence on two social networking sites - Facebook (facebook.com/Big12) and Twitter (twitter.com/Big12Conference). Periodic updates are posted, including game updates and other conference-related information.

Big 12 Media Release

The Big 12 communications staff will update a release, including team notes, results and Big 12 Players of the Week the following morning after games are played during the season. Complete league statistics, in addition to team-by-team statistics for all 12 league squads will be updated via the conference website as well.

Phillips 66 Big 12 Players of the Week

A Big 12 Player and Rookie of the Week will be chosen each Monday, beginning November 15. Nominations are submitted by the school media relations offices and the winners are selected by a panel of media voters who cover the league on a regular basis.

Big 12 Weekly Coaches Briefings

The Big 12, through the services of Premier Teleconferencing, hosts telephonic media conferences with each Big 12 head basketball coach starting at 10 a.m. CST during the season. Media will be allowed to ask questions directly of the coaches. Please contact the Big 12 communications staff for the call-in and replay phone numbers. The call can also be heard live and on replay via the Internet by visiting the Big 12 website at www.Big12Sports.com.

The session schedule for 2011-12 is as follows:

Mondays: Dec. 12, Jan. 2, Jan. 9, Jan. 16, Jan. 23, Jan. 30, Feb. 6, Feb. 13, Feb. 20, Feb. 27, March 5, March 12*

Covering Kansas State

Thank you for your interest in Kansas State men's basketball. The K-State Athletics Communications Office has produced the 2011-12 media guide to assist in your coverage of the Wildcats.

Please feel free to contact Tom Gilbert or any member of the staff with questions, requests or concerns. We look forward to working with you throughout the 2011-12 season.

Media Availability

Frank Martin Availability

Head coach Frank Martin will be available for interviews twice weekly during the season (typically Tuesdays and Thursdays) via a teleconference and/or following practice. Please contact Assistant Athletics Communications Director Tom Gilbert for dates and times of these teleconferences as well as phone numbers and/or practice times. In addition, Martin will be available for interviews 30 minutes after practice twice a week on the Bramlage floor. Please contact Tom Gilbert for dates and times of this availability.

Player Availability

All player interviews MUST be arranged through the Athletic Communications office. During the season, Wildcat players are available to the media twice a week, typically Mondays and/or Tuesdays and Thursdays during the Big 12 season. Per the policy of Coach Martin, all newcomers (transfers and freshmen) are not allowed to speak to the media until after the first semester, which ends on Friday, Dec. 9. To arrange an interview before or after practice, please call Tom Gilbert at least one day in advance.

Practices

All K-State practices are closed to both the general public and media. The lone exception is the practice the day before a TV contest when the commentators are allowed to view practice.

Gameday Information

Working Credentials

Media outlets interested in covering K-State men's basketball on either a season or individual-game basis are requested to submit all applications for credentials through the men's basketball credential application website. To access the site, please visit www.k-statesports.com/media. The Athletic Communications Office is unable to process written requests for credentials.

Because of inconsistent mail delivery service on tight deadlines, media passes may not be mailed in some instances. If this is the case, passes may be picked up at the Will Call window located on the East Side of the coliseum beginning two hours prior to kickoff. Individuals picking up credentials will be required to furnish positive identification. All credentials are non-transferable and are issued based on Kansas State's credential policy.

Official Websites of K-State Basketball

The Kansas State Athletics Department operates two web sites, www.k-statesports.com and FrankMartinBasketball.com. The sites are available to the media and the general public and provide a wealth of information on each of K-State's 16 varsity sports. Media and fans are welcome to access everything from the most current media guide to game notes, recaps, schedules, rosters, statistics and biographies on k-statesports.com. Launched in 2008, FrankMartinBasketball is a video driven site that includes special up-close features, all-access clips and highlights.

Media Parking

Parking passes at Bramlage Coliseum will be issued upon request and are available only to accredited media. Press parking is located in the VIP parking lot on the East side of the arena. Entrance to the lot is through Gate 8 off Kimball Avenue.

Visiting Radio

To inquire about access to existing radio courtesy lines (ISDN as well as analog lines), visiting radio stations should contact Matt Brown of Learfield Communications at mbrown@learfield.com.

Media Services

Packets including statistics, pregame notes, flipcards and programs will be available for media in the Seaton Media Room prior to the game. Halftime and final boxscores, a running play-by-play and postgame notes and quotes from head coaches and players of both teams also will be provided. Live running statistics will also be available via laptops throughout press row and on the Internet at pressbox.kstatesports.com during the game.

Postgame Policy

Kansas State's locker room is closed. Media will be asked to submit a list of player requests to Tom Gilbert with five minutes remaining in the contest.

Head coach Frank Martin and requested players will be available in the designated interview room at the top of the tunnel in Bramlage Coliseum. Requested players will be made available for a short period time. Martin will be available following his postgame radio obligations.

Following Big 12 policy, the opposing coach and selected players will be given the option to go first in the interview room. However, they will also be given the choice to conduct interviews outside their locker room near the Seaton Media Room.

Internet Access/Telephones

The press area as well as the Seaton Media Room in Bramlage Coliseum is equipped with high-speed wireless Internet. Media wishing to file stories electronically as well as photographers may access the network with a wireless internet card. Please contact a member of the staff for instructions relating to the network.

A limited number of charge-per-call telephones are located in the Seaton Media Room will be available for filing after the game on a first-come, first-served basis. All media wishing to have phone lines installed on press row will be responsible for making their own arrangements. Phones may be ordered through K-State Telecommunications at 785.532.7001.

CREDENTIAL POLICY

Credentials and working space for media members are issued at the sole and exclusive discretion of the K-State Athletic Communications Office, based on the following priorities and guidelines:

1. Originating radio and television personnel involved in a live broadcast.
2. Daily newspapers regularly covering K-State, the current-game opponent or another Big 12 school. Wire services, regional and national publications are also afforded this priority.
3. Non-originating radio and television personnel producing reports on the game. Only local radio stations with a full-time sports director conducting a regular sports show receive consideration for credentials.
4. Officially recognized Kansas State student publications or student electronic media outlets.
5. Non-daily newspapers or publications reporting on the game.

Other Credential Guidelines

- With the exception of beat writers covering Kansas State daily, all passes are issued on a game-by-game basis with consideration of available working space.
- Passes are non-transferable and are subject to immediate revocation if transferred to non-working media members.
- Kansas State University and the NCAA prohibit the issuance of credentials to representatives of an organization that regularly publishes gambling information, such as "tout" or "tip" sheets.
- Credentials are issued to web sites that are affiliated with web sites for national or regional television and news media organizations, e.g. USA Today Online, ESPN.com, SI.com, CBSportsLine.com, etc., for institutions that are conference members and non-conference opponents, and for the Big 12.
- If a news-gathering medium has an on-line site that sponsors these anonymous forums, they may continue to request credentials under its traditional medium (newspaper, magazine, radio or television), but will not be granted additional passes or access for on-line staff.

- Web sites that sponsor "message boards" or "chat rooms" where people are allowed to post anonymous information or rumors are ineligible for credentials or access to media functions.

- Kansas State University reserves the right to deny media credentials to any individual whose web site is not affiliated with a recognized news-gathering organization.
- All persons picking up credentials will be required to furnish positive identification. All credentials are non-transferable.
- Restrictions have been made on the usage of internet video of K-State Athletic events. Highlights of game action and/or press conference from K-State events are limited to and cannot exceed three (3) minutes in length per event.

NOTE: Spouses, dates, non-workers and anyone under 16 years of age are not permitted in the working press area.

Athletics Communications

The Kansas State University Athletics Communications Office is located in the north portion of Bramlage Coliseum, directly behind sections 12-15, on the first floor. The entrance to the office is located on the walkway between Bill Snyder Family Stadium and Bramlage Coliseum. There is also a elevator just outside the Legends' Room that will take you to the office.

Men's basketball contact Tom Gilbert is generally available in his office on gamedays until three hours prior to tipoff.

Wyatt Thompson*Voice of the Wildcats

The 2011 recipient of the Hod Humiston Sportscaster of the Year Award, play-by-play announcer Wyatt Thompson, a native Kansan, serves as the anchor of the Kansas State Sports Network and returns for his 10th season behind the mike as "Voice of the Wildcats".

Kansas State's Director of Sportscasting, Thompson also serves as host of the Bill Snyder and Frank Martin shows on both television and radio. In addition, he is involved in various Catbacker Club, alumni and athletic department functions, frequently serving as a keynote speaker.

Thompson came to K-State from Colorado State, where he was the play-by-play voice for the Rams' football and men's basketball teams for five years. An accomplished broadcaster, he won the Colorado Broadcasting Association award for best play-by-play in 2000. In addition, he was a sports reporter for Clear Channel Denver and the "Countdown to Kickoff" host for the Denver Broncos on KOA Radio.

Thompson started his broadcasting career in 1976 as a sportscaster for various high schools, colleges and universities in Kansas, spending time at stations in Hays and Goodland. He was recognized with the Kansas Association of Broadcasters Play-by-Play Award in 1982 and the Oscar Stauffer Sportscaster of the Year Award in 1989.

Stan Weber*Radio/FSN Kansas City Analyst

Providing the color commentary for men's basketball games on the K-State Sports Network as well as FOX Sports Kansas City is former Wildcat quarterback Stan Weber. Now in his 25th year providing color analysis for the network, he has matched legendary broadcaster Dev Nelson, who also called games for 25 years, for the longest tenure of a K-State radio broadcaster.

A native of Goddard, Kan., he served as captain of the 1984 team and led the team in rushing while earning Academic All-America honors. Weber, who graduated magna cum laude, received his bachelor's and master's degrees in accounting from Kansas State and was recently inducted into the school's Accounting Hall of Fame. In addition to his broadcasting duties, he currently serves as Vice President - CFO of Tower Properties. Weber and his wife, Nancy, a former cheerleader, have four children (Brittani, Stanton, McKenzi and Landry) and reside in Overland Park, Kan.

Matt Walters*Radio Analyst

Local radio personality Matt Walters is in his eighth year with the K-State Sports Network, where he serves as a color commentator for men's basketball in addition to his duties as the sideline reporter for the football team. An 16-year veteran of K-State baseball broadcasts, he also serves as host of the popular 'Powercat Gameday' football pre-game show on Sports Radio 1350 KMAN since 1998.

A 1992 graduate of Kansas State and native of Russell, Kan., Walters is in his fourth year as a Marketing Consultant with KMAN, and in his 15th year at the station overall. Along with his duties at the station, he also hosts 'The Game,' a drive-time sports talk show that airs on KMAN, and serves as the play-by-play voice of the Manhattan High School football and boys' basketball teams. An award-winning broadcaster, he received the prestigious Oscar Stauffer Sportscaster of the Year for 2005. Walters and his wife, Megan, reside in Manhattan.

Ben Boyle*FSN Kansas City Play-by-Play

After spending 18 years in the athletic department at Kansas State, Ben Boyle is in his eighth year in the management of K-State Sports Network, including his sixth as General Manager.

Boyle has been the play-by-play voice for the men's basketball television package since 1994 and was color analyst on the radio network from 1991 to 2005. He has also done freelance television play-by-play for Fox Sports Net, ESPN Regional Television and Metro Sports.

During his time in the athletic department, Boyle played a major role in securing many of the department's key partnerships that have dramatically increased revenues and exposure for K-State athletics, including the third-tier television rights agreement with FOX Sports Kansas City and the recently completed 10-year marketing and broadcast rights agreement with Learfield Communications. A 1989 graduate of Nebraska, Boyle and his wife, Carrie have two children (Jackson and Alex).

Kansas State Basketball On the Air

The 2011-12 men's basketball season marks the seventh year of the K-State Sports Network, a joint venture of Kansas State Athletics and Learfield Communications. Learfield is a national leader in collegiate sports broadcasting and marketing, owning the rights to 50 of the nation's top collegiate programs.

The 2011-12 season will be the seventh year of a 10-year partnership between Learfield and K-State Athletics that grants K-State Sports Properties the exclusive marketing and broadcast rights for all Wildcat athletic teams. The network distributes its digital-quality audio stream via satellite to affiliates across the state of Kansas.

But men's basketball is just the beginning. The network also provides play-by-play coverage of K-State football, women's basketball, volleyball and baseball. Weekly coaches shows for football, men's basketball and women's basketball supplement the live event coverage.

Frank Martin Radio Show

Affiliates on the K-State Sports Network carry the Frank Martin Show each Monday during the season. The show originates from Carlos O'Kelly's Mexican Cafe at the Manhattan Town Center Mall from 7-8 p.m. during the season and is open to the public.

Tentative radio show schedule for 2011-12 is as follows: Mondays: Nov. 7, Nov. 21, Nov. 28, Dec. 5, Dec. 12, Jan. 2, Jan. 9, Jan. 16, Jan. 23, Feb. 6, Feb. 27, March 5.

FSKANSAS CITY™*FOX Sports Kansas City Television Package

In the summer of 2009, the K-State announced a three-year extension of an agreement with FOX Sports Kansas City to continue as a television partner. This season, FOX Sports Kansas City will televise 18 live K-State sporting events, including 10 men's basketball games, and the Frank Martin Television Show. These telecasts will be available to more than 1.2 million homes in the state of Kansas and throughout the Kansas City area. All of these contests will also be available on the ESPN Full Court package and ESPN3.com, which will give Wildcat fans the ability to watch all 31 games on at least one of the ESPN family of networks.

Frank Martin Television Show

The Frank Martin Television Show airs each Saturday on FSN Kansas City at 11 a.m. CT. Hosted by "Voice of the Wildcats," Wyatt Thompson, the show features coach Frank Martin, player and fan features, a coaches' corner and highlights and previews of upcoming games. The show will air on Metro Sports on Sundays at 11:30 p.m. CT and Mondays at 11:30 a.m., 4:30 p.m. and 11:30 p.m. CT. The show will also air on Cox Cable on Monday at 7 p.m. and Tuesdays at 8:30 p.m. CT. The FSN Kansas City television show schedule is as follows: Saturdays: Dec. 3, Dec. 10, Dec. 17, Jan. 7, Jan. 14, Jan. 21, Jan. 28, Feb. 4, Feb. 11, Feb. 18, Feb. 25, March 3.

K-STATEHD.TV
K-STATE'S WORLD-WIDE CONNECTION

Debating in 2011, K-StateHD.TV is an exclusive high-definition online network providing K-State a world-wide connection for live athletics and academics, classic games, press conferences, original programming, as well as on-campus performances and/or lectures. A joint venture with the university, K-StateHD.TV plans to broadcast more than 150 live events during 2011-12. Although no live men's basketball games will be shown due to TV contracts, every home and away game will be available as an on-demand option within 72 hours. Viewers can also watch exclusive content, including K-State Gameday, the official on-site show for K-State HD.TV, featuring former players Chris Merriewether and Clint Stewart for selected basketball games this season. To visit the home of K-StateHD.TV, or to subscribe to the service, visit www.k-statehd.tv.
